WANTED.

Our Devil having joined the Pig's Ear Oil Company, and gone to boring for oil, we would like to hire a good smart boy to take his place; inquire right off.—Volcano, W.
Va., Lubricator.

Our devil has done worse—become disgusted with printing and gone to selling whiskey. A good smart boy who wants to learn the printer's trade, can secure a situation by applying at this office at once. Who speaks first?

Election is passing off very quietly today The vote will probably be light.

Work still continues on the Warren & Venango Railroad at this point. A good deal of blasting has to be done at the foot of McCray Hill. No definite word has as yet been received relative to the sale of the road to the Pennsylvania Central or the Oil Creek roads.

Dr. J. H. Christie, at the City Drug Store has a few more of those elegant statuary lamps, which he is selling at remarkably low rates. They make a splendid parlor ornament, and we would advise our lady friends to call and examine them. All the necessary fixtures are sold with them.

There was another season of rejoicing, at the house of Mayor Kenney, of Allema-goezelum City, day before yesterday, over the birth of an heir prospective to the Mayoralty of that flourishing oil town. A boy weighing "just nine pounds." Should the population of Allema goezelum continue to increase as fast for the next decade as it has for the last, Petroleum Centre, Titusville, Oil City, Franklin and other small towns, will have to look to their laurels. We need hardly add that the Mayor "feels as happy as a big sunflower."

The new town of Petroleum in the West Virginia oil regions, according to the Volcano Lubricator, par takes strongly of some of the Pennsylvania oil towns. It says:

Petroleum must be a pretty lively town now; they say whiskey punches are plenty, and that it is a common occurrence to have a man turned out of house and home on short notice, and also for large tanks to disappear miraculously.

A gentleman who has recently returned from the Missouri oil fields, says the prospects for oil there are very slim; like many other oil fields, distance leads enchantment to the view.

NEGRO JURORS—The first negro jurors ever drawn to serve at a Venango County Court are on the list for the 3d Monday in March, next. They are J. W. Henry and Reuben Smith. We publish the fact as a matter of history.

The Oil City Veteran Rifles give their first annual ball on the 22d inst.

A fifty barrel strike is reported at Mc-Clintockville.

The Chicago Times declares its belief that the State of Illinois is going incontinentally to the devil. Indeed, if one may judge from the two-column interview of his Satanic Majesty contained in its issue of the 10th inst., the chief city of that Commonwealth has already got there. The gloomy prediction of the Times is based on the fact that the increase of population in the State, during the past decade, was but fifty per cent. while the increase in the rate of crime was about one hundred per cent. According to certain eminent divines, who do not hesitate to affirm their acquaintance with the purpose of the Almighty, the burning of Chicago was designed to counteract this condition of immorality, and virtue may now be expected to get something of a start in that latitude.

Jonathan Locke who mysteriously disappeared from Titusville in July last, and supposed to have been foully dealt with, has turned up at Green Bay, Michigan. He had started on a collecting tour through the Parker oil region, and remaining away a long time was advertised in the papers, but was not found. He states that he remembers nothing until arriving in Wisconsin where he found himself with $63.50 in his pocket. He was evidently suffering from aberration of mind. His friends in Titusville have sent a gentleman to bring him back to that city where his family still reside.

A special dispatch from Rome says Gen.
Sherman, at his reception by the King of Italy, assured His Majesty that the Alabama question would be peacefully and finally settled by the Geneva tribunal of arbitration.

A man recently drawn as a juror at White River Bottom, Ind., came in from the county state that he hadn't been to the city before for thirty years, and did not know who had been President since Andrew Jackson.

Hon. David Wells, late Special Commissioner of the Revenue, estimates the cost of the war to this country at ten thousand million dollars, which is a large sum, and he who believes it not may count it.

A sharp Memphian desirous of seeing Alexis, took off his coat, put a Saratoga trunk on his shoulder and walked up stairs, evading the police, who were instructed to keep everybody out of the Peabody House.
He carried a two hundred pound trunk up two flights, didn't see the Grand Duke, and had his coat stolen.

Messrs. Bait of Tonawanda, N. Y., are sinking a well for gas, near the village.— They have obtained a depth of 160 feet with fair prospects of success. They expect to go to a depth of 300 to 500 feet.

A Five hundred thousand dollars worth of property was destroyed in Toronto, night before last.

Petroleum, having been discovered in Nova Scotia, cozing from the rocks in certain localities, a well was bored and an oil vein struck at a depth of 758 feet. Considerable excitement prevails and land owners in that vicinity are said to be building oil castles in the air.

The Eighteenth of the month will be the first Sunday in Lent. The 22nd will be Washington's Birth day. 24th St. Mathias day. 25th Second Sunday in Lent.

Several officers of the Missouri peniten-entiary have been indicted for flogging a negro, and several members of the Legislature for playing "keno" and other unlawful games.

