COOPERSTOWN OIL ITEMS. - The well recontly struck on Sugar Creek, about one mile above Cooperstown, is yielding 7 barrels per day by actual gauge. It is owned by Messrs. Brown & Balston. These gentlemen are about to drill three more wells on their tract. The rigs for two are aiready up, and lumber for the third is on the ground.

Adjoining their tract is the Walbridge farm, upon which several parties have located, and intend to commence the work of development at once.

About three-quarters of a mile below town, on the same side of the Creek, our townsman, Capt. W. L. Smith, has an eight acre tract of the Young farm, upon which he intends to commence operations at once. During the excitement existing in 1865, two wells were put down on his tract, one to the denth of 5:0 feet and the other one 200 ft., and afterwards abandoned. The one 500 feet deep has flowed small quantities of oil through the conductor hole ever sinceenough to indicate that the greasy fluid existed there in paying quantities. The Capt proposes to test this well and drill the other to the required depth. He feels confident of striking oil, and we certainly hope may succeed in bis undertaking.

Oil matters on Sugarcreek promise to be lively this winter.

terson Bros. & Dickey's oil refinery, on the and several others injured, is another incaused by one of the worms in the tar still builders sometimes do their work. A pillar expanding with the heat and bursting, setting fire to the still and the sheds over the ed, rested on a plank instead of on a joint. refluery. The still is ruined beyond repair, As a matter of course the pillar crushed and the sheds were partially burned and through the plank and settling of the floor torn down to prevent the fire spreading .-Through the exertion of the workmen and the citizens, and the fact that bardly a breath of air was stirring, a disastrons confisgration was averted. Had the large iron tank at the refinery and other tanks in the immediate vicinity caught fire, no telling where the flames would have been stayed .-The loss is estimated at between $500 and $600. The fire will not materially interfere with the running of the refinery.

Our former townsman, Mr. C. P. Button has commenced a well on his tract of 160 acres lately purchased from, Squire Kinnear. This farm is about four miles southwest from Oil City, on a direct line between Sandy and Driftwood, and will doubtless prove good territory.

Mr. Butten is the owner of the Button welre, on the Central Petroleum Company's | He was originally from Louisville. farm, Petroleum Centre.

New Jersey and Virginia, it is claimed, have given Democrat majorities, at the election held yesterday.

Autumn Leaves.

'Autumn leaves, Automn leaves, lie strewn around me here; utumn leaves, Autumn leaves, how sad, how cold, how drear!

How like the hopes of childood's day, Thick clustering on the bough! How like those hopes is their decay,

How faded are they now! Autumn leaves, Antumn leaves, lie strewn around here;

Autumn leaves, Autumn leaves, how sad, how cold, how drear!

Wither'd leaves, Wither'd leaves, that fly before the gale; Wither'd leaves, Wither'd leaves, ye tell a mournful tale, Of love once true, and friends once kind.

And happy mements fled; Dispersed by every breath of wind, Forgotten, changed or dead!

Autumo leaves, Autumo leaves, lie strewn around me hare! Autumnlieaves, Autumn leaves, how sad.

how cold, how drear!"

By Charles Dickens.

This is the year of calemities. Even the Arctic Sea contributes its share of frightful disasters, the losses in the whaling fleet of this season being unparalled in extent --Happily, loss of life has not been reported. though suffering, privation, and destruction of property comoine to make the disaster bad enough. Thirty-three vessels have been crushed in the ice north and east of Behring Strait. The localities mentioned in the account show that the whalers had pushed much futher eastward than usual, and had touched the region generally abandoned to adventurous scientific explorers. Point Belcher is in latitude 70 deg. 56 N. and longitude 161 deg. E.

Mr. Henry C. Chapman, the unfortunate man who was ran over by the cars at Miller farm, a few days since, died in Titusville, day before yesterday, from the injuries received. Mr. C. bad long been a resident of Petroleum Centre, and was highly esteemed by all with whom he was acquainted. His untimely end will long be mourned, and the bereaved family have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community in their and affliction. The remains were taken to Newburgh, Maine, bis native place, for burial

Mr. A. is well known in the theatrical profession as a star actor, and is highly spoken of by the press wherever he has appeared. The New ark Daily Courier says: "The company may be said to be the best that we have ever seen in Newark since Lester Wallack's. We went prepared to witness a good performance, but it was even better than we expected." All who wish to see a good performance will be sure to attend to-night.

Mr. James Linden advertices a large quantity of poultry for sale, in another column. His stock is good and for sale cheap. Enquire at the American Hotel. You can buy a Thanksgiving Turkey of him at an extremely low figure

Frank Nicholson will furnish those desiring to get up clubs with all the newspapers and periodicals at publisher's rates. Look out for his new advertisement in to-morrows

The panic in a Louisville church, by Oil Fire. - An oil fire occurred at Pat- which eleven persons were trampled to death by which a portion of the floor was supportabove created a panic. It would seem impossible that any builder in his right senses could make so criminal a blunder, but that every city presents examples of crimical ignorance, parelmony, or dishonesty in the construction of public buildings

Tickets for Nasby's lecture, the first of the course, which comes off on Friday evening next, can be procured at the Post Office Newsroom, J. W. Thompson's grocery store or of Mr. J. M. Dickey.

R. A Shepard, agent of a transfer company at Memphis, cured himself of intemperance, on Monday, by committing suicide.

There are 409 incorporated cities in the United States, but many of them have not over five thousand inhabitants, and some not more than two thousand.

As we predicted last spring, this season has produced the greatest oil excitement ever known in Clarion county. It is caused by actual development, and obtaining some of the best wells now in the whole oil regions. There is very little speculation, but the productiveness of our territory has caused a rise in the price of land that seems almost fabulous. The development is as yet confined to Richland and Perry townships, but is coming up the Clarton river steadily; and soon Beaver, Licking, Salem, Ashland, and other townships will be spouting oil like the whales of the North Sea. The Oil City parties who leased land last week around Clarion borough, are now here at work, on the ground, and will immediately put down a hole near the Fountain well. on the Ciarion river, about a mile from town. The immense volume of gas in the Fountain well, which was never completed and tested, and everything else, indicate this as good oil territory. We are glad that experienced and practical men are about to test the matter. There is little doubt but that the valley of the Clarion will prove as productive oil terrifory as Oil Creek. Some of the best wells in the whole oil region are seven or eight miles up the Clarion, from its mouth, and the development is steadily advancing up that stream .- [Clarion Demo
