It strikes us that the pipe line meetings held at Kane City, have succeeded in ac complishing-nothing whatever. At the first meeting everybody appeared to be strongly in favor of a new pipe line, as the only redress for alleged grievous wrongs in the matter of rates for pipelog oil, many holding the opinion that Mr. Stambaugh's charges were extertionate. At the second meeting their ardor seems to have cooled perceptibly on the pipe line question in general. The only point gained is that both pipe lines made their propositions as to what they would carry oil for; said propositions were accepted by the meeting, and that ended the play. The whole matter is in the hands of the Stambaugh interest, that being the only line, who can shap their fin gers at the producers, and advance the rates to suit themselves, no encouragement having been given the opposition line, sithough favorable to the producers Thus ends the Coerrytree pipe line excitement;

ANOTHER MEETING AT KANE CITY On Saturday evening I st. quite a number of producers met in the School House, at Kane City, to receive and discuss the propositions of the respective pipe compa-

Mr. Saunders was called to the chair, and Mr. Palater continued in office as Sec'y. Minutes of last meeting, as published in the Daily RECORD, read and approved.

The Sec then read the report of the committee, as follows:

Bradley, Whitney and Richardson proposed to run oil to Rouseville at 20c. per bhi and 10 per cent. wastage; also, agree to commence work immediately and have the new line opened at once.

J. Stambaugh agrees to run oil to Oil City for 35 cts. per bbl and 10c. wastage, provided that covered the lose; if not, an additional percentage to cover loss.

Considerable discussion followed the read log of report. The Stambaugh proposition met with considerable favor, except as to question of percentage, the prevailing opinion being that 35c. and 10 per cent. for carrying oil to Uil City was amp'e compensetion, the producers wanting a definite rate.

A number present appeared to favor the Rouseville line, and an expression of the bouse was taken on that question; which was not satisfactory as the majority refused to vote either way.

Mr. Wright wanted an expression of the house on the Stambaugh proposition, which resulted same as the vote on former propotion, majority remaining "on the fence."

Mr Perkins and Mr. VerValin entered inte a lively discussion on the question.

Moved that the expenses insurred by the ommittee be paid by the meeting. Carried The Chair stated that as we had now accomplished our object in obtaining the propositions and other necessary information. that we now submit them to the people and let both lines be supported as the people may choose. Adjourned sine die.

Life's Brightest Hour.

(From the New York Ledger.)

Not long since I met a gentleman who is sesessed for more than a million. Silver was in his bair, care upon his brow, and he stooned beneath his burden of wealth. We were speaking of that period of life when we had realized the most perfect enjoyment, or, rather, when we found bappiness nearest to be unalloyed. "I'll tell you," said the millionaire, "when ; was the happiest hour of my life. At the age of one-andtwenty I had saved up $800. I was earning $500 a year, and my father did not take it from me, only requiring that I should pay my board. At the age of twenty-two I had secured a pretty cottage, just outside of the oil has not interfered with the drilling, and city. I was able to pay two-thirds of the value down, and also to furnish it respects. bly. I was married on Sunday -- a Sunday tween Petersburg and Salem, where the rig in June-at my father's house. - My wife bad come to me poor in purse, but rich in or 20 barrels of oil a day, thus proving a her woman tood. The Sabbath and the Sabbath night we passed beneath my father's roof, and on Monday morning I went to my work, leaving my mother and sister well, not being deep enough for the third to help in preparing my home. On Monday ovening when the labors of the day were done, I went not to the paternal shelter, as in the past, but to my own house . my own home. The holy atmosphere of that hour seems to surround me now in the memory. I opened the door of my cottage and entered. I laid my bet upon the little stand in the hall, and passed into the kitchen-our kitchen and dining room were one then. I pushed open the kitchen door and was-in Heaven! The table was set against the wall-the evening meal was ready-prepared by the hands of her who had come to be my helpmeet in deed as well as in name-and by the table, with a throbbing, expectant look upon her lovely and loving fact stood my wife. I tried to speak, but could not. I could only cinsp the waiting angel to my bosom, thus showing to her the ecstatic ourden to my beart. The years have passed-long, long yearsand worldly wealth has flowed in upon me, and I am honored and envied; but true as beaven, I would give it all-every dollarfor the joy of the hour or that June evening in the long, long ago." Another important use for courches has been discovered by the advancing intelligence of the age. In New York, some of them are becoming the great stamping ground for firtation—the modern Meccas of smorous appointments. A recent number of the New Yourk Herald contained four "perconais" in which interviews of this sort were arranged!
