REMOVAL.

The office of the Daily Record has been removed to the building situated four doors below the late location, directly opposite the McClintock House, and next door to Odd Fellows Hall. Our friends are invited to call and see us.

New Well—A new well was struck on the Maple Shade Oil Co's tract, Hyde & Egbert farm, on Wednesday last, which started up at the rate of nine barrels per day. The well has considerable gas. It is owned by Dr. M. C. Egoert of this place.

This is the second well struck on this farm within a few weeks, and adds more testimony to the value of old territory for oil producing purposes. We have not the least doubt but that much of the old territory in this vicinity will eventually produce oil in paying quantities again.

The well was torpedoed on Thursday, and we understand, the production was considerably increased.

Our townsman, Mr. S. H. Kooker and his lady, were surprised on New Year's Day by a number of their friends and acquaintances and made the recipient of a valuable present in the shape of a large and elegant family Bible, upon the cover of which is handsomely stamped in gold letters their names. The book of books will ever be prized as a token of friendship, and the names of the givers will always be cherished by them. They were also presented with several other handsome and valuable gifts. After the presentation the evening was spent in pleasant social intercourse, and the occasion will long be remembered as an exceedingly pleasant "Happy New Year."

The Petroleum Monthly for January is on our table. This valuable magazine is filled with entertaining reading relating to the oil business, and is now one of the best monthly magazines published. It has been improved typographically, and is now printed on beautiful tinted paper. Messrs. Bowman & Linn, publishers, Oil City, Pa.—Terms $3.00 per annum.

The Venango Citizen recently donned a new dress and presents a fine appearance.—The Citizen is a good paper and we are pleased to note its prosperity. May it continue.

The Titusville Sunday News also appears in a new dress. Good luck to it.

About 100 men are at present at work on the new railroad between this place and Pioneer.

Woodhull and Clifton in the Moscow Funeral Procession—Remarks by the Gamins.

(St. Louis Republican New York Letter.)
If Victoria and Tennessee were not amused they must be indifferent creatures to entertain. The boys invited them to speak, and were particularly happy in their remarks on their personal appearance. A big tow-headed boy sang out: Watch is the old cat they call the next President? Oh! my ain't she ugly! Say, old gal, give us a song and dance. Is that your own hair or a scratch? Open your mouth—yer' fraid to, for fear the hose-cars'll think its the depot and drive in. Jehu! what a noise, says a lad within a foot of Victoria; I hain't seen such a noise since I had the measles, and then the doctor had it to pick a bite with. The nasty little nuisances stood in solid masses about the women. Colonel Blood and Stephen Pearl Andrews manfully strove to protect the brokeresses; but the boys seemed to know all about matter, and said: Now his blood's up—Say, Cap'n—it's all right—we're all free lovers. When a cheap transparency made its appearance with a delegation, bearing inscription, and they had all things in common, then the crowd shouted, Fetch the banner over here! Give it to Woodhull! Here's the gal for that motto! Finally the procession started and those unhappy women, foot-sore and insulted, walked miles through the mud which covered everything, supported by the great rabble that ever paraded, one weak band, thirty or forty lower class French women, and thousands of wild, hungry-looking men. It was ridiculous on the part of the Police to interfere with the Communists, as they did on the preceding Sunday, since that act was the only one that gave any sort of consequence to the whole affair.

