We are requested to state that the place of holding the Republican primary election, tomorrow, has been changed from the School House on the hill, to the office of S. Reynolds, on Washington street.— Election will please take notice.

The game of base ball, this afternoon, at Columbia Farm, resulted in favor of the Seneca of Oil City. Score at end of game stood—16 to 15.

Speaking of that libel suit against the Record, the Titusville Courier of this morning copies our article in full, and says:

We would advise this man McCalmont, (who by the way is no relative of the Frank lin McCalmont.) If he knows when he is well off, to let Charley Wicker alone. It appears he was in a dirty scrape, and now by bringing this libel suit he has exposed himself to the public. If the matter ever comes to trial Mr. McCalmont will, if all we hear is true, be shown up in no very enviable light. Just the fact of his commencing this suit has brought him into notoriety that cannot be at all pleasing to him. We think he will find it greatly to his advantage to abandon the suit and simmer down.

Libel suits always bring the editor into notoriety, and more especially in the present case. For the benefit of the "limb" who brought suit against the Record, we would state that yesterday we received an order for two hundred copies each of the papers containing the accounts of the obscene and disgraceful affair out of which the libel suit grew, the papers to be sent to Franklin for circulation. "Was ever client so abused?"

There are already six Presidential candidates in the field, & wit:

Daniel Pratt, paripatetic.
George Francis Train, Independent.
James Black, temperance.
Judge David Davis, labor reformer.
Horace Greeley, protection and free trade.
Victoria C. Woodhull, woman suffrage.

The erection of several manufactories at Oil City is contemplated.

WALTON CLUB OF COLUMBIA FARM.—On the 13th of the present month, the Walton Club of Columbia Farm, composed of the following gentlemen—J. C. Bump, G. A.
Baker, J. D. Hamilton, C. W. Ecob, Geo.
Geyer, Fred. Robinson, and Adam Holiday —started for Sheffield, Elk county, on a grand fishing excursion, in addition to having a good time, made an immense catch of speckled trout. Leaving Sheffield they fished down the following streams—Dub's Eddy, Blue Jay, Two Sheriffs, Minister, Creek, and Salmon Creek, all tributaries of Tionesta Creek, camping at night at different points on the trail, and arriving at the village of Tionesta, in Forest county, on the 23d inst., at which point they broke camp and started for home. During the time the party was absent they succeeded in capturing 1,433 fine trout, and after cooking and eating to their heart's content while on the march, brought home over 100 lbs., enough to supply every family on the farm with a "mess" of trout.

The members of the Club are loud in their praises of Maj. Goodman, the gentlemanly manager of the Forest House, at Tio-nosta, and desire us to return him their sincere thanks for the manner in which they were treated while at the Forest Hotel. In addition to thoroughly understanding how to "run a hotel," the Major is a veteran fisherman and hunter, and the "big catch" of trout made by the Club is largely due to him, as he accompanied the party. From what the boys say, we think the Forest House, Maj. Goodman, manager, is the place for fishing and hunting parties to put up at while in the beautiful village of Tio-nosta.

The Norwich Advertiser says: "A young lady, very pretty; walked around the new road (7 miles) in one hour and forty five minutes. We remember escorting one around the road once by moonlight. Time —four hours and forty minutes. But then she said she wasn't in a hurry. The old folks had gone to camp-meeting, and she had a night-key."

A certain individual got drunk three times, yesterday, and "let off sour beer" at a disgusting rate. Some wicked individual proposed to seed-bag him and start a brewery, claiming that once pumping had commenced the supply of our vinegar would be inexhaustible and never failing. "Ugh!" was the only articulate sound, and that re-echoed like the blowing out of a whiskey bung, and off the beer barrel started.

The Seneca of Oil City, and the Columbia Farm B. B. C., are playing a match game of base ball, on the latter's grounds at Columbia, this afternoon.

THE WARREN & VENANGO R. R.—The work on this end of the Road is progressing rapidly. Two gangs of men are now working in the Borough, connecting it with the Dunkirk, Warren & Pittsburgh Road. The connection is being made at a point on High St., opposite Greenlund Bros. shop.
The Irish shanties below have been moved and others will be, for the track, and the new depot is to be moved about one hundred rods from its present location, up the street. One Road will pass on one side of the depot and one on the other. Several hundred tons of the iron has already been received, and we are told the cars will be running to Irvineton after about 20 or 25 days from this date.—[Warren Ledger.]

A drunken individual, while in the Rochester House bar room, this afternoon, after insulting several gentlemen, and fearing a thrashing which he richly deserved, took off a stove pipe hat, and in whining old woman voice muttered—"The law is on my side, touch me if you dare," and then sneaked off to his hole. Just about after the fashion of the little school boys who exclaim—"you knock this chip off my shoulder, and I'll just tell my ma."

Some one asked Mrs. Cady Stanton if she thought girls possessed the physique necessary for the wear and tear of a college course of study. Her reply is both sensible and sarcastic. "I would like to see you," said she, "take thirteen hundred young men and lace them up, and hang ten to twenty pounds' weight of clothes to their waists, perch them upon three inch-heels, cover their heads with ripples, chignons, rats and mice, and stick ten thousand hairpins into their scalps; if they can stand all this, they can stand a little Latin and Greek. Elizabeth Cady never uttered more truth in so short a space before in her life.

