The last thing out is "Dolly Varden" wash. It is made of red flannel, old rubber shoes and salt beef. Dolly used to make it when she was a girl, all except the old rubber shoe ingredient, that having been added since her day, to show the progress of the age.

A young Parisian, twenty three years old, lately made his eighteenth rescue of drowning persons from the Seine. His father saved one hundred and fifty lives in the same way, and was decorated with the Legion of Honor and thirty gold medals for his services.

A newly converted Kansas reporter thus notices a minstrel troupe: "For those who do not consider it a sin to witness minstrel shows, this entertainment will furnish a pleasant relaxation from the revival meetings."

Marion Hasland in "At Last" says: "A woman who is engaged, or as good as engaged, to six or eight different men, can not retain much purity of mind or strength of affection."

Dr. Geissenhainer, too venerable Lutheran minister and scholar of New York, states that the loss incurred by the burning of Lutheran manuscripts in Germany is not important, as copies exist of all that have been destroyed, with the exception of Luther's Greek Bible, which had a number of annotations.

A hotel clerk in Pittsburgh, Penn., has manifested enterprise, but unhappily turned it into wrong directions. He has just married two wives set up a boarding house with the second, victimized sundry shopkeepers, not to mention his friends, and wound up with eloping with one of his sisters-in-law.

A Russian printer has invented a type setting machine which, the St. Petersburg papers assert, surpasses all similar machines that have hitherto been produced. It sets in an hour thirty thousand letters; it costs five thousand rubles, and one thousand letters set thereby costs only five cents.

While the snow-plows were in use at one end of the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Railroad, last month, the farmers were sowing wheat at the other end. The road is two hundred and twenty miles long.

NOTES OF THE DAY.

As a great inducement to subscribe, the Cartersville, Ga., Express says: "It is worth that for wrapping paper or cutting patterns, if for nothing else."

The women of Rome propose erecting a statue of Garibaldi in that city this Summer. A large amount of enthusiastic resolutions has already been raised.

Fifty dollars was all that a man in Council Bluffs was willing to pay for the capture of his wife, his rival, his little daughter, and a thousand dollars in money.

Lynch, the Speaker of the Mississippi House of Representatives, is only twenty-three years of age. When Natensz was captured by the Federals he was an illiterate slave boy.

A Kentucky legislator sent up the following memorandum to the clerk: "Leave is asked to bring in A Bill to alter the time for the Legislature to meet. Referred to the committee on Religion."

A good umbrella is a sure test of a man's respectability. A man may go to church or to market with a shocking bad hat or pair of boots, but not with a bad umbrella and retain his status in society.—[Boston Transcript.

The next deluge, according to Alphonse Adhema (who is Alphonse Adhema?) will occur in 7253. We are real glad that it is not to come off ten years earlier, because if it did we could not get our ark ready in time.—[Norristown Herald.

Here is a California earthquake incident: An unruly colt had broken loose from his tether, and the owner was chasing him about the lot when the shock came. The colt disappeared, but the farmer has a first-class drain across his forty-acre farm.

The ex-Queen Isabella lost a lawsuit in Paris and has been compelled to pay her jewelry bill. It was for Girgenti's wedding presents, and amounted to 161,000 francs.

"Buy your vaccine virus here," says an apothecary's window in New York, "our calf is a great deal sicker than that of any other establishment."

A man in Missouri recently, by mistake, ran away with his own wife. She was disguised in a fancy ball-room costume, and he did not recognize her for some time.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

COUNTY COMMISSIONER.

ED. RECOND:—Please announce H. B. HIXON, of Cornplanter Township, as a candidate for County Commissioner, subject to the usages of the Republican party at the primary election.

MANY VOTERS.

PROTHONOTARY.

MR. EDITOR:—Please announce the name of SAMUEL REYNOLDS, of Petroleum Centre, as a candidate for the office of Prothonotary of Venango County, at the ensuing Republican primary election. We believe Mr. R. would fill the office with entire satisfaction to all.

Many Voters.

J. J. HAIGHT, of Pleasantville, Pa., late Capt. of Company "B," 11th Penn'a. Vet. Vol. Infantry, will be a candidate for the office of Prothonotary, of Venango county, subject to the usages of the Republican party, at the primary election.

F. W. HASTINGS, of Franklin, is a candidate for the office of Prothonotary of Venango County, subject to the decision of the Republican party, at primary election.

REGISTER AND RECORDER.

CORNPLANTER, March 23d, 1872.
EDITOR DAILY RECORD:—You will please announce that JAMES W. SHAW will be a candidate for re-nomination for the office of Register and Recorder at the ensuing Republican Primary Election.

Mr. Shaw was a private in the Army of the Union and lost his right arm in our own State at the battle of Gettysburg. He is competent, prompt and obliging, and has given entire satisfaction to the business public as an officer. Therefore having been disabled in the service of our country, but being well qualified for the position, and having the confidence of the business public and community at large as an officer, his re-nomination will be urged at our Primary Election on the day of 1872.