STAR SPANGLED BANNER—This favorite family paper takes its 100,000 readers by surprise in the issue for January, 1872, just received. It is enlarged to the same size as N. Y. Ledger, and appears in a new dress, elegant new heading, border, type, etc. It contains one-half more reading than formerly, and is greatly improved in every respect. This number contains four splendid Stories, Poetry, Wit and Wisdom, Sketches, Knowledge in a Nut Shell, Money Maker's Mirror, Children's Department, Health Department, Farm and Farmer, Cook's Corner, Ladies' Beaucoir, Pen and Signers, Chip Basket, and the "Jogger's Corner, a special feature of this excellent paper. One thousand and one hundred and thirty names were named and exposed during 1871. The publishers of the "Banner" give a new and superb "Prang Chromo" and their large and first-class paper a whole year for only 75 cts. Try it. Copies can be seen at this office, or from any newsroom, or by sending 6 cents to APPLES—By far the nicest fruit that grows for the benefit of man is the Apple.—We came to this conclusion after sincere reflection, mature deliberation, wise consideration, and eating two or three of those nice Spitzenbergs to be procured at the store of H. H. Warner, on Washington-St. Mr. W. has on hand about one hundred barrels of these apples, raised on his farm in Ohio, which he is selling at remarkably low rates. He has also on hand several barrels of the nicest Sweet Cider we ever tasted. Those who desire nice Apples to make misse pie and sweet cider to flavor them, should call on Warner.

The report that Mr. John Pittsford, Jr., the present efficient General Manager of the Oil Creek & Allegheny River Railroad, has resigned that position is premature. Under his management this road has become one of the best paying institutions in the country. We trust Mr. P. will not resign his position as the oil interests of this region and travelers over the road, can ill afford to lose so good a man.

From a gentleman of this place who was on board, that the 10:10 train east on the A & W. R. R. met with quite a serious accident, four miles west of Union City, on Saturday evening last, caused by a broken rail. The smoking car was precipitated down a thirty foot bank broken up, and both passenger cars and the sleeping car thrown from the track. No one was injured.

A demure looking chap hailed a charcoal peddler with the query, "Have you got charcoal in your wagon?" "Yes, sir," said the expectant driver, stopping his horses. "That's right," observed the demure chap, with an approving nod; always tell the truth and people will respect you!" And he hurried on, much to the regret of the peddler, who was getting out of the wagon to look for a brick. Daabury News.

It is suggested to Mr. Gilmore to introduce at the coming jubilee the "Song of the S'bird," performed by a sewing machine—a Singer, of course.

WEST VA. OIL NEWS—The well owned by Gibson & Chubbuck and the V. O. & C. Co. will be tested to-day. These are putting up another rig and will be ready to commence drilling on the new well before long.

The Cornfield well is still producing about 100 barrels per day. The Steel & Woodward well is also producing about 100 barrels per day. These wells are on the Gale tract, and pay 1/2 royalty to Mr. Gale, the owner of the territory.

Gen. Crooks was busy all last week laying tubing lines for the V. O. & C. Co. to enable them to furnish water to the new wells now going down on the new territory remote from the pipe lines of the West Va. Transportation Co.—Volcano West Va. Lubricator.

A correspondent at Oleopolis informs us that on Monday morning a passenger train on the Puttob Railroad met with an accident at Prather's mill while crossing a bridge at that point the entire train except the locomotive were thrown from the track and the cars were badly jammed up. Mr. Tyrrell, of Allegheny township had a leg broken and a few passengers on board were considerably jolted. One old lady in her haste to get off the cars jumped into the Creek, but was rescued by a brakeman.

Among the stories that are now afloat concerning his royal highness, it is said that while he was resting and dining at the Massasoit House, Springfield, Massachusetts the lobbies of the house were crowded with some of the fairest and most curious of the fair sex of Springfield, who were peering through doors and cracks in order, if possible, to catch a glimpse of "this noblest Russian of them all," and when the said Duke came to take his leave and thank the landlady, he added, as the culmination of his praise, but with a slight twinkle in his eye, "and I certainly never saw a hotel where there were so many very pretty chambermaids."

PLEASANTVILLE—Since the fire in this enterprising little borough her citizens have commenced re-establishing business with a vigor worthy the most indefatigable. At a sale of property there on last Saturday, the McKinney estate realized $8,000. The lot upon which the Union Hotel stood was sold for $4,200 to McLaughlin & Hancock Brothers, who will erect a good brick hotel on the site. A lot on State street was sold to S. Q. Brown for $1,100 and the two adjoining lots to Martin Deutch for $2,200. The purchasers will put good and substantial buildings on these lots.—Venango Spectator.
