OIL NEWS.—Phillips Bros. well, on the ten-acre lease of the Harsh & Schreiber tract, at Cash-Up, was 8 feet in the sand, yesterday, and had 600 feet of oil in the hole. Excellent sand rock, and bids fair to be a big well. Owned by Phillips Bros. of this place.

The last two or three wells completed on the Bully Hill territory, do not speak very well for the future of that territory.

The Sayers & Lehr well, on the Strouman farm, recently completed, is yielding less than three barrels per day.

Two new wells belonging to Prentice, Crawford & Barbour, are yielding little or no oil. One of these wells was torpedoed and about a cart load of excellent sand taken out by the sand-pump, but no oil came gushing forth.

Rather discouraging to operators in that vicinity, the bill of turning out so 'lully' as the name indicates.

Two new wells are going down on the Central Farm, one of which is now over 300 feet deep.

A new derrick is being put up on the up per end of the Columbia farm.

The deep well on the Hogg Farm, beyond Plumer, owned by Watson and Potts, and located under advice of the "spirits," has been started up again and is to be drilled deeper. It is now 1,300 feet. We are not advised at what depth the spirits indicated oil would be struck, but it is supposed to be somewhere in the vicinity of China or Japan. Mr. N. B. Parker, of this place, is doing the drilling.

We find by the attachment made by Harrison, Smith & Leveridge, Petroleum Inspectors at Baltimore, that the total amount of crude, refined and lubricating oils exported from Baltimore for the year 1871 was 69,856 bbls., against 35,260 bbls. for the year 1870. On this amount 23,921 bbls was lubricating. The port charges in New York on a vessel of 700 tons is $825.62 more than in Baltimore.

A company has been formed in Reno to operate on Ten Mile Bottom, between the Craberry coal mines and Gas City.

And it came to pass in the second month of the year 1872, about the middle of the month, there was great rejoicing in the house of Voucher, whose surname is Lou, at the birth of an heir to his estate; and the news went forth over all the land, even unto the uttermost parts, and a muchness of joy prevailed. And it came to pass that Adam, a knight of the razor, and John, an entertainer of strangers, heard the glad tidings and rejoiced with great joy, and said unto Lou, even these words—"Lo! it is well with thee, and with all thy people, and we feel glad over thy good fortune, and prefer ours 'plain and strait, even without sugar,' or it might be flavored with a little of Bass's old stock, and we will be merry with thee, even for all the coming days." And they rejoiced and were glad, even for the space of nineteen days, be the same more or less. And Lou, rejoiced at the outness of Adam and John, saying "It is well with the child and the child's mother, and thy servant."—Thus endeth the first chapter of the chronicles of the house of Lou.

There is now stopping at the Central House two young men, under charge of Capt Davy, who are indeed objects of pity, and worthy subjects of charity on the part of all benevolent christian people. Their names are Francis and Charles Presler, and their residence Kinzua, Warren county, Pa.—Charles has lost his feet, and Francis both hands and feet. Their misfortune happened in the State of Minnesota, by being caught out in a severe snow storm while the thermometer stood at 30 degrees below zero. The money raised is to be applied towards giving them an education in order that they provide for themselves and not be dependent entirely upon charity. We trust our people will respond liberally in aid of this worthy object.

Porter Hill called upon us yesterday, and desired us to retract in regard to the wedding in high life—the "standing up" part of it. We done so and now the "crowd, hard flinty hearted, unfeeling, stony, icy man," "wastes his sweetness on the desert air," 1 postage stamp, one envelope, one quarter of a half sheet of poor note paper, and a dip of a pen, by "re-spectably deklining." Most ungrateful Porter mixed with whiskey, why didst thou doest thuswise.—"Go and sin no more."

The rumor of the "combination movement" is already bearing fruit. We are informed that no less than sixty wells drilling at Parker's and vicinity, were stopped yesterday. Similar news comes from all the other main oil fields. A combination of producers would, we think, frustrate the railroad and refiners scheme.

Many wild rumors are afloat in relation to the purposes of the "Railroad and Refining Combination." We don't feel that the permanent interests of the oil country will be materially injured by any action of the Oil Region railroad companies. They can do so without serious injury to their own.—Their prosperity is wholly dependent upon that of the Oil Region and its people.—Hence we see no cause for apprehension in this rumored "Combination.—Oil City Register.

It is stated that we are to have a Revolution in wine glasses. London porter requires pewter, and hock a green glass, and now it has been discovered that sherry is not good unless drank out of wood, so that we shall shortly have our dinner tables laid out with tiny carved cups, instead of orthodox wine glasses with which we have long been familiar. At present the idea is only in its infancy, awaiting the artists who have under consideration the design of the new sherry cups. We may, however, mention that they will be larger than the present wine glass, more like the old port glass as which our grandfathers used.

