The meeting at Titusville, last evening, was an immense affair, nearly 3,000 people being in attendance. The audience was composed of the best men in the oil regions large delegations being present from Franklin, Oil City, Parker, Tidioute, Shamburg, Rousevile, Columbia, and the other oil. towns. Petroleum Centre was represented. by a large delegation. The South Improve. ment Combination scheme to monopolise the oil business was discussed at great length, and various measures looking to the breaking up of this gigantic monopoly were anggested, among which were the completion of of the Pennsylvania Petroleum Railread to Erie; a new line to Buffalo by way of Jamestown, N. Y., the laying of pipe lines, Ac. The different messures were referred to a committee, and the meeting adjourned to meet at Oil City, at 10 o'clock a. m., The Presbyterian state Socie.y will meet We incline to the belief, after witnessing the unanimity of the meeting last night, that the great relirond and refiners combination will find that their endeavor to rain this region will prove futile. The oil men mean "business on the first floor," and if worst comes-to worst, we yet have our satural outlets-Oll Creek and the Allegheny -left, and can go back to the primitive mode of transporting oil by flat boats to the sea board at New Orleans, and all the combinations, Goulds, Vanderbills, Scotts, er any other man can binder. it.

Fish Story. The last fish story comes from New Jersey Lately in the interior of that State a mild looking countryman entered a railway car, bearing a bundle tied up in a bandkerchief. which he placed under the seat at one end of the car. After travelling along for acout half an hour, a lady sitting in front of the countryman was observed to move uneasily on her seat, and to cast savage glances at a seemingly respectable man sitting by ber side. In a few minutes another lady, still further to the front, "became uneasy," and at last, risolg in her seat, requested some gentleman to protect her from an elderly looking gentleman by her side; and who, she stated, had insulted her. A dozen persons offered their assistance, and before the accused could speak in his own defense his hat was jammed down over his eyes, and he was dragged to the rear of the car. While there, and carrying on with the avengers a war of words as to what the indignity meant, still another lady rose, and so seated further up the car, and accused a gentleman sitting behind her with improper conduct. A rush was made for insulter sumber two, but that gentleman vigorously defended himself with a large walking stick be happened to have (and which, by the way, was one cause of the last troubles, his accusor stating that he,bad indecorously been nipping her ankels under the seat with the same) and while the struggle to get at him was still in pregress, semebodyha the front of the car shoul' ed, "There's a snake on the floor!" • scone then ensued. The ladies in the car chambered up on the arms and backs of the same. One elderly maiden managed to stand on the backs of two sents in the best circus manner possible under the circumstances, while a young mother threw her baby into a parcel rack, and then hung con vulsively to a ventela cer. The confusion aweke the , countryman who, on being told of the snake, first felt in his bundle, and then exclaimed, 'I'm blamed if that old cel baint got loose, and started for the front, soon returning, grasped firmly an immenie ert, which had managed to get out of the bundle and, had wended his way to the front lowingly carressing the different variaties of ladies garters which he encountered on the way. Apolgies given and received straightened everything in that car but the bat that
