Mr. H. Graves, a prominent lawyer of Lockport, N. Y., was in town yesterday afternoon, in search of evidence relating to the case of one Edward Bennett, now serving a term in the Western Penitentiary, and who Mr. Graves hopes to secure a pardon for from Gov. Geary. Bennett, it will be remembered, was arrested about three years ago, and convicted of robbing the office of the Brevoort Petroleum Company at Rouse-ville, in conjunction with one Riley, and sent down for eight years by Judge Tru-key. Mr. Graves left for Harrisburg this morning.

Remember the raffle at the McCray House this evening, for those five elegant oil paintings belonging to Mr. Geo. Wilson.
The raffle will take place at 8 o'clock sharp. All those holding chances are requested to be on hand.

Bessie came down McCray Hill with a rush, yesterday afternoon. A teamster was hauling a load up the hill in a sleigh, and when near the top the traces broke and the heavily laden sleigh went down hill back wards with a rush, upsetting at the bottom.
Fortunately the road was clear and no particular damage was done. The teamster jumped out and saved himself from the dangers of so fast a ride.

Coasting down Dempsey Hill is all the rage at present at Kane City. Men, women and children enjoy the sport.

On account of the burning out of the telegraph office at Oil City, we are without our usual oil market reports.

HORSEMEN LOOK OUT.—All persons must attend to entering their horses for the races to-morrow this afternoon and evening, so to be on time. The lot will be in splendid condition. We are glad to see men in town helping it along. Go in and don't let the Centre be beat to-morrow by outsiders. Rally Horsemen!

Parties knowing themselves indebted to L. M. Sternburg, are requested to call and settle by Feb. 15, and save costs.

The Allegheny Trust and Banking Company have closed their business for 30 days until the completion of Winsor Bro's brick block on Eyesore street. The business of the bank will be carried on through Reynolds, Hukil & Co's, where all checks of the Allegheny Trust and Banking Company will be paid.—Oil City Register.

The Rev. Mr. Oxtoby is conducting a revival, with good success, at North East.— He is a Presbyterian but has the good will of the good of all denominations, and the respect of the entire community there.—

LOCAL LEGISLATURE.—Bills passed and read in their place affecting Venango County:

An act to incorporate the Saving's bank, of Franklin; passed the House.

An act relative to the compensation for mercantile appraiser in Venango county; passed the House.

A supplement to the charter of Oil City; read in the House February 2nd, by our Representative.

A bill relative to streets; a bill relative to sewers; a bill relative to gas and water; read in place in the House, February 2, 1873.

A bill to incorporate the Venango Bridge Company of Oil City; read February 2, 1873.

A bill relative to the property of the Pas-salo Oil Company; read in the House.

A bill relative to the collection of taxes authorized to be collected for the poor house; read in the House.

A supplement to the act granting Daniel Keely a gratuity and an annuity; read in the House.

POLICE.—On Tuesday, Chas. Evans was arrested by officer McHugh for being drunk and disorderly on the street. When arrested Charles had lost his reckoning entirely; imagined that he was near Dan. Crocker's hotel at Kane City, and about to engage in a pitched battle with Billy Puffenbarger.— He beat the air lustily in his vain endeavors to get at the aforesaid William, and cursed at a fearful rate when put "in his little pile of straw" in the lock-up. Justice Reynolds, with his usual forethought and wisdom, assessed Chas. one dollar and costs towards paying the township debt. The Barber is of the opinion that the Justice "shaves too close."

The same day, City Father Thos. Malloy made complaint before Justice Reynolds, that John Galley did "wid melise afore thort best, kik, scratch, tear, ond abuse me on honest Amerikin citizen, an' be jabers, me rights were trampled on, an sure I want a warrant." Galley was arrested by officer Walters, and at the hearing plead not guilty and demanded a jury trial. Jury rendered verdict of not guilty but that defendant pay costs of suit.

Mickey Mike was arrested on a similar charge on complaint of Malloy. Case settled by defendant paying costs of suit.

Charles Turner and James Beatty were arrested by officer McHugh, on complaint of Duteh Henry, charged with "salt and batter" on the person of complainant. Defendants brought forward, plead not guilty and demanded a jury trial. Verdict not guilty, but defendants pay costs of suit.

Hugh Griffin, a resident of Oil City, arrived in town, day before yesterday. The thermometer was below zero, consequently Hugh was cold and took a "fid of whiskey" to warm himself. The first had not the desired effect and he took several more "fids" of the heater, and warmed up to that extent that about 11 o'clock at night he went to bed in the middle of the street. He was picked up by Justice Reynolds and placed in the lock-up, otherwise there would have been a sensation item—"Dead on the Street; Whiskey." Fined and discharged.

