The Oll City Derrick says: "Rockefeller, Andrews, and other leaders in the So. Imp. monopoly, residing at Cleveland, are deacons in the church and teachers in the Sunday School." "Which we rise to remark" there must be a pealthy state of morals in that city to allow such individuals to teach the inlast mind the road to heaven. The good book denonness hypocrites in very severe terms, and a new coal mine having recently been discovered in Kansas, it is very probable the conspirators will discover that the road to beaven by the So. Imp. line will have more of sulphurous aspect than they think. Instead of white robes and "sich," they will probably have bate' wings and robes manufactured of broken sand pumps, pieces of iron tanks, &c. A special corner should be prepared for these saints, where they can always manipulate imaginary off interests and huge flowing wells .-The dear people of the oil regions prefer the old road to heaven, Bros. Rockefeller, Andrews, Bostwick and Payne, rather than your preposed new route. "Good Lord de-liver us" from the So. Imp. saints.

Tarr Farm is not one whit behind its sis ter oil towns in the matter of organizing for defence against the South Improvement monopoly. Not only have all the operators on that and the Blood Farm signed the pledge not to sell the monopoly a solitary harrel of oil, but a lodge of the Oil Man's League has been instituted and a meeting it is prudent not to disclose at the present and the young lady left disconsolate. tor the election of officers will be held this time. evening. It is expected every man on the farm will join the league. All bonor to the loyal citizens of Tarr Farm. Down with nefarious monopolies and swindling rings is

E. A special term of Court, which convened on Monday, adjourned to the 29th on account of the sickness of Judge Tranker.

A Lodge of the Oil Man's League has been organized at Tidioute. Petroleum Centre should not be behind in this matter. Let our citizens organize at once. We must have our rights. If the State Legislature will not attend to the matter, we must, irrespective of party, resort to the ballot box for relief, and sweep these scoundrels from our sight; bury them with a pile of ballots backed up by popular indignation, so deep that they will be lost sight of forever.

Take Your Home Paper.

The following is taken from the editorial colums of the Lady's Book for the present month: "What tells us so readily the standard of a town or city as the appearance of its paper? And its youth or its age can as well be determined by the observing as by a personal notice. The enterprise of its citizens is depicted by its advertisements. their liberality by the looks of the paper .-Some papers show a good, solid, healthy foundation, plethoric purses, and a well-to do appearance 'generally; others show a striving to contend with the grasping thousands around them, trying hard to wrench out an existance from the close fisted community around them. An occasional meteoris display in its columns of telegraph, or local, or of editorials, show what it can do if it had the means, but it cannot contique in the expensive work until support comes, which ought to be readily granted. A newspaper is like a church; it wants fostering in the commmencement, and for few years, then, as afgeneral thing, it can walk alone, and reflect credit upon its location. Take your home paper; it gives you more news of immediate interest than New York or other papers; it talks for you when other localities besie you; stand up for your rights; you always have a champion in your home paper, and those who stand up for you should certainly be well sustained .-Your interests are kindred and equal, and you must rise or fall together. Therefore, it is your interest to support your home paper; not grudgingly, but in a libera spirit; as a 'pleasure, not as a' disagreeable duty, but as an investment that will amply pay the expenditure."

Enoch Arden returned to Wilmington, N. C , recently, after an absence of years, and found that Mrs. Arden had executed the regular programme of becoming Mrs. Philip Ray, and that there was moreover quite an array of little Rays. But as Enoch had not fooled away his time on any desert island, but with a strict eye to business, and accumulated about $60,000, the little ceremony of his funeral was dispensed with, Philip Ray was persuaded to emigrate and Mr. and Mrs. Arden are now "at home" to visitors.

Messrs. Fisher, Norris & Co., of this place, are now engaged in manufacturing a complete sett of oil well drilling and fishing tools for Mr. John H. Gaily, of Parker's Landing, the well known oil operator. The tools are to be sent to the Capada oil regions where Mr. G. is about to commense developing. The tools manufactured by our townsmen can not be excelled for strength and durability, in fact there are none better

The railroad from Buffalo to the oil region is an assured fact. Good!

A Harrisburg dispatch in the Titusville Herald of Tuesday says the repeal of the proviso in the Free Pipe bill has passed both houses of the Pennsylvania Legislature. The provise, it will be remembered, prohibited the approach of a pipe line within five miles of the boundries of Pennsylvania, and compelled shippers to send their oil from the terminus of the pipe to the seaboard by the railroad route having the greatest mileage in that State, meaning the Penusylvania Central. The greedy hoggishness of the Legislature has been compelled to withdraw it. Unless some other trick has been played, there is now no legal obstacle to the construction of an oil pipe, between Oil Creek Pennsylvanis. - [Cleveland Herald.

Property Mr. Duncan owned at Cuyaboga Falls, O., he leaves in trust for his brother James, after whose death to go to the eldest child of another brother. He also provides for the wages of a man and two women as servants for his said brother James, and he also invests $5,000 to be paid annually to said brother James in sums of $300 each towards his support and-maintainance. To a blind daughter of said brother James he gives $10,000. The deceased makes various bequests to his moth er and brothers and sisters and more distant connections. His will provides that his Cleveland property be sold. He gives to the Methodist Church of Battle Creek$ 10,-000 and to the Methodist; Church at Pithole City, $10,000 and $25,000 to the Methodist Church in Plumer, and after payment of the various legacies, what is left of his property to be given by his executors to such Methodist objects as they see fit. He gives also $5,000 to Rev. Mr. Leceb, a Methodist min.

DELICATE CREATERES. - This is the phrase applied by His Blackness, the Moore of Venice, to the fair ladies of Italy. It was the lovely complexion of Desdemons, such a radiant contrast to his own, that won his heart; and sooth to say, every man of discernment considers a fair skin, like a sweet voice, "an excellent thing in woman." Now this is a charm which can be acquired.— There is a beauthfu and odoriferous toke There is a beaithfu and odorferous tolict article, known everywher; as Hagan's Maganolis Balm, which literally transfigures a cloudy or sallow skin suffusing the discolored face, neek, arms and bosom with a soft, pearly tinge, and imparting to the surface a smoothless and a gloss like that of polished marble. Instead of clogging the pores, like the sticky engages, or contracting them, and thus obstructing perspirelion. like the and thus obstructing perspirellor, like the astringent cosmetics, it cleaners the skin from all impurities and wonderfully improves its texture. This peculiarity is particularly appreciated by our rural belies, who find that the coarseness and roughness, which country is in an in an income. which country air is apt to engender, are speedily removed from their faces, hands and arms, by this delightfin preparation.

A New York correspondent of the Balti more American gives the following copy of a letter recently sent to the Fulton street prayer meeting: "Fulton Street Prayer Meeting-1 write because I am hopelessly wretched; sm young, wealthy, this world says bappy.