In the case of Dr. S. S. Christy vs. Borough of Oil City, was disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas, at Franklin, yesterday, the jury returning a verdict for plaintiff in the sum of $268. Total amount claimed, $2,464.82.

The Light Horse Cavalry, of Franklin, will hold a Corn Festival, on the 22d.— Mush and milk, pep-corn, corn in the ear and corn in every shape except liquid, will be among the attractions.

George Francis Train lectures at Erie to day.

A Boston girl, who had more than once during the continuance of a long engagement abjured her lover, a pious burger of the Quaker City by her declamations in favor of free love, completely disgusted him when the time for marriage drew near by refusing to submit to the performance of the ceremony, and offering herself to his connubial embrace without the sanction of the religious rite or legal authority. In vain he remonstrated. She professed herself ready to undergo all the pains and pleasures of the marriage state, but to submit to the tying of the nuptial knot she would not.— And when he demanded her reasons for her extraordinary dislike to the clerical or magisterial invention she claimed that were she bound irrevocably to him he would take no pains to please her, but were she free to leave him her happiness would be his chief thought to provide for; and then, too, she wished to bestow her affections and embraces on another man, if at any time she should cease to love him. At this candid avowal of her versatile proclivities he professed to consider their engagement broken, but she would not allow, and has entered a complaint against him for breach of promise of marriage. The case promises interesting developments at its trial, as, of course, the defence will be as above, that "Bark is willing" but the lady not.

"B." writes us that Raydure and Co.'s new well on the Triumph tract started up yesterday, and was pumping at the rate of 40 barrels. This firm put down the first well on this side of the territory, last spring. It proved to be a good one and opened up the oil field on the west end of the Triumph tract, which has since been operated so extensively and proved to be such valuable territory. This makes the sixth well put down by them on this lease, and all have proved good. Their success is well deserved.

Crosley & Watson's well, near the Durkee & Cook lease, has been started and promises to be a good one.

Information has reached us that the Elmber farm, above the Economite territory, is to be operated the coming season. For some time past attention has been directed to this undeveloped field, and a few of the knowing ones say the prospects are as flattering in that section as elsewhere on the other side of the river.—Tidoute Commercial.

We are pleased to note that the Federal Creek oil regions, in Ohio, are looking up. Messrs. Clouston & West struck a well there last week which pumped 60 barrels of oil in 20 hours. We have not learned whether it continued or not. C. D. Culver & Co., have a well down which is now pumping about 6 barrels per day. This demonstrates the fact that there is oil there; Messrs. Cook, Thomas & Humphrey of this place have some good territory secured there.
The oil is a light gravity.—Volcano Lubricator.

At the Susquehanna depot, in Pennsylvania, on Sunday last, three employees of the Erie Railway nearly burned a little negro boy to death by throwing kerosene over his legs. He being asleep, they allowed the burning to continue until the boy's legs were roasted to the bone in several places.
The fiends have not been discovered.

Skating is good on Oil Creek at present.
A lot of old papers for sale at this office.

NOTES OF THE DAY.

President Smith of Dartmouth College, was in early life a printer, and thinks he is "a little better president for having been a printer."

The Ancient Governor is the title of a colored man who has been body servant to every executive of Kentucky since 1834.

A man found drunk gave as an excuse that he was celebrating the eighty-seventh birthday of his mother, who is an inmate of the poor-house.

Mrs. Sophia Lipps of St. Louis is negotiating for a divorce from Mr. Anton Lipps.
In the words of the poet, better far had those Lipps never met.

A eccentric old man of Hancock County, Ga., died recently, who bought his coffin many years ago and packed it with choice old brandy to be drunk at his funeral.

An absent-minded resident of Danbury shut down a window, Monday, and forgot to draw in his head. He was calling for Heben Blazes when discovered.—[Danbury News.

A naughty boy being told by his mother that God would not forgive him if he did something, answered: "Yes, he would, too—God likes to forgive little boys; that's what He's for."

Poverty-stricken rich men are becoming very common. Fort Wayne, Ind., has a street scavenger worth $50,000, who lives in apparently the most dilapidated circumstances.

"Now, my boy," said a committee man, "if I had a mince pie and should give two-twelfths to Isaac, two-twelfths to Harry and two-twelfths to John, and should take half the pie myself, what would there be left? break up loud—loud, so that the people can hear." "The plate!" shouted the boy.

A Michigan lawyer enjoyed the rare luxury of sailing the court a (strong adjective) fool for the moderate sum of $25.

Cincinnati is said to be the most densely populated city of the United States, having 36,000 people to the square mile, while New York has but 23,000.

A Greene County farmer recklessly publishes the following challenge: "I will bet $12 25 that my hired man can take longer to go to the harvest field, get back to dinner quicker, eat more, do less, and bear down harder on a panel of the fence, than any other hired man within fifteen miles of the flag staff in Jefferson.
