Mr. A. S. Prather, of Pluger, and Messrs.
J. T. Wilson and E. H. Southland, of Sharon, and H. S. Southland, of Jamestown, N.
Y., have purchased a tract of land at the latter named place, and propose to establish a large manufactory of all kinds of wooden ware, such as pails, tubs, &c. We recently called yesterday, from Mr. Prather, he having just returned from Jamestown whither he had been to make the necessary arrangements for opening the new branch of industry. Mr. P. was unqualified in his praise of the boundless hospitality of the good people of Jamestown, and says were it not for the fact that most of his business interests are centered hereabouts, he would be tempted to remove to that place for permanent residence. We certainly hope Mr.
Prather will not remove, as we can ill afford to lose so good a citizen from our midst. At the same time, from a personal acquaintance with Messrs. Prather and Wilson for several years past, we take pleasure in recommending to the people of that place as being active energetic business men, and gentlemen in the fullest sense of the word.
We wish them all the luck imaginable in their new enterprise.

Elegant Toilet Articles at the Post Office Newsroom.

We notice by the Franklin papers that the Hale family, of Cooperstown, have come to grief at last, having been arrested on a charge of grand larceny and horse stealing.
Washington A. Hale, one of the accused parties, was but recently pardoned out by Gov. Geary on the recommendation of Judge Trushey, he having been committed to the penitentiary on a charge of rape. These parties have figured quite extensively on the police records in this vicinity for several years back, and the village of Cooperstown and the region can afford to part with their company for a long term of years.

Our townsman, Mr. E. H. Kooker, was the recipient, day before yesterday, of the extremely sad news of the sudden death of his father, who resided at Royalton, about twelve miles from the city of Philadelphia.
The sympathies of a large circle of friends and acquaintances are with Mr. K. in this hour of his sad affliction.

Westholm Knives, and Razors at the Post office.

Mr. M. K. Hewins, of Titusville, better known as "Capt. Jinks of the Horse Marines," paid us a call yesterday. Jinks says that Ed Sutherland has joined the church and drinks nothing but buttermilk; that Bob Ridley runs a first class sample room; that Bradstreet & Dickson make, oh my, such palatable clam chowder; and that Pinner "runs" the Courier to the satisfaction of everybody but Charley Inham, who continues to sell the finest of gold and silver jewelry to be found in the entire region.— Jinks is about right.

Cassville, transported 400 yards, and buried in an upright.

A remarkable diagram has been prepared by Dr. Toner, the statistician, which gives at a glance the facts of each census in regard to the relative longevity of the two sexes; also another curious table, showing the number of children born to each thousand women between the ages of fifteen and fifty at each census. This table reveals the startling fact that what is held up as the peculiar shame of Massachusetts, is equally true of all her sister States. It is shown that only one-half as many children are now born to each thousand women as in 1800; and that there has been a regular decrease from one decade of years to another.

[Commiserated.]

You have lately acquired a first class and permanent addition to your population in the person of D. W. Neide, Manager W. U.
Telegraph Office. Its our loss, to be sure, but we cannot help congratulating you.— You will find him thorough, in his business and cultivated on all subjects; gentlemanly —in short, a man such as a community ought to try to keep with them by making his stay as pleasant as he could wish.

His position at the Centre is a promotion to him—hence his departure from us.
Oil City, Jan. 17, 1872.

The Odd Fellows' Home Association of Western Pennsylvania met at Sharon last week and decided upon Meadville as the place to build the Home. Nine trustees, as follows, were elected: A. B. Robbins, Cas-sawago Lodge, F. Merriek, Dempsey-town Lodge, J. K. Lewis, Oil City Lodge, J. E. Lytle, White Oak Lodge, J. W. Hansen, Crawford Lodge, A. C. Artell, Youngs-ville Lodge, H. Ness, Robertson Lodge, Thomas Blackburn, Jonathan Lodge, J. H.
Lenhart, Cassawago Lodge.

A farmer named Therburn recently took to a Detroit Museum a curiosity in the shape of a ball of striped snakes which he had unearthed in a bit of marsh. In going into winter quarters they had rolled themselves into a heap being tangled and knotted like a net, and were without life or motion; seven heads could be counted in the ball.

The women of Massachusetts are in earnest in reference to cruelty to animals. They are now holding a fair at Boston, to raise money for the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to animals. A committee of a thousand women has been formed, in which every village and hamlet in the State has its representative, and three thousand hearts and two thousand hands and ten thousand devices is certainly a fair worth visiting.