A "poick" who, no doubt, has made a princely fortune by extensive advertising lets off the following:

If you are wise and wish to rise,
Then pitch right in and advertise;
If you are not, then right down set,
And let your business go to pot.

Fatal and distressing accidents from the handling of petroleum burning fluid are of daily occurrence in all parts of the country. Too much care cannot be exercised in using the highly explosive fluid.

No market report. Washington's Birth Day.

The Palmesville Advertiser has the following: "The other day, while the high school was in session, a young lady pupil discovered a commotion in that part of the costume which is usually composed of newspapers, and nearly fainted. The boys had a recess, during which it was found that a rat had established his headquarters in her bustle, and while exploring his new home had been the innocent cause of the hullabaloo."

Pennsylvania has forty two manufactories of blue ruin otherwise distilleries.

A MEDLEY.
Lives there a man with soul so dead,
Who never to himself hath said,
Shoot folly as it flies?
Oh! more than tears of blood can tell
And in that word farewell! farewell!
'Tis folly to be wise.

And what is friendship but a name
That boils on Etna's breast of flame?
Thus runs the world away;
Sweet is the ship that's under sail
To where you taper cheers the vale
With hospitable ray!

Drink to me only with thine eyes
Through cloudless climes and starry skies!
My native land, good-night!
Adieu, adieu, my native shore;
'Tis Greece, but living Greece no more—
Whatever is, is right!

Commercial oil of turpentine is a good antidote to poisoning by phosphorus. The two substances form a compound in the stomach resembling spermaces, and this can readily be removed from the system.—Laudanum or other anodyne is sometimes taken, by mistake or other wise in excess. Swallow strong coffee or the whites of several eggs instantly. All these are things to be done while the doctor is coming. Let every family remember that sweet oil, the whites of eggs, and strong coffee neutralize a larger number of poisons than perhaps all other things together. If laudanum or any other poison not burning the throat is taken and is promptly discovered, the best plan is to get it out of the stomach instantly, which is done by stirring a tablespoonful of ground mustard in a tumbler of water and drinking it down at once. Almost before it is down the whole contents of the stomach begin to be ejected.

CANADA OIL NEWS.—The Eastwick well, sunk for the Canadian Oil Works Corporation, was pumping about 15 barrels per day.

Mr. James S. Loughhead's well, on the Taylor property, turns out to be a good one.

On the Keer & Fairbank property, a rig is being put up for a new well for Captain Sage.

On the Tracy property, Messrs. J. & J. Keer have the contract for a new well for Mr. J. H. Fairbank. We believe this well will be followed by others, until the property is fully developed.

Messrs. Taylor & Lawyer are testing their new well, opposite the Thayer property, and we expect to be able to give results next week.

Mr. J. S. Loughhead's well on the Shoemaker property is down to 365 feet, and Mr. L. reports a "big show" at this depth. He is putting in the tubing.

In the Carbon Company's well, on the Richardson lot, it has been found impossible to exhaust the water, with present machinery, and a larger pump is to be put in.

On the Monroe lot, Messrs. Coryell & Smith are preparing for their No. 2 well.—The original well flows on uninterruptedly,—Indeed is improving, as Mr. Smith informs us that its production last week exceeds that of any previous week by 60 barrels.

Messrs. Kennedy & Jeffrey struck a flow of oil in their No. 2 well at a depth of 550 feet, but have decided to put the well down to the full depth. Messrs. Lacey & Verrilli are drilling, as are also Messrs. Brown & Co. Mr. Doty's well is almost ready to drill; and operations are generally being pushed as vigorously as the present unfavorable circumstances will allow.—Petrolia, Ont. Advertiser

A man from "over the marsh" at Wau-pus, Wis., who had just been divorced from his wife, was married there on the 27th ult., to the daughter of his divorced wife by a former husband.

FOREST COUNTRY ITEMS.—Oil has been struck by the Beaver Oil Company which is operating on the farm of Hiram Heath, in Hickory Township. The quantity brought up by the sand pump is said to be considerable.

We hear that the Telegraph Office on this side of the river is to be discontinued on the 1st of March, unless some steps are taken by our citizens to regularly meet part of the expenses. Everybody will regret this, as it has been a matter of great convenience to all our citizens and especially business men.

Harrison Morgan, of Bear Creek, this County, met with an accident on Wednesday last, by which he lost one of the fingers of his right hand. It was severed by a saw but just how the accident happened, we have failed to learn. Harrison bears the affliction like a hero, and proposes to "lay off," until his finger gets well.

Mrs. Jennie Williams was elected a School Director by the people of Hickory Township, on Monday the 5th inst. She is an intelligent lady, well qualified for the position to which she has been chosen. This is the first instance of a woman being elected to office, which ever occurred in Forest County. We suggest the name of "Little Wyoming," for Hickory township.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McCray, of President were to have celebrated their wedding last evening. Several of our town people were present, but as we go to press before our usual time we can give no description of the affair.
