Acting upon the suggestion effered at the mines meeting in Oil City, yesterday, to shitt down the primping wells on Sundays beresfter, in order to reduce the production as much as possible, we understand the 68 pumping wells on the Columbia Farm will be shut down to-morrow. Nearly if not all the wells on the McCray farms will be shut down; also, the wolls of the Big Tank Oll Co. and these on the Brown Farm, Cherrytree Run, will be stepped. The probabili-ties are that nine-tenths of the pumping welle in this vicinity will be shut down on Sundays-bereafter. This will be a reduction of between 5,000 and 7,000 barrels per month in the Petroleum Cedtre district alone. Liet all the producers upite in this movement, and the rotten carcase of the South Improvement Company will soon be

The following are the several proposition, brought befoge the Mass Meeting of Oil Cit, yesterday, for the relief of the region sgainst the machinations of the rascals composing the South Improvement Company. They are sound and have the ring of the true metal. Who dares say the men of the oll regions can be controlled by a vilalnons monopoly after reading them:

The undersigned committee of producers, appointed at the meeting of Tuesday last, to ascertain what immediate action may be taken by the producers themselves or in con Junction with refiners of the oil region to resist and defeat the threatened mesopoly known as the "South Improvement Company," begleave respectfully ! to report: Owing to the great depression of the oli trade at the present time caused by the great monopoly known as the Southern Improvement Company and the over production of oil for the present wants of the trade, we would recommend as follows:

First. To start no wells for sixty days. Second. Stop as many as have already been started as possible.

Toird. Reduce our production as much as possible by sbutting down wells on Sunday, ceasing the use of torpedors and other means of increasing the production. Fourth, hold as much oil as possible from the market for sixty days. Fifth. Seil as much .oll as possible to parties storing the same in the oil regions or other points. Sixth. Use all efforts in our power in susaining the refining interest of the oil region and elsewhere who are not connected with he South Im provement Company. Seventh. To prevent as much oil as poul ble from being shipped on the railroads connected with the monopoly by shipping by he Allegheny River and by other means of transport. Eighth. That a committee of five of our shippers be appointed to confer with the officers of the Empire Line, New York Central, Atlantic & Great Western and Erie Railroad, for the purpose of making an arrangement for shipping all of our oil with one or two of said companies.

In the rapid process of Americanizing ther institu tions, the English have at last introduced the American oyster in the shell into England, and, as their experience is in all other similar experiments, they like it. An advertisement in the Pall Mall Gazette informe the British public that a Liverpeot firm will receive orders for any quantity, delivered anywhere from tri-week. ly arrivals. These oysters are taken from their native beds only the day before shipment; they are packed "as advised by an eminent naturalist," and delivery may be made from relays in English ;waters if preferred. The Liverpudlians describe these American oysters as "freeb, fat and inscious; better raw and very much better cooked than English oysters; twice the meat of na tives, and less than balf price."

An Englishman, who formerly tended bar for Uncle Ben Bevee, at the Alpine House, was beaten in a shocking manner, about 12 o'cleck last night, by one Mickey Mike, as be stated. The difficulty arose about a wo. man. We hope our efficient officers of the low, Justice Reynolds and constable Walters, will take it upon themselves to rid the town of such men as this Mickey Mike .-Almost every night we bear of some depredations committed by this man, either on a drunken man or defenceless woman. bim. McKinky was readered insensible by the blow, and while he was in this conditon Tracy took out a knite and performed a berrible and unmentionable outrage upon bim. From what we can learn of the affait it seems that Tracy and young McKinley were sivals for the favor of the same woman and that they had a serious quarrel once before. Up to our latest advises Tracy had not been arrested, although a large force of men was in putsuit of him. Young McKinley is in a precarious condition, but it is thought be will resover from the berrible revenge of Tracy. Tracy used to be employed as a workman at the County Poor House .- [Venango Spectator.

Elsewhere we publish the propositions brought before the mass meeting, yesterday, and sound uppn. As we predicted the menopoly begins to "weaken in the joints" and in many cases to deny all complicity with the movement, pretending even to know nothing of its existence. It won't wash and no faith should be put in their statements. Let the enemy not break our ranks and we shall crush out forever all rings and monopolies as far as the oil region is con-Curned.