Daily Newspapers of all kinds at the Post

On last Sunday the M. E. Church of Rouseville donated $800 for the benefit of the M. E. Churches destroyed in Chicago.
The Chicago Tribune, of the 10th, acknowledges a donation of $605, sent by C. W.
Castle, Esq., to his father in Chicago, which was subscribed by the citizens of Rouseville.

FIRE IN PLUM.—On last Sunday morning at about one o'clock, the dwelling house of Mr. A. Williams, a farmer of Plum township, was destroyed by fire. Mrs. Williams was sick, and was carried safely to a neighbor's. The fire consumed everything in the house, except one bedstead, including besides the furniture, two or three hundred bushels of potatoes, a lot of buckwheat, and the winter's stores of dried and salt meats. Loss about $3,000, with no insurance.—Venango Spectator.

Annie Sutton, of the Macready troupe, which is now playing in this section, and Annie Wood, a witness in the Flak-Mansfield case, are one and the same person. It was Annie who introduced Mansfield to Flak, and her evidence that caused the indictment against Stokes for blackmailing.

Now is the time to subscribe for New York Dailies as Stokes's trial is commencing.
They can be had at the Post Office.

The Box and Cox arrangement is quite common in London. Certain classes attend ing the theatre every night—bal et dancers supers and the mob which is attached to a pantomime—let their beds to market people who are just ready to get up and go to work when the theatrical folks come home.

A Charlestown, Mass., photographer gives a striking instance of feminine artifice.
While arranging the instrument preparatory to taking a young lady's picture, he suddenly turned to give some directions to his fair customer when, to his astonishment, he beheld her busily engaged stuffing her cheeks with paper to fill out the meagre proportions which nature had so rudely neglected.

A CHERISH-GOING BELLE.

A dainty little bonnet,
The sweetest warabont,
A sea of lacy wavelets O'er forehead white-as-snow, A brace of sparkling sapphires, Two cheeks of rosy dye,
A pair of lips of ruby,
And a fascinating sigh.
Think'st thou she goes to worship?
Ah! it's difficult to tell,
But it's plain both saints and sinners Worship that Sabbath belle.

A tightly fitting bodice, Costume all brocaded,
Short petticoats with flounces,
In endless colors braided, Enamelled shoes with buckles, Such as the Frenchmen vend, With lofty, taper heel-taps,
To give a Grecian bend.
Think'st thou it's for God's glory She dresses out so well?
Or does she want some saint or singer
To love the Sabbath belle?

Diaries for 1872 at the Post Office.

Gen. Benneville, of the United States army, though on the retired list as super-annuated, was lately married to a young Miss Neils, at Fort Smith, Ark. The wedding took place on the fiftieth anniversary of the groom's first marriage. He had served over half a century, and was the subject of the pen of Washington Irving, who described the general's exploits in the western wilds over forty years ago.

The round house of the Lake Shore and Michigan Railroad at Toledo, Ohio, was burned Tuesday morning, with six locomotives. Loss $100,000.

Three-fourths of the water of London has been pronounced poisonous by Prof. Frank-cept by the banks.

FAN FLIRTATION.

Amelia waved her fan with glee,
And being in a playful mood, She gave the sly toy to me And bade me flirt it if I could.

The pleasing toll I quick began, But jealous pangs my bosom hurt,
"Madam, I cannot flirt a fan, But with your leave, I'll fan a flirt."

Speaking of that compositor who compiled 668 legitimate English words from the letters forming the words Prince Alexis, the Lexixille Courier-Journal says he ought to print them in a book, and call it Alexicon.

Paul Morphy, so widely known in ante-war days as the champion American chess-player, is announced as having made an arrangement with a prominent St. Louisian to play a game of chess blindfolded. It is said $10,000 will be the stake played for.

Here we are again. Her name is Magdelene Snyder. She eats heartily, walks dred and five years old. She lives with her law.

They have a new way of getting up surprise parties in parts of Illinois. A resident receives an anonymous letter, stating that a surprise party will be with him on a certain evening. He prepares for it. Nobody comes, and the surprise of the party is complete.

A Des Moines girl, enjoying a buggy ride with her lover, had her chignon removed by a horse which was driven up behind.— Just as the thing was done the driver of the horse whipped up and passed the lovers and whirled away, the chignon dangling from the horses mouth.

The Oil City Derrick doesn't like Mrs.
Macready's Shylock in the Merchant of Ven-

She is a woman, which in the Derricks opinion is the cause of her failure.—Jamestown Journal.
