ANOTHER BIG WELL AT CASH-UP!

Phillips, Boyles & Leslie's well, on the Kreuzer Lease, Cash-Up, was torpedooed on Monday last, and is now yielding fully one hundred and seventy five barrels per day.— Heretofore yielded only ten barrels daily.

To-morrow is Washington's Birth-Day.

Porter Hill denies the soft impeachment that the beautiful Miss Jenule —, stood up with him at the wedding, yesterday.— Says he "done all the standing up himself," and is entitled to the credit. He thinks we ought to tell the public, and we have done so in justice to him.

Our townsman, Mr. S. A. Woods, has been seriously ill for some days past. We are pleased to learn he is recovering.

We are requested by Mr. Justice Reynolds, to warn all dealers in liquor in this town to desist from selling or giving liquor of any kind whatever, or in any way, shape or manner, to one Porter, Hill, or to any other person of known intemperate habits.
In case of such violation of their license, the parties will be prosecuted according to law.

POLICE — Constable Walters arrested Thos. Shay, yesterday afternoon, charged with keeping and maintaining a disorderly house. The accused was brought before Justice Reynolds, and after a hearing, held to bail in the sum of $300 to appear at Franklin for trial on the 4th Monday in April. Failing to procure the requisite collateral security, Thomas was taken down to Franklin, to board with Sheriff Marks for a few weeks.

A warrant was also issued for the arrest of Thomas "dox." but she proved too sharp and "shipped out," before the warrant was served.

Day before yesterday, the foreman of one of the gangs of hands at work on the Warren & Venango Railroad, was struck with a pick-axe by one of the men. The man claimed the blow was accidental. Foreman did not think so, and pitched into the individual and thrashed him soundly. All this happened on the Boyd Farm.

The irrepressible David Yanney, Esq., of Rochester, N. Y., arrived in town on a short visit, last evening. David says he can't get along without visiting Oil Creek once in a while, to "see Sammy and the rest of the boys, you know." His visits are as welcome to his friends as the flowers of May.

A French countess seized a philosopher at the supper table and exclaimed: "While they are eating up the fowls and we have got five minutes to spare, do tell me the history of the world, for I want to know it so much."

Mr. Meyers of Indiana undressed in ten seconds with the assistance of a revolving shaft.

Who is to Blame.

[From the Iowa State Register.]

A day or two ago I received a young man of Des Moines received by an unknown messenger a present—a stuffed pigeon. It was a beautiful specimen of taxidermy and pleased the recipient immensely. He supposed it was the gift of a charming young lady to whom he had been particularly attentive, and, overjoyed at the thought, he immediately sat down and indited a tender epistle to her, thanking her for the present, and making many touching allusions to the dove and what it symbolized. The pigeon was placed on a bracket in his place of business, and much admired. In a short time, however, it was noticed that the outspread wings of the bird began to drop; then a villainous odor became apparent, and the emblem of love was kicked out of doors—although some graceless wag had sent the youth a frozen pigeon instead of a stuffed one, and as soon as it thawed its antiquity became odorously apparent. Taxidermy is at a discount in that quarter.

There was a "high old time" at Bloomington, Illinois, the other day, growing out of Theodore Tilton's lecture on "Home Sweet Home," before the Illinois State University.
After the lecture Prof. Gay arose and said he could not die without entering his protest against the dangerous heresy of the lecture. But it seems the sympathy was not with Prof. Gay, and the students had a gay time hissing their Professor and calling out filth. The next morning the students held a meeting and requested Tilton to deliver another address, which he did, on "The Training of the Mind." After the second lecture the students passed resolutions approving of Tilton and condemning Gay.

The account of the affair does not say what the drift of Tilton's remarks were that offended Prof. Gay, but the inference is they were tinged with the Tilton loose-ness upon the matrimonial knot, and that the young men rather liked the idea.

A mother, a few days since, found a lost daughter in New York, under circumstances showing that the girl had fallen to the lowest depths in vice, though all the good was not crushed out, for she was deeply affected on meeting her mother. The police officer who was present at the meeting of the two, kindly expressed sorrow for the mother's tears, that fell in a shower, and attempted to console her. "Oh, sir," said the mother, "these are not tears of sorrow; they are tears of joy at again seeing my darling child. She is my own, with all her faults." Could anything be more touching than that forgiveness of the mother, who could weep for joy at finding her child, who, in every sense, seemed lost. There is a lesson for fathers who discard daughters and sons on slight provocation, that lesson teaches that a parent never should repel a child, degraded as that child may have been. Forgive, forgive, forgive, as you hope to be forgiven.

