Mass Meeting at Franklin.

The General Committee will meet at Franklin on Tuesday next, at 9:30 a. m.

The mass meeting will be convened at 10 a. m., and a large audience is desired to consider the various propositions to be then submitted.

The Legislative Committee have prepared and distributed a petition to the Legislature as directed by the mass meeting at Oil City.

The attention of all oil and business men is called to the necessity of obtaining signatures thereto, and the residents of any district not supplied with blanks are requested to apply to the chairman, E. G. Patterson, Titusville.

F. W. MITCHELL,
Chairman General Committee.

It is earnestly hoped that every oil producer and business man interested in the present and future prosperity of this region will attend the mass meeting at Franklin, to-morrow. See call elsewhere.

The wells at Petroleum Centre and vicinity were with few exceptions shut down yesterday. The exceptions were Jonathan Watson's, Charles Pomroy Butten's, Columbia Oil Co's, Central Petroleum Co's, and those of the Maple Shade Oil Co. The owners of some of these and agents of others were not here to order their wells shut down. It is more than probable all will be shut down next Sabbath.

The Superintendent of the Columbia Farm telegraphed to the headquarters of the Company at Pittsburg, on Saturday, for orders relative to the subject, but at a late hour had received no reply.

Every well on the James S. and William J. McCray farms were shut down yesterday.

Highway Robbery and Prob- able Murder Near Plumer.

Mr. George S. Duncan, Esq., of Plumer, writes us the particulars of a horrible outrage and probable murder committed by a highwayman, this forenoon, between that place and Pitohole, as follows:

PLUMER, Pa., March 4th, '72.

ED. RECORD:—While on my way from Pitohole, this morning, in company with Mr.
Foley, of this place, we discovered a man lying on the road side, who was terribly cut about the head and face and insensible, and from enquiring of a Mr. Smith who had come to his assistance just previous to our arrival, learned his name to be Mr. Daniel DeLo, formerly a resident of Plumer. We immediately had him removed to Mr.
Smith's house and his wounds dressed. At first we supposed he had received his injuries by being thrown from his horse. Since, however, he has recovered his senses and informs those in attendance that he was knocked from his horse by a large heavy set man, and after a brief struggle was terribly beaten, rendered insensible and robbed. He says the man first caught the horse by the bits, and ordered him (DeLo) to give up his money. He replied—"I have none." The villain then demanded his watch, to which Mr. D. replied—"I don't carry any." The man then dragged him from his horse and beat him as above stated. Mr. D. had but one dollar and fifteen cents, a knife and pipe on his person, all of which the villain took and fled. It is feared DeLo cannot recover the injuries about his head being of an exceedingly dangerous character. The robbery occurred about two miles from Plumer on the main road to Pitohole. There is no clue to the perpetrator of this dastardly outrage and probable murder of an innocent man.

G. S. D.

If caught, the scoundrel should be strung up to the limb of the first tree that came handy. It is near the same place where Mr. Botsford, of Jamestown, N. Y., was knocked down with a stone and afterwards robbed, about five years ago, that the same scene was enacted to-day.

We are informed that the first oil owned by the Southern Improvement monopoly has been run, not over the Pennsylvania Central Railroad or its tributaries, but into the Allegheny River. A dispatch from Franklin states that a 3,000-barrel tank, owned by P. H. Watson, President of the South Improvement Company, was tapped last night, and 500 barrels of oil run into the river and wasted. We do not approve of this proceeding, but these monopolists have received fair warning of result of their attempt to ruin the people of this region. Let them beware, for it has often happened that men thrown out employment from such causes have become desperate and ready for any deed to avenge fancied wrongs.

NEW WELL—The new well on the D.
Shoup farm, North East of Petersburg, was tubed on Thursday last and doing 120 barrels daily. Owned principally by Hess & Tarbell and Vera & Blake of this place—This is the best well in that vicinity at present.

