The advance corps of graders for the new Warren & Venango Railroad, about 150 in number, have arrived in town, and are at present engaged in grading along the foot of the bluff, between the Boyd and Egber, farms. We are informed by Mr. A. H.
Bisbee, one of the principal stockholders in the new road, that it is bound to go through to Oil City, and that it is expected that trains will be running by July.

That old time and best brass band in the oil country—the Columbia Silver Cornet of Columbia Farm—continues to improve in playing and their friends may well boast that they are second to no band in the State of Pennsylvania in point of merit as musicians, or in gentlemanly deportment or soldierly bearing. This excellent band have recently made an acquisition to their numbers in the person of Mr. Henry J. Eldred, of Fulton, N. Y., accounted one of the best musicians in the country, who will hereafter play with the band. Prof. D. C.
Smith, the leader of the Columbia Cornet Band, is entitled to great credit for his endeavors to perfect the members in the art of music, in which he has succeeded as too extremely difficult music executed by them bears ample testimony to his skill. The citizens of Columbia Farm and Petroleum Centre may well be proud of their protegee—

FIRE.—The large engine house at the Walker wells, Central Petroleum Co.'s farm, caught fire about eight o'clock last night, and was totally destroyed. The loss is estimated at between $300 and $400. The machinery was considerably damaged.

Constable Walters and Deputy McHugh made a grand raid on the unlicensed liquor dealers and keepers of bawdy houses, this evening, and arrested Madame Blue, Chycane Jim, Mickey Mike, and several others, who are wanted at Franklin to answer various charges. Several of "the boys" had been "tipped the wink" beforehand, and "rammed the ranch" before any arrests had been made.

The Oil City Derrick attempts to be facious at our expense, in this morning's issue, by perpetrating that old New York joke of the "wickedest man." We have always noticed that the wicked were constantly endeavoring to shield their own evil deeds at the expense of good men, and even Bishops and ministers are sometimes given to this fault.

America sends to Great Britain annually $15,000,000 in gold for the single article of stool cotton.

Nesby says the first time he lectured was to Philadelphia and "to a magnificent audience of red plush."

Grace Greenwood acknowledges that she is a grand creature, even if he is a little thing about the franchise.

The following letter explains itself:
CHICAGO, Jan 3d, 1872.

DEAR SIR:—I would gratefully acknowledge receipt of your esteemed favor, enclosing $400, New Year's Gift, for the Young Men's Christian Association here, which will be applied according to your desire.— May He, for whose people it is donated, acknowledge and reward the donors, saying "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto Me."

Yours in the blessed hope of His glorious appearing and His Kingdom.

EDWIN R. DAVIS,

Sec'y Relief Committee Y. M. C. A.
J. W. THOMPSON:—Dear Brother—Most sincerely do we respond to your hearty greeting, and pray that this may be indeed a good year to you and to the people of your city.

It is understood that the money is to be devoted exclusively to the aid of the sufferers by the great calamity.

On Monday evening, Jan 15th, Prof. D.
Martin, the world renowned wizard and ventriloquist, assisted by the talented and gifted Mrs. Clara Martin, will appear in their mysterious and incomprehensible physologic seance of second sight, at Sobel's Opera House, remaining six nights only.— Prof. Martin is unequalled as a ventriloquist and will undoubtedly draw crowded houses during his stay here.

An election of officers of Liberty Lodge No. 7, Ancient Order of United Workmen, was held on the evening of Dec. 25th 1871, with the following result:

M. M. A. Glen.
G. F. John Gordon.
O. A. Kleckner.
G. H. A. Miller.
Recorder, S. H. Kooker.
F. J. B. Colton.
Receiver, A. L. Wyman.
Chaplain, F. J. Kaffer.
J. W., James Wilson.
O. W., R. Helen.

The officers were installed on Monday evening last by G. M. W. J. O. Rockwell, of Franklin. We are pleased to learn that the lodge is in an exceedingly flourishing condition, and constantly increasing its membership.

