Saturday night several of the boys were a "little off color," to use an Oil Creek phrase, or in other words "got their kegs filled with whiskey," the consequence being a grand row, at the Alpine House, lasting about half an hour. It appears that two or three men attacked one Murphy, a teamster residing on the Egbert farm, who is represented as being a quiet inoffensive man, and as the fight turned out, found that they had "barked up the wrong tree," as Murphy turned on them and "whaled the d'out of them," as one of them afterwards expressed himself. Thus ended the battle of the 20th of January.

Mr. John H. Allen, of Chicago, has opened an auction room in the store adjoining A. DeWitt's Clothing Store, and is selling gold and silver watches, jewelry, alibums, meerschaum pipes, etc., at remarkably low rates. Mr. A. desires us to inform the public that he warrants all the goods sold by him to be genuine.

We understand that a man named Hillery, a workman at one of the wells in Wild Cat Hollow, while engaged in drawing tubing this forenoon, accidentally got caught in the bull wheel rope, and received severe bruises. His injuries are not serious.

The fifth lecture of the Y. M. C. A. will be delivered by Hon. Wm. Parsons, of Dublin, Ireland, at Sobel's Opera House, on Tuesday evening, Jan. 30. Subject—"George Stevenson, the Father of Railways."

The attention of our readers is called to the advertisement of Gilbert Gordon, hardware dealer, which is to be found in another column. He has on hand a large stock of the American and other Cook Stoves, which he is selling at remarkably low figures. Give him a call and examine stock and prices.

Now is the time to subscribe for New York Daily as Stokes's trial is commencing. They can be had at the Post Office.

Our townsman, Mr. E. F. Sternberg, has been appointed Notary Public for this place by Governor Geary. The appointment is a good one.

The Titusville Courier pitches into one H. B. Swopes, U. S. District Attorney for this State, in exactly the right manner in our opinion. We are informed by a gentleman who was in attendance at Court in the city of Erie, last week, that this self-righteous individual denounced the people of this region in unmeasured terms; grossly vilifying them and making the false and wicked assertion that our people were made up principally of scoundrels and desperadoes. We know nothing of this fearful modern hymenaeus, or second edition of Jack the Giant Killer, and our fears as to the probability of its amount to more than two or three continental bank notes, but we do take pleasure in informing him that better men than he can ever hope to be are residents of the Pennsylvania oil region, and that his effort to butcher them at one fell swoop, is likely to prove a miserable failure. They won't "die for a copper," must imbecilely let B. S. U. C. D. A., x. 120.

GALENA LUBRICATING OIL.

But few if any oils in use for lubricating machinery, have attained so wide extended a reputation and attained so rapid and solid a success as the Galena Oils, manufactured at the Galena Oil Works, Franklin, Pa. In every test they have signally triumphed, and the bold challenge of the Company for an equal to it as a lubricator, meets with no more contestants. The Galena Oils are now in use on the Atlantic & Great Western Railway, Oil Creek & Allegheny River Railroad, Allegheny Valley Railroad, Jambstown & Franklin Railroad, and a score or more of roads in different sections of the country, and also largely used among the oil wells and machine shops throughout the entire region, which is satisfactory evidence of its worth as a lubricator.

We are pleased to learn that our friend, Mr. Harry Howe, has secured the agency for this vicinity for the sale of the Galena Oils, and already has a large and increasing demand for it. Mr. H. is the right man in the right place, and we congratulate the Company on securing his services, and would advise our oil operators and mechanics to pay him a call and try the merits of this excellent lubricator.

It is fast should be borne in mind that this oil costs less than one half the price of lard oil, and is warranted to do more and better work.

Another large strike at Cash-Up, near the McLoughlin well, owned by Dr. Shamburg and others, was reported on Saturday afternoon. As the well was not tided, no reliable estimate could be made of its capacity, but as it was reported to be spouting freely, the inference is that it is a large one. The report had a weakening effect on the market.

Mr. M. H. Norton, a citizen of Titusville, is in luck. On the Long farm, seven miles below Parker's Landing, he has struck a forty barrel well. This makes the third good strike he has made in the Parker's oil field during the last few months.—Courier.

Rev. Col. J. B. Clark, pastor of the Second U. P. Church, of Allegheny city, was burned on Monday afternoon. He was Colonel of the 123d Regiment of Pennsylvania volunteers, during the late war.

The Clarion Democrat tells the following: A singular circumstance occurred in this freebet. A boat belonging to Samuel Wilson, at Piney, Clarion River loaded with sawed lumber, for the Brady's Bend Iron Company, tied with nine lines, broke loose the ninth line at the stern of the boat carrying a tree with it. Starting at 3 o'clock a. m., without a pilot, it ran out safely, and by chance it was caught at Brady's Bend, just at the point for which it was intended.

A Norwegian, seventy years of age, at White Bear, Michigan, had the most extraordinary fight with a wolf on record, last week. The animal tackled him, and he fought, first with a club, then with a pitchfork, and finally he got a rope around the neck of the beast, and therewith drew him to a carpenter's vice, into which he screwed his head. Then he got a gun and killed him.

