REMOVAL.

The office of the Daily Record has been removed to the building situated four doors below the late location, directly opposite the McClintock House, and next door to Odd Fellows Hall. Our friends are invited to call and see us.

Owing to a press of other duties, we unintentionally neglected to mention the lecture given by Gen. Kilpatrick, before the Y. M. C. A., on Saturday evening last. The lecture was a success in every respect, the Opera House being filled with a large and fashionable audience, which, considering the extremely bad state of the weather that evening, speaks well for Petroleum Centre as a lecture-going community. The Gen. fully sustained his reputation as an able and eloquent lecturer. To hear him recount the daring deeds of Sherman's boys in blue, carried on back in imagination to the dark and troublous days of the rebellion, and we were again "Marching Through Georgia," and again heard "the boys" singing as they journeyed along—

"Hurrah! hurrah! we bring the jubilee,
Hurrah! hurrah! for the flag that makes us free—
So we'll sing the chorusing from Atlanta to the Sea,
While we are Marching through Georgia."

The lecture gave general satisfaction to all present, and the hope is freely expressed that the Y. M. C. A. will secure the services of that gentleman to deliver another lecture before the winter is over.

The members of the Young Men's Christian Association, desire us, in this connection, to return their sincere thanks to the Columbia-Cornet Band for gratuitously furnishing music for the occasion. The favor is fully appreciated and will not soon be forgotten.

GONE AND DONE IT.—Our friend, Mr. Hiram Parker, of the firm of H. & W. Parker of this place, has been and gone and done it. His "new departure" took place at Summit Station, Chautauqua county, N. Y., Dec. 25th, and the lady's name is Miss Harriet Fingley, a very estimable lady residing in that place. We congratulate the newly wedded couple, and trust that many years of happiness and prosperity await them.

The surveyors continue at work on the Egbert farm.

Judging from the outlandish noises heard at a late hour last night, some of the boys had hardly got over Christmas.

Ed Perkins' Happy Thoughts.

Ed Perkins thus philosophizes in a late letter to the New York Commercial Advertiser:

I saw a man pulling his arms off trying to get on a new pair of boots, so I said:

Happy Thought—They are too small, and you will never be able to get them on till you have worn them a spell!

I heard an officer in the Seventh Regiment scolding a private for coming too late to drill, so I said:

Happy Thought—Somebody must always come last; this fellow ought to be praised for, if he had come early, he would have shirked the scolding off upon somebody else!

I saw an old maid at the Fifth Avenue with her face covered with wrinkles, turning sadly away from the mirror, so I said:

Happy Thought—Mirrors nowadays are faulty. They don't make such nice mirrors as they used to when you were young!

I heard a young lady from Brooklyn praising the sun, so I said:

Happy Thought—The sun may be very good, but the moon is a good deal better, for she gives us light in the night when we need it, while the sun only shines in the day time, when it is light enough!

I saw two men shoot an eagle, and as he dropped on the ground I said:

Happy Thought—You might have saved your powder, for the fall alone would have killed him!

A young man was disappointed in love at Niagara Falls, so he went out on a terrible precipice, took off his clothes, cast one long look into the whirlpool, and then—

Happy Thought—Went home and went to bed!

Two Mississippi River darkies saw for the first time a train of cars. They were in a quagmire to know what kind of a monster it was, so one said:

Happy Thought—It is a dried up steamboat getting back into the river!

A poor sick man, with a mustard plaster on him said:

Happy Thought—If I should eat a loaf of bread I'd be a live sandwich!

As a man was burying his wife he said to his friend in the graveyard: Alas! you feel happier than I. Yes, neighbor, said the friend:

Happy Thought—I ought to feel happier, I have two wives buried there!

A man "out West" turned "State's evidence," and swore that he was a member of a gang of thieves. By-and-by they found the roll of actual members, and accused the man of swearing falsely. "I was a member," said the man. "I—"

Happy Thought—"I was an honorary member!

George K. Anderson, Esq., of Titusville, has tendered to the ladies' Home Relief Society the dwelling grounds recently purchased by him for $16,000 from L. F. Seely, Esq., for the purpose of a City Hospital.—In addition to this Mr. A. proposes to donate to the founding of a City Hospital the handsome sum of $2,500. This we term a noble charity, and Geo. K. Anderson is a man of noble generosity for conceiving and executing it without prompting from any source.—Pittsburgh Commercial.

Mr. M. B. Smiley, long engaged in the practice of law in this place, is soon to remove to Franklin, intending to make that city his permanent home. We are sorry to lose so good a citizen and lawyer as Mr. S. from our midst, but are pleased to announce that his successor is Mr. W. W. Johnston, a young and rising lawyer of Wayne county, and also a member of the Crawford county bar. Mr. J. will have his office in the bank building, where he can be found at all hours ready and willing to dispense Coke and Blackstone in large or small quantities to those desiring it.

"Cash Up City," is the name of the new town at the big well, north of Pithole.—When the big well above Clarion is struck, and a town built, it is to be called "Cash Down City."—Clarion Democrat.

A butcher in New York was committed for trial by a police justice on Tuesday last on a charge of annoying the congregation, at a Jewish tabernacle. His offence consisted of hanging pigs before his store, which is near by the church.

The town of Oran in South America, experienced forty distinct shocks of earthquake within nine hours. The streets were split open, and every building tumbled down.—Only one person was killed, all the inhabitants having fled to camps outside.

A very pleasant family reunion came off at the McClintock House, on Monday evening last. A goodly number of the friends and relatives of Mr. J. A. Hulbert and his amiable lady, assembled in their private parlor at that hotel, and were made happy by the beautiful presents taken from the Christmas Tree as marks of friendship for them on the part of that couple. The affair was an exceedingly pleasant one.

Queen Victoria intends, it is said, to celebrate the restoration of herself and the Prince to health by a number of brilliant State receptions.

The Louisville Courier Journal thus cruelly satirizes the trashy poetical effusions the grand duke suffered under when in New York:

All hail, bully boy! The undersigned and
And the rest of the asses here, solid as

Would lick your imperial boot as we pass,
O child of your mother! O son of a

A very wicked Connecticut man, being recently taken ill, and believing that he was about to die, told a neighbor that he felt the need of preparation for the next world, and would like to see some proper person in regard to it, whereupon the feeling friend sent for an insurance agent.

Saginaw, Michigan, has one letter carrier; a skating rink; a woman who stole thirteen umbrellas, and a justice who regarded it as a crime, and daily sparing and wrestling exhibitions. In the evening, the young people hold griddle cake omelettes where they fritter away the time in preparation for dyspepsia.

At Williamsport, Pa., Thursday Judge Gamble continued the injunction restraining Bishop O'Leary from removing Father Stocks from his pastorate. This is the first case of the kind in America and limits the power of a bishop over his priests.

A little boy was recently presented with a toy trumpet, to which he became greatly attached. One night, when he was about to be put in his "little bed," and was ready to say his prayers, he handed the trumpet to his grandmother, saying, "Here grandma, you blow while I pray!"