On the evening of February 27th, the Rev. Wm. B. Cullis, is to deliver the last lecture of the course before the Young Men's Christian Association of Petroleum Centre, at Sobel's Opera House. His subject will be—"Hands, Heads and Hearts; or, Young America and his Sister." The Rev. gentleman, it will be remembered, delivered his celebrated lecture on "Appearances before the Association some months since, which gave universal satisfaction to all who listened to it. This gentleman is accounted one of the finest speakers now in the American lecture field. The Albany Journal says of him: "Among our popular lecturers, Mr.
Cullis takes high rank. He has wonderful power in carrying his audience from the grave to the gay in rapid succession." As this is the last lecture of the course, we hope to see a crowded house. It will be well worth hearing.

Mr. S. Arnold, better known as "Teach" Arnold, for several years the proprietor of the Railroad House, at Pioneer, died at that place night before last, after a long and painful illness. Mr. Arnold was widely known throughout the oil region as a genial, whole souled man in every respect. His death will be sincerely mourned by a large circle of friends and acquaintances.
The remains were taken to Titusville, today, for interment.

Ell Perkins says that Albany was named after the Albany Evening Journal. "Mr.
Weed" he says, "started the Journal there a great many years before a house was built, and people came and settled near by, so as to be where they could read the newspapers."

A Cleveland groom kept the wedding-ring in his mouth during the first part of the ceremony, and when the time came he grew nervous and swallowed it. No stomach-pump being at hand, and the ring not being recovered by standing the unfortunate man on his head, the wedding had to be postponed.

Messrs. Noble & Paison have purchased from Mr. A. Micanil the remainder of his property, the N. E. 1/4 of 11, Con. 12, 49 acres, for $10,500, and have also purchased the Wright well, upon it. We understand that the members of this partnership, John D. Noble, Esq., of this place, and Messrs.
Paison Brothers of Toronto, have assigned their large oil well interest at Petrolia with the Ontario Carbon Oil Company's property both here and at Hamilton, and that the above purchase is on account of a new company just formed by these gentlemen, in which a large amount of English capital has been invested. We shall probably be in possession of fuller information about this matter shortly; in the meantime, we wish these enterprising gentlemen every success. Relative to the above, we are pleased to learn that the "Big Still," which is one of the institutions of Petrolia, was started again on Monday last. The new still is a perfect success, running off distilled oil at the rate of fifty barrels an hour.— The oil is declared to be a "standard white," of the very finest quality, even to the end of the run; and the percentage obtained exceeds the utmost expectations.—Petrolia, Ont. Advertiser.

There are several new derricks up on the line of the belt from Petersburg to Sandy, leaving Sandy some 2 miles to the West; several wells are in process of drilling, and the operators all seem very sanguine that they are on the spot, I think so too, but would rather not be obliged to give my opinion of the spot.—Emlenton Sun!

Twenty-five thousand cuts passed over of tickets for the Thomas concert at Augur-

At a Sabbath school concert in New Hampshire (or any other place, if more convenient), the pastor, who prided himself on the quickness and cleverness of his little ones, said: "Boys, when I heard your beautiful song to-night, I had to work hard to keep my feet still; now what do you think was trouble with them?" The answer came with great promptness: "Chittilaith!"

Eben O. Leach, who was sentenced to the Michigan State Prison for life for murdering his wife and a lawyer who was engaged by her to procure a divorce from him, died recently. The murder was committed at Coldwater in February, 1867. Leach was a man of fine abilities and high attainments as a scholar, and his wife was noted for her personal beauty and accomplishments.

Indianapolis papers report that the small-pox is "making quiet headway."

A Milwaukee judge preserves order in the court by exhibiting a seven-shooter.
Their sore eye is better, but his inflammatory temper is as bad as ever.—[Boston

An Englishman has invented a new method of lighting houses with coal oil, being simply to have an oil-tank at the top of the house, with pipes to convey the non-explosive to all the lamps about the building.
It is suggested that one effect of this plan will be to reduce the number of widows and orphans, as the whole family would go together in case of an explosion.
