The Free Pipe Bill.

A Free Pipe Bill has passed the Legislature, but from an examination of the measure we believe it to be a fraud. It is endorsed with the following proviso, which the Pittsburgh Mail says was tacked to it by Mr. McJunkin, member of Assembly from this county:

"Provided, That no line of pipe shall be laid under authority of this act within five miles of the State line for the purpose of carrying oil out of the State, and that the owners, producers and shippers of all oil intended for Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, using pipe laid under this act, shall give preference to lines of road traveling the greatest distance in this State at the same rates of transportation."

It looks to us as though this so-called free pipe bill had been passed more in the interest of the Pennsylvania Railroad than of the oil producers, as every one knows that line is the longest one in the State, and consequently the name might as well have been inserted. Mr. McJ. may be all right on the subject, but there is something rotten about the bill, "which the same" smells exceedingly strong. What we want is a Free Pipe Bill about as stated below:

To the Honorable the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly met:
The undersigned, citizens of Pennsylvania, would respectfully demand that the restrictions and conditions attached to the Free Pipe Bill be repealed.

Nothing short of this action will be satisfactory. We want a Free Pipe Bill in fact as well as in name.

Give us a free pipe bill but do not insult us by tacking off a patched up bill which shows complicity with the enemy on the face of it. Can Mr. McJunkin explain the ways and wherefores thereof? A good many people hereabouts would like to know.

The producers of the Ninth District met at Rynd Farm, to-day, for the purpose of electing delegates to the Petroleum Producer's Union. They are heart and soul in the good work.

The Pittsboro Valley Railroad, running between Oilcamps and Pittsboro, has been putting on new passenger coaches and baggage cars.

The Pittsburgh Commercial, of yesterday, comes out with a sensation heading: "The Free Pipe Bill a Law; Settlement of the Difficulty in the Oil Region," &c. Wonder if the Commercial editor is green enough for a moment to think that the people of the oil regions are incapable of seeing through his labored efforts to plaster up the South Improvement Co., and make his readers believe that all is quiet in the oil region, and the producers have given themselves up, body and soul, to the monopoly. Such is not the case. The difficulty is not settled, nor will it be, until the vast scheme of plunder is crushed out, and its instigators, agents, subsidized newspapers, rotten railroad corporations, and ring of outlaws are made to know they cannot control the free men of the oil region of Pennsylvania. The Commercial is a good newspaper, and has always been popular in this region but its recent course is fast making enemies for it hereabouts, which fact it will discover ere long. Until recently we had always given the Pittsburgh papers the credit of being untrammelled and outspoken on every subject; but their action on the monopoly question shows plainly that they are in the interest of the So. Im. Co. Let them continue on in the same way. We shall see who will be the winners in the game—whether right shall triumph, or a great wrong bring the people of this region level with the dust. Let our people judge as to whether the press of Pittsburgh have acted "on the square" in this important matter.

The Cherrytree township election takes place to-day.

"Leaves have their time to fall, And flowers to wither at the north-wind's breath.

And stars to set—but all,
Thou hast all seasons for thine own, oh!
Death."

Another family circle has been made desolate, and another infant spirit has taken its flight to the "land beyond the silver moonbeams and the stars of night"; beyond the chilling winds and storms of earth; its tiny feet have "climbed the golden stair and passed to the shining strand over the river." Died, on Thursday, March 14th, Ellen, infant daughter of Frank and Ellen O'Neil, aged 3 years.

The South Improvement Company has not interfered with the clothing trade of S. Se-bel, who continues to sell men and boys, clothing as cheap as ever. He has just returned from New York with a large and complete stock of spring and summer clothing, such as elegant silk hats of the latest London and Paris styles, spring overcoats, gents' furnishing goods, and a full line of clothing suitable for all. Our old friend Morris is always on hand to show customers the goods. Give them a call.

The new Miller Bumper and platform are being introduced on the Oil Creek railroad.
The improvement raises the platform on a level with the car floor, and leaves no space between the cars.

The "Widow's Home" a charitable institution of the I. O. of O. F. is to be located in Meadville, on ground donated by Wm Reynolds, Esq., adjoining his residence.— He agrees to donate three acres, and sell the Association as much more as it may want.

The Phillips, Boyles & Leslie well, on the Krautzer Lease, CashUp, which started up some days ago at the rate of 160 barrels per day, but filled up with sand and ceased producing, has been cleaned out and started up again, and is now yielding 70 barrels per day and increasing.

Staver, who killed young Gibson, in the affray at Rynd Farm, a few days since, has been committed to jail at Franklin to await trial for murder. He is evidently a hardened wretch. Before going down, he went into John Wallace's store, purchased a half dozen cigars, coolly proceeded to light one, at the same time boasting of his crime. It is to be hoped justice will be meted out to him, as he is a dangerous character to be at large.