An English writer of a hundred years ago thus speaks of the status of the potato: "This root increases prodigiously, and is very proper for feeding and fattening cattle.
They are boiled in water, and require but little boiling, though they may have been kept two months in the store. Cattle eat them raw, but for the table they are wholesome boiled. I earnestly recommend the culture of this plant to husbandmen, as it is not only excellent food for cattle, but good or man in years of scarcity. After a little use the taste becomes at least as agreeable as turnips, and particularly if the potatoes are boiled with bacon and salt pork."

L. M. Sternburg, are requested to call and settle by Feb. 15, and save costs. 161w

A novel suit has just been brought in an Indiana court. A Mrs. Miller had sued for a divorce, but failed to get a decree, as it was shown on the trial that her husband was kind and affectionate and had provided liberally for her. The result left the parties more estranged than ever, and as the evidence produced in the divorce suit went to show that the man's mother-in-law was at the bottom of all the trouble, the aggrieved husband has sued the father and mother of his wife for enticing her away from him, laying his damages at the sum of $2,000.

How to burn kerosene without danger is a conundrum just solved. Take an ordinary lamp and fill it as nearly as possible with wick, placing little pieces of sponge wherever space appears, pour on the oil, and the lamp will burn as long as any kerosene remains in the wick. So arranged it is impossible for a lamp to explode.

Peoria, Ill., means business. Another grain elevator has just been opened there, with a capacity (when completed) of 150,000 bushels. This makes the fourth elevator in that city, the combined capacity of all being 300,000.

OIL NEWS.—Messrs. James & Crane have commenced drilling their new well on Blyson Run, and are preparing to start two or three more in the same locality.

The parties operating near Clarion are frozen up for the present.

A well on the Daniel Blitts farm between Petersburg and the Clarion river was struck last week and has since been producing from one hundred to one hundred and fifty barrels of oil a day. This is now about as large a well as any in the whole oil region.

The new well near the Hulings well, on the Ashbach farm is doing from forty to fifty barrels a day.

Preparations are being made to put down two new wells near Callensburg, one near Kingville and one a short distance east of Clarion (borough). This spring will witness lively times in this county.

There is a new well on the land of Joseph Faust, owned by Philip Faust, and others, just southwest of Petersburg, which has been producing something like 80 barrels a day for the past two weeks.—Clarion Democrat.

It is but a few years ago that the financial world was shaken to the center by the failure of Charles V. Culver, the young but enterprising banker of the oil regions and member of Congress for the Twentieth Pennsylvania district. His fall took down the house of Culver, Penn & Co., New York the Petroleum and Crawford banks, and somewhat injured the reputation of other banks throughout the country. Mr. Culver gave up to his creditors every dollar he possessed, but some insatiate people pursued him until they secured his imprisonment.
He was finally released, and assisted by a few friends commenced the development of the Reno oil property, the visionary scheme that was credited with his downfall.
With youth and energy he prosecuted his work, and success attended his every effort.
Gradually he has been making good his losses, as those who knew him best predicted he would, and now we learn that he has finally pulled through all his financial difficulties and is again on his feet. He has brought the Reno stock up to par, and is offering it to those creditors of Culver, Penn & Co., who wish liquidation of their claims.
Here is another evidence of what faith, energy and perseverance will accomplish.— Pittsburgh Mail.

When we last heard from Cash-up, which was on Saturday last, the McLaughlin well and the Emory well were pumping about two hundred barrels per day each. Several dry holes had been put down, and altogether operators were feeling a little shaky.— Several wells were down ready to test, and the results are looked for anxiously.—Forest Republican.

LOOMIS' MUSIC STORE, TITUSVILLE, PA.
—A day or two since we announced that Mr. R. H. Sargent, proprietor of the Opera House Music Store, Titusville, had sold out to Messrs. H. B. Loomis & Co., who will hereafter conduct the business. Mr. Loomis has thoroughly refitted and enlarged his store, adding between twenty and thirty feet to its former size; newly carpeted a portion of the main room and otherwise improved its appearance, making as handsome a store room as the oil region affords. The new firm have made large additions to their stock of musical merchandise, and our musical friends in this vicinity can procure anything from an elegant Knabe Piano or Prince Melodion to the latest piece of sheet music or a set of guitar and violin strings. The Colonel will always be on deck to welcome his friends from "down the creek" and attend to their wants. We would recommend those of our citizens desiring anything in the musical line to pay the new firm a call while in Titusville.

A Sacramento paper says: "A number of sheep on Patton's ranch, north of the Amer-loan, were not sheared last Fall, and hence their fleeces is very long. During the Fall it got very dirty, and probably grass and other seeds fell into it. At all events, since rain commenced to fall, grass, with blades say two inches long, is growing luxuriantly out of the wool, and the sheep travel about carrying their pastures upon their backs.— Any grass which the sheep cannot reach itself, a friend is allowed to nibble, and he or she reciprocates. We haven't seen the sheep ourselves.

A plous but uneducated judge closed a sentence with the following touching reproach: "Pleaser at the bar, nature has endowed you with a good education and respectable family connections, instead of which you go prowling around the country stealing ducks."
