We have hitherto abstained from any allusion to the personal warfare waged between J. T. Henry, of the Titusville Sunday News, and M. N. Allen, Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Titusville Printing Association. The discussion arose from, it seems to us, an unprovoked porsonal attack in the News of last week upon Mr. Allen. Mr. Allen repiled with great severity, and here the matter should have ended, but yesterday Mr. Henry rejoined in a leng article devoted exclusively to personal abuse of Mr. Allen. The latter comes out in a card in this morning's Courier which is calm and dignified in tone, and sets the author right before the public. He does not descend to personal abuse and scandal, but makes a straightforward statement of the responsibilities which rest upon him, and the manner in which be has in the past, and shall in the future, try to meet them. We deprecate personalities in journalism, and hope in the future that our Titosville cotemporaries will abstalu from them, but in this case we must say that we think Mr. Allen bas taken the right stand, and one which time will justify.

KANE CITY ITEMS. - A new billiard ball has recently been erected. It contains two tables, and is fitted up in modern style with all the modern improvements. Mr. J. DHlon is the proprietor.

A new well is going down on the Lake farm. Owned by Green Bros.

Momrs. Boulton and Barcroft ers of the Reed farm, are about to drill a new well on that farm.

The "Home Restaurant," O. D. Jenuison, proprietor, is a new institution. A series of social parties, to be held during the coming winter, are contemplated. Divine service is largely attended, in the School House, Sabbath evenings.

Crawford, the well known dry goods dealer, continues to sell goods at a lower rate then any other bouse in Kane City. He is an honorable upright dealer, and we would advise our patrons in that place to patronize his store.

Developments continue on the Dempsey farm with good success.

A "turkey shoot" is to come off seon, and much sport is anticipated.

It is reported that the Atlantic & Great Western Railroad Co., will soon come in control of the Niles & New Lisbon Railroad, as successors to the Eric management .--The Erie no longer having control of the Atlantic & Great Western Ry., lines connecting with the flatter are of no benefit Atlantic & Great Western Ry., lines con-necting with the ylatter are of no benefit as feeders, and bence their intention of giv-ng up the Ning & New Lisbon road — [Kent Bulletin.

The widow of Admirai Pearson died at Port-mouth, N. H., Thursday, bear in mind that this evening the great drama of "Neck and Neck" will be produced at Sobel's Opera House. This piece was written especially for Mr. E. T. Stetson, the leading actor of the company, by Mr. Charles Poster, and has been played by Mr. Stateon for 100 consecutive nights in the N. Y. and Brooklyn theatres, and in every important theatre in the United States and the Consides Mr Stetson has the reputs tion, and a well earned one, of being one of the finest star,performers on the American boards, which is a sufficient guarantee of a crowded house. He is supported by a full company of talented ladies and gentlemen, and the drams. will no doubt be produced with excellent effect throughout .-Shyuld the present tour prove a success, it is the intention of Mesers. Forbish & Wilton, the gentlemanly managers, to bring before the all ragion public such star performers as Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Florence, Maggie Mitchell and others. We hope our citizens will show a just appreciation of real merit and extend them a crowded bouse

SOCIAL PARTY. - One of the pleasantest social parties of the season came off in Murray's Hall, Kane City, on Friday night last, gotten up under the auspices of our friend. Dan. E. Crocker, the popular landlerd of the Kane City botel. About twenty six couple were in attendance. Music was furnished by the Tarr Farm string band, and the dance was kept up to the "wee sma" bours ayant the twal," and the company separated amid the best of good feeling, and wishing for many more such happy occa-

New. Well. - A new well was struck on the H. Neeley farm, Parker's Landing, on Friduy last, which promises to be something big. When only 5 foot in the sand, a vein of gas and oil was struck of so powerful a volume as to start the well to flowing at the rate of 35 barrels per day through the casing. It is owned by Mesers. Patterson & Dickey, M. L. Lockwood, and W. H Nicholson, of Petroleum Centre, Kemp Bros. of Columbia Farm, and Armor & Raymer, of Parker's Landing. When completed the well bide fair to be a large one. We congratulate our townsmen on their good luck

PERSONAL. -The many friends of Mr. Jan Linden, will be glad to learn that be is "Youst vrom Yermany," and is at present dispensing fluids and doing the agreeable at Tilusville, last Saturday, and found him dothe American Hotel.

SEDUCTION PUNISHED -Seduction to, really tooked upon as a crime in the Albany county court. Daniel F. Manning, of Aibany, some time since seducet Theresa Smith, of Cohoes. We suppose Miss Smith requested him to render her the only satis faction, through a marriage ceremony, that was possible, and refused. At all events be was arrested, tried, and convicted, and on Wednesday was sentenced to three years in the Albany penitentiary. When Mr. Man-ning learned that the shair was not a jokeas such matters usually are-that he was, to speak after the popular manner, "in for it"-he kindly consented to marry the lady; but her parents refused their consent to the compromise, and he goes up. Perhaps. If other courts would be equally just-if this matter of seduction could be looked upon as something more than a pleasantry—there there would be fewer broken hearts and blighted loves.—Rochester Democrat.

Lovers of the legitimate drams should Petroleum Trade and Ocean Freights [From the New York Butletin.]

Just at present the petroleum trade presents a spectacle that has not been previously witnessed within a year, namely, that of a marked decline on the Creek, and a slight advance at New York at one and the same time. This fact is the more remarkable in view of a low decline in ocean freight rates. a circumstance which, if the foreign demand for oil were at all strong, would have aided to increase rather than abate the Creek prices. These lower ocean rates are the consequence of an increase of a number of disposable vessels at a time when "the markets for American products for export are relatively low, and duller than they have been for the two months previous. The ges. eral view of the shipping and oil trades is that, on account of a prespective duliness of the export trade for the rest of the year, as compared with the immediate past, foreign freights are unlikely to advance materially, while the demand abroad for petroleum will not be sufficient to cause an advance in the values of crude oil, in the fect of the present Sciesers. Also, Knives made by B. & W. arge production, until our winter home rade shall begin-at about the middle of December. As the case now stands, the bears" against the Creek have the strong position, while there is more to encourage the refining interest than there has been for some time.

Ludicrous Scene in Church

How is this for a scene in church: The place is an edifice in Bath, Me. The bew is crowded. The sermon is long. A respectable citizen goes to sleep. In close proximity to him is a lady. The preacher was in the midst of the closing proyer, when the slumberer astonished the congregation by granting in a tone of complaint: "Come, come, Sarah, lay along! Don't crowd so! Lay over! lay over!" "Sarab," who was fortunately in the pew also, never for a moment lost her presence of mind, but administered a timely poke with her parasol, which swakened her dormant lord and prevented any further remerks on his part. A warning to sleepy auditors or long-winded preachers-30 metter which.

OLD BOB RIDLEY .-- Robert Ridley is a person well known to many of our readers He is one of those popular good fellow who has bosts of friends. We called upon him at his saloon opposite the Parsball House, ing a thriving business. We were also agreeably surprised to find there presiding at the bar, our old friend Ed. Sutherland, that whole hearted jolly chum, known to all around here. Ed's friends will now know where to flad bim when they go to Titus-
