The San Francisco Bulletin of April 2 tell this: "The silver half dollar nailed to the end of a stick driven down between the paving stones in the street at a crossing of California and Battery streets, yesterday, caused a great number of persons to stop and attempt to increase their finances, then start on with a metaphorical flea in each ear, muttering something about April fool. At length a small boy came along, kicked vigorously at the coin, and comprehended the situation and walked off. He soon returned armed with a pair of blacksmith's pinchers, and seizing the head of the stick with a firm grip, pulled it up bodily and walked off with it in triumph, remarking, sotto voce, 'I guess somebody else is fooled this time.' But what is the world coming to? That half dollar was bogus."

TEN REASONS.—A hundred reasons might be given why Lyon's Katharion should be used by every intelligent human being in preference to every other preparation for the hair, but ten will suffice. Here they are: Because it nourishes the fibers, multiplies them and makes them grow; because it thus prevents them from withering and bleaching; because it removes the scurf and dandruff which choke them as tares choke the golden grain; because it keeps the scalp cool and prevents eruptions; because it renders the hair as lustrous as satin; because it makes it pliant and elastic; because it is a fragrant and delightful dressing; because it does not soil the pillow, the cap or the hat; because it is without a rival in cheapness and because no other article sold for the same purpose in this or any other country, possesses all, or even one-half, of those invaluable properties.

Our western Indians were long supposed to be the greatest experts at torture, but Chinese, it seems, are more advanced in this fiendish capacity. A court at Hong Kong lately condemned a criminal to be killed by wakeness. The culprit, a strong and healthy man, was kept awake constantly by fifteen days, his sufferings for the last few hours being of the most excruciating character. At last he dropped down and the heart ceased to beat. Roasting alive is a mercy compared with such torture.