A new excuse for murder has been offered in the Stokes-Fisk case. The insanity dodge has been worn too thin for further use, so "self-defense" is the plea now relied on. Stokes feared that Fisk menaced his life, and that the Erie magistrate intended to shoot his successful rival in Josie's affections when they met. So Stokes jumped into a carriage, drove down to where he knew Fisk would be, posted himself in a place of vantage, and shot his victim without warning. That is "shooting in self-defense!" With that excuse accepted by a jury it would be safe for Smith to waylay and kill Brown because he feared that some year hence Brown might have a desire to kill him, and in matters of self defense delays be dangerous.

The popular superstition that over turning the salt is unlucky originated in a picture of the 1st supper by Leonardo da Vinci, in which Judas Iscariot is represented as over turning the salt.

An Indianapolis newspaper says that a banquet in that city was opened with prayer by the Rev. Emaley Hamilton, "whiskey gauger for the Sixteenth District."

A Lodge of the Ancient Order of United Workmen was instituted at Emlenton on last Friday night by G. M. W. J. O. Rockwell, assisted by the members of the Franklin Lodge.

IMPORTANT TO DRUGGISTS.—By a recent decision of the United States Supreme Court, hereafter, bay rum is to be taxed as a cosmetic. Heretofore this rum had been taxed as spirits and could be retailed by druggists in quantities less than a gallon without any revenue stamps being affixed. Attention to this may save some of our druggists another raid such as that inaugurated a few days ago.—[Pittsburgh Commercial.]

What a Miserable Reprodate Fisk Was.

From the Commercial Advertiser
What a miserable reprobate the preacher all make Fisk out to be! And they are right. Why the scoundrel actually stopped his coupe one cold, dreary night on Seventh Avenue, and got out, inquired where she lived, and gave a poor beggar woman a dollar! He seemed to have no shame about him, for the next day the debauched wretch sent her around a barrel of flour and a load of coal.

One day the black-hearted scoundrel sent $10 and a bag of flour around to a widow woman with three starving children, and, not content with this, the remorseless wretch told the Police-Captain to look after all the poor widows and orphans in his ward and send them to him when they deserved charity.

What a shameless performance it was to give that poor negro preacher $20 and send him on to Howard University! And how the black-hearted villain practiced his meanness on the poor penniless old woman who wanted to go to Boston, by paying her passage and actually escorting her to a free state room, while the old woman's tears of gratitude were streaming down her cheeks!

Oh, insatiate monster! thus to give money to penniless negro preachers and starving women and children.

A Baffled Reporter.

The Pueblo (Colorado) Chieftain gives a funny account of a Chicago newspaper man who stopped in the flourishing young city of Greeley, and, being satiated, tried in vain to get a square drink. "He went up one street and down another, he turned the corners of alleys, he sprang over ditches, he explored sheds and outhouses, but the fluid for which his soul yearned could nowhere be found. He went hap-hazard into one building which he thought might be a saloon, and encountered a prayer meeting. In another hall he encountered a farmer's club. Finally he received trustworthy information that there was not a drop of liquor in the place. He left and wrote in his journal that the town of Greeley was without inhabitants, without resources, and without commerce."

A NASHUA BOY'S PRAYER.—On one of the recent cold nights a lady acquaintance of ours put her two boys in a cold room-tucked them up and sat down on the edge of the bed to hear them say their prayers. Johnny, aged seven, got through all right and cuddled up to Willie, aged five, who had just commenced his prayer. Presently he began to hurry, the words came faster than he could distinctly utter them, and the prayer ended thus: "I pray the Lord my soul to keep—amen—take your hands off from me or I'll warm your ear for you." Johnny was tickling him.—Nashua Telegraph.

A singular evidence of Oregon's antiquity was recently taken out of the ground at Tillamook Heads. It appears that some men were grading a road bed, and when twenty-five feet below the surface, one of them exhumed a copper bowie-knife over twenty-two inches long, two and a half inches wide by three-eighths of an inch thick. The curiosity was sent to C. Rupp, Dayton, who has it in his museum of curiosities.

Rogers & Son's Knives and Scissors at the Post Office.

Lumbering seems to be a precarious business, and working in the woods dangerous to life. Serious accidents are frequently reported and sometimes fatal ones. Mr. Anther Lonek, son of J. P. Lonek of this place, was caught between a stick of timber and a tree one day last week, while working a few miles from town. We understand his injuries are so bad as to confine him in the house the rest of the winter.—Warren Ledger.

A man in Connecticut has signed the temperance pledge eighty-three times. As a signer he appears to be very intemperate.

A teacher in a Sioux City primary school made a practice of writing a word on the blackboard as a subject for each child to construct a sentence upon. One day she gave out "obimney," and this the way a little boy "worked it in":

"I do not wear a chimney, for I am not a girl, for if I was a girl I would have to wear a chimney."

"Slide is the second degree" (who says) "he call it is Koppel, when a woman teage here if and the rope breaks."