About 1 1/2 o'clock this morning, the engine and boiler house of the old Colfax well belonging to the Hilledale Company was discovered to be on fire. The alarm was promptly given, and through the exertion of the citizens present, the fire was confined to the place it originated. The loss will not exceed $300, but promised at one time to be the most disastrous fire which ever occurred here. It was caused by the bursting of a derrick lamp, and we only wonder that these accidents are not more frequent.— We have an idea that some kind of a lamp could be invented for oil well uses that would serve the purpose better and be less dangerous.—Volcano Lubricator.

The three stages of Darwinism are now said to be positive, tall; comparative, tailor; superlative, tailless.

The reporter of the Pittsburg Gazette indulges in the following peroration, in closing his report of the McKeesport breach of promise suit: "Hattie—Josiah—farewell.
And so while Hattie sings a psalm of praise for the verdict in her favor, and Josiah exults that he has escaped so easily, and the legal gentlemen smile placidly as they gather in the "fees," and the friends of each join in the chorus of the great peace jubilee, and around all settles a halo of bliss, let the curtain be drawn over the last grand tableaux—the scene of ecstatic joy, as we bid Hattie V. and Josiah P. and all the co-conspirators of their breach of promise, a long farewell."

church at Columbia Farm, to-night. Subject—Gleanings from the Wayside of Life.

The hotel where the Granjuke* slumbered in Detroit can take $500 any time for the bedstead on which his limbs reposed, while the sheets were cut up into handkerchiefs them.

The weather and moonshine of the past few nights have been conducive to that chief pleasure of our city domestic, known as "gate sparking." Many a property owner will soon bewail the broken and sagged down appearance of his gate, and wonder why the old thing don't work easier. Of course he will lay the dejected appearance of his door yard to the fence posts being thrown out of perpendicular by the cold weather, but we have noticed in our brief experience, that where there were no girls in the house, or if any, they had passed through the small-pox and sunny side of life, the frost did not leave the posts half so bad as where the other extreme existed.— Putting salt around gate posts don't amount to anything; either tar the entire gate or allow your girls a fire in the back parlor.— Cleveland Leader.

The Cleveland Plaindealer says the reason Mrs. Scott Siddons is unable to fulfill her lyceum engagements in this country the present season is, that her husband died in jail, for debt, in Cork.

Again the most astonishing rumors are in circulation about Mrs. Laura Fair, to the effect that she has several times attempted to poison herself, and that she is gradually dying from prison confinement.

A country editor who was threatened with the cry of "Stop my paper," because his course did not please some of his subscribers, thus replied:

We do not belong to our patrons, Our paper is wholly our own; Whoever may like it may take it,
Who don't can just let it alone.

TRANSFORMING THE COMPLEXION—The transformations produced by Hagan's Magnolia Balm are quite as astonishing as any scene on the stage of a theatre. The famous beautifier, transmutates a sallow, peevy looking complexion, into one in which the jelly and the rose vie for admiration, and imparts to a dry, harsh skin, the softness of perfect loveliness. Tan and freckles, which country air and sunlight are pretty sure to produce, in spite of parasols and sun-downs, are completely obliterated by it; while it has a perfectly magical effect in banishing undue redness, blotches and pimples from the skin; When the lady who has used it to remedy her complexion defects looks in the mirror, she is equally astonished and gratified at the improvements in her appearance. Every blemish has disappeared; her neck, arms and bosom, now rival in whiteness the snowy collar which encircles her throat, her cheek mantles with a peach like bloom, and she is ready to invoke a blessing on the inventor of the article which has wrought such a delightful transformation.

About the time of going to press last week, we were confidentially made acquainted with the railroad projects connected with the Dunkirk & Warren, Oil Creek and Allegheny River Roads. Terms has been agreed upon by the three roads that they would work in harmony. A meeting was called to meet at Warren on Wednesday last, to fully ratify the terms agreed upon. The Allegheny River folks failed to put in appearance, and so nothing was done. Railroad men are so difficult to keep track of as the politicians are. We suppose the original design, i. e., to build the road from Warren to Oil City via Titusville will be adhered to by Col. Smith; that may be the case and it may not be. We hope everybody understands how it is now.
