ROBERTS' PATENT TORPEDOES.

TORPEDOES. THE ROBERTS PETROLEUM TORPEDO CO. Office at the RED PLANING MILL, Cor. of Pine and Second Streets, (Near the Railroad,) TITUSVILLE, PA.

Owing to the large and increasing demand for the Roberts' Torpedoes, and the late decision of the Commissioner of Patents in refusing to issue a patent, and the decision of Judge P. C. Greer sustaining the Roberts' patent they have LOWERED the price of their Torpedoes.

As I write with diffidence I can only state the conclusions to which my mind has come after a careful examination of this case.

The complainant has exhibited a patent dated 25th of April, 1868. This is prima facie evidence of a good title, and puts on the respondents the burden of proof that the patent is void or worthless.

I need not repeat my remarks in the case of Good-year v. Day (2 Wall, C. C. Rep. 229.) but now adopt them as affording a rule of decision which applies clearly to the present case.

As the infringement of the patent is admitted, the only question will be as to the validity of complainant's patent of April 25, 1868.

It was after speculation, and had been reduced to practice, and after repeated experiments, had the complainant succeeded in over coming the prejudice and ignorance of the people on the subject, and persuading the public that his invention was useful after he had established its great utility and value.

Let a degree be entered for complainant for a patent infringement, and a Master appointed to take an account according to the power of the Statute.

NOTE—The passage referred to by Judge Greer in his former decision on J. Wallace, p. 292, adopted by application to this case was as follows: "It is usually the case, when any valuable discovery is made, or any new machine of great utility is invented, that the attention of the public has been attracted to the subject, and that many persons have been making experiments, and experiments, philosophical and mechanical, may be made in some measure anticipated by their application to the possibility of such discovery or invention."

And yet when genius and patient perseverance have at length succeeded, in spite of success and scoffs, some vainly and others with success, and when the discovery has been perfected by patient and successful experiments, when a new and better compound of machinery, or machine has been thus produced, which is useful to the public, that the party making becomes a public benefactor and entitled to a patent.

And yet when genius and patient perseverance have at length succeeded, in spite of success and scoffs, some vainly and others with success, and when the discovery has been perfected by patient and successful experiments, when a new and better compound of machinery, or machine has been thus produced, which is useful to the public, that the party making becomes a public benefactor and entitled to a patent.