CASH-UP.—From an interview with a man who is in business at Cash-Up, we learn that the McLaughlin well, the original big well, has been torpedoed, and is doing six hundred barrels per day. The Emory well is doing about five hundred; the Fisher well, about nine barrels; one of the Brown wells is producing nine, and the other three barrels daily; the Crouse well nine barrels.
The Bronson well was to have been chambered yesterday. There are over one hundred rigs up, in that region, and new ones are being built as fast as men can be had to do the work. There are eight boarding houses, two groceries, two hardware stores, two drug stores, two clothing stores, and two livery stables, in Cash Up. In Raggsville, forty rods west of Cash Up proper, on the Pleasantville road, contains a tavern, a boarding house, a drug store, and livery stable. There are also several private houses in the place. Board commands seven to nine dollars per week, and all the boarding houses are crowded almost to suffocation. A great many of the drillers and workmen there board themselves, or in other words, "shanty." The excitement seems to increase steadily. All the oil produced there is found in the fourth sand, and it is the opinion of operators at Cash-Up, that the territory about Tionesta will yet become the scene of large production, for the reason that the wells about here have only gone through the third sand. If we are on this belt, as the best posted operators seem to believe, then we have not drilled deep enough, and we confidently expect to live to see oil produced in large quantities in this immediate section.—[Forest Republican.

THE SCHOOL FESTIVAL.—This beautiful little Quarterly Magazine, devoted to new and sparkling matter for School Exhibitions and public days, is received for January.—

your subscriptions now and you will not regret it.

The year 1872 contains fifty-two Sundays September and December each begins on a Sunday. January, April and July on Monday. October is the only month beginning on Tuesday. February begins and ends on Thursdays. Consequently we have five Thursdays, which will not occur again until the year 1900. In the year 1880 February will have five Sundays, which will not occur again until the year 1920. Last year began on Sunday and ended on Sunday. This will occur again in 1882, and every eleventh year hereafter.

THE GHOSTS.

The night was drear; the clouded moon Shed forth a misty light;
And all around was wrapt in gloom, Beneath that starless night.

Within a lone sequester'd glen, O'ershadow'd by a wood, Far from the cheerful homes of men, A pile of ruins stood.

The night-bird shriek'd, the wind blew cold And bodily did moan Round the dark vaulted ruins old, Where now I walked alone.

Quickly loud yells, with howlings mix'd, Broke on my startled ear;
My blood ran cold—my limbs transfix'd—I stood mute with fear.

Then rush'd I from those ruins old, Which noisy ghosts delight in;
But turn'd to look, when, lo! behold!
Twas two Tom-cats a fightin!

The Twelfth Night Revellers made an immense demonstration at New Orleans on Friday night, cars containing numerous representations of characters in the writings of Shakespeare, Dickens, Irving, Bret Harte and others being presented, the whole forming a stupendous spectacle.

The New Jersey Court of Pardons has refused to take any action in the case of Boite, the murderer of Pat Husted at Newark.
His execution is fixed for the 26th inst. It appears that the woman Wilson, on whose account Boite killed Halstead, was really the murderer's wife. The fact was concealed to save her from trial of bigamy.

DIALOGUE.—"Governor, I have killed a man, and a jury, in disregard to my advocate's appeals, have convicted me of murder.
But Governor, I beg pardon."

"Have you any respectable connections that are awfully distressed?"

"Indeed I have."

"Then I grant the pardon; but you must be sure not to kill that man any more."

Hon. Mrs Norton and Mrs. Henry Wood-two English authors, are tearing each other hair. Mrs. Norton charges Mrs. Wood with having stolen the plot of "East Lynn" from a story printed years ago by Mrs. Norton in a magazine. Mrs. Wood replies that she never saw any such story, and that Mrs.
Norton carefully avoids telling where it can be found.