Wadsworth speaks of "A creature not too bright or good For human nature's daily food," and had he lived in Petroleum Centre he would probably have said something about those nice ham sandwiches to be procured at Wait & Fugh's Verandah Saloon. He might have said a good word about that fresh lager and ale, and those nice cigars, but we leave our readers to find it out for themselves, guaranteeing that "the boys" will treat them well.

The Titusville Courier says that a new well was struck at Colorado on Friday last, and commenced pumping at the rate of fifty barrels daily, and on Saturday it had increased to eighty barrels. It is known as Tecumseh No. 2.

Come, come, Spring, if this is your idea of "eternal mildness," you are a fraud, and deserve to be kicked out of the calendar.

The working classes in the oil regions are highly indignant at the Southern Improvement Company. The laboring men have been furnished constant and profitable employment by the oil producers for years.— Having heard that a set of capitalists, idlers and political tricksters have attempted to rob them and the producers of their profits, their indignation has been fully aroused and a determination manifested to defend their own rights and those of their employers at all hazards. It is not strange such a feeling should exist. Laborers and producers came into this region, labored day and night, expended their money to the last dollar and made operating for oil a profitable business.
To see vile speculators who have never invested a dollar or spent a day's labor in the business forming combinations to rob them of the profits of their hard earned fields of labor is enough to arouse their indignation and cause them to threaten eternal vengeance upon the heads of those who have attempted to oppress them. Railroad companies and other incorporated monopolies, who combine together to rob the people of their wealth will find when it is too late, perhaps, that they cannot make cat's paws of oil producers, the laborers under their employ and others interested in the business.—[Oilman's Journal.

FOREIGN PETROLEUM TRADE.—The stock of oil in Bremen, Antwerp, Hamburg, Rotterdam and Amsterdam, on the 10 ult., was 380,718 barrels, and 10,720 cases, against 300,260 barrels and 27,558 cases, in 1871.— In bonded stores and expected, 36,985 barrels and 1,620 cases, against 23,932 barrels and 1,058 cases, 1871. The decline in ocean freights was about balanced by fears of difficulties arising between the United States and Great Britain over the Geneva Convention.

ON EVERYBODY'S TONGUE.—Eulogiums of the great National Regenerator of Health, "Plantation Bitters" are on everybody's tongue. This gratuitous via voce advertising better than all the paid-for puffing to which the owners of bogus bitters are obliged to resort. It has a spontaneous heartiness about it which carries conviction to the mind of the auditor. But it is a well-known fact that the proprietors of the "Plantation Bitters" have never relied upon a newspaper holstering to establish the success of a preparation which owes its astonishing popularity mainly to the oral testimony of the thousands who have either experienced or been the eye-witness of the immense physical good it has wrought throughout the length and breadth of the land.

A man in Denver married, but had to leave immediately and unexpectedly for Salt Lake City on urgent business. He left his bride with tears in his eyes and a promise on his lips. He got there just in time not to be able to get away. He made his way slowly along with the blockaded trains working with hands, for every shovel full of snow got out was that much obstruction removed between him and his beloved.— When within two hundred miles from Cheyenne, the foremost train got into a bigger snow bank than ever, at which faithful unto death struck out afoot and walked the two hundred miles in five days. He came in with frozen feet and ears, but his heart was all right, and he went on to Denver rejoicing. At one point he was chased by wolves and lost his plug hat in running.— The hat saved his life, for the wolves had never seen one before and stopped to examine it a long time. It took them so long to determine what it was, that the heroic lover got out of reach. He borrowed a red handkerchief at a laborer's hut and passed on.—[Cin. Com. Letter.

An American quack at Marseilles is making a fortune by pretending to cure every imaginable disease with the simple application of mesmerized water. Hundreds of people of all classes are daily to be seen waiting anxiously at his door, each with a pitcher or decanter of water, which, when it has passed under his magic influence, is rejoiced as verifiable aqua vita.

An Indianapolis man is disgusted with the fair sex. The Journal says: "He stopped a horse and buggy which some lady had just unfastened, cutting and bruising him considerably. The lady driver soon came up, and instead of thanking him, she commenced scolding about the dirty buggy and the muddy lines, and wound up, by telling him to get some paper and wipe off the mud."

Many people think just now that Maser Casablanca, the boy who had a burning deck all to himself, was not so badly off after all.

A well known author says that to be always intending to live a new life, but never finding time to set about it, is as if a man should put off eating and drinking and sleeping from one day to another until he is starved and destroyed.

St. Louis lawyers are soon to appear in black gowns. They think such a costume will elevate their dignity and inspire their irreverent clients with awe.