The Indianapolis Journal states that the potato bugs will poll a heavy vote in Indiana, this fall, and sweep the State by irresistible majorities.

An exchange says: "The coopers in the oil region are on a strike." Singular, isn't it; up here in the oil region we haven't heard a word of the strike.

Erle is chosen as the place for three quite important events this year, viz: the State Editorial Convention in June, the Regatta of the N. W. Boating Association in July, and the State Fair in September.

A "Pigeon," With Talons.

[From the San Francisco Chronicle]

It very seldom happens that we hear of a "thorough bred sport" being taken in and done for, but such things have happened as was illustrated on a recent afternoon in the Lick House billiard rooms, where several of the fraternity were beaten at their own game in the most scientific manner. During the afternoon a number of unemployed sports were amusing themselves at a little game of pool, while they kept an eye open for any stray flats that might be hovering around. While the game was in height an individual entered the room, who was at once singled out as a "pigeon" that might be plucked with impunity. As the game was open for all, the stranger was induced to try his luck, and "putting" up half a dollar for the pool, he picked up a cue, displaying, as he did so, sundry patches and not a few tatters. He gazed at the spectators through a pair of iron bound spectacles, and presented altogether the appearance of a genuine "hoosier," as the "thorough bred" call this class of the community. The pins and balls were set, and the game commenced. The first shot of the new comer displaced the one pin, and when his turn came round again, all the pins flew in every direction, whereupon he tapped the cloth to indicate that sixteen was pool, and the game-keeper corroborated by calling out the fifteen ball.

The first pool had been won by a scratch, the outsiders said; but when the ragamuffin won the second pool he was called a pretty fair player.—In fact, he handled the cue with considerable ability. He "got away" with the third pool, and consternation was depleted upon the face of all. From a scratch player he had become in the eyes of the assembled "sharps" a crack pool player, and beating him was out of the question.
Another game was played, which the individual of the iron-bound specs also won; and the assembled "pool-sharps" placed their cues back on the rack with the muttered ejaculations of "sport in disguise, or the devil." The sport, or devil, preserved an unmoved phiz throughout, and not even smiled, when the crowd applauded his skillful playing. Just as the players were replacing their cues a well known frequen-ter of the Lick House billiard rooms entered, and, not being conversant with the state of things, agreed to play the stranger; but he was compelled to give it up in disgust, for his opponent won every pool and most of his money. Several others who lounge in about this time met with the same fate, when Oscar Lewis, the proprietor of the establishment, hearing the continued uproar, approached and was instantly recognized by the successful player, who spoke to him. A moment's scrutiny by Mr. Lewis caused him to exclaim, "Why Jack, how are you? Are you learning the boys a few tricks at pool?" As soon as the man had departed Mr. Lewis was interrogated in regard to him, and informed the assembled crowd that he was Jack Bartlett, a sport who flourishes during the winter at 49 and Spring of '50—an old hand at the various games with which these embryo sharps were somewhat familiar. Having made a "pile" he had bought a farm in Solanto County, and retired from the "profession." He was probably upon his travels at present, and when he played it was simply a recreation. "D—d expensive recreation for us," muttered a disgusted sharp as he turned away and wandered in search of other "pigeons" whose claws might not prove eagle's talons.

Just one more word in favor of a candidate and we agree to swear off. This time it is in favor of E. G. Crawford, who is a candidate for re-nomination for the office of County Prothonotary, at the Republican primary meeting, held tomorrow. In addition to being a whole-souled gentleman in every respect, Mr. Crawford is a man of ability and learning, and has filled the office in a manner highly satisfactory to all.— Having had dealings with him in that capacity, we can cheerfully testify to his promptness in the transaction of business; his universal politeness and attention to the wants of all having business at the Prothono-tary's office, and that merit alone should govern that office, consequently Mr. C. is just the man for the position, "which the same we will ever maintain." We hope our Republican friends will extend Mr.
Crawford the courtesy of a large majority of votes at the primary meeting, to-morrow.

The residence of Mr. Eugene Williams, in Cherrytree township, this county, was destroyed by fire on last Thursday. Nearly all the furniture and about fifty bushels of wheat were destroyed. No insurance.

Pittsburgh, with a population of only 86, 000, has more daily papers than London with its 3,000,000 inhabitants. The former has ten dailies and the latter only nine.

The Oldest Established Dry Goods House on Oil Creek.

The following new wells are being drilled in Butler County.

One on the farm of Jno. Smith, Esq., Cherry township—down 200 feet.

One on the farm of David Stewart, in Washington township, and one at Rumboughs, same township.

One on the farm of J. H. Hindman, Clay township.

One on Silver Creek, on farm of Wm. C.
Campbell, Esq., Fairview township. Down 1,000 feet.

One at Ralston's Mill, Concord township, & one at Millertown, Donegal township, and one on Forquer farm west of Millerstown.

One above Boydstown, in Concord township. This well is about completed and with favorable prospects. It is only 7 miles up the Connequessing from Butler.

Preparations are making to complete a well at Jas. Stephenson's old Brinker Mill in Summit township, and only four miles east of Butler.

The latest news from the Thorn creek well is very encouraging. The rock continues favorable.

We hope all these enterprises may meet with success, and believe the day is not very distant when our county will be an extensive oil producing district.—[Butler Citizen.]

THE JUSTICE OF THE VERDICT rendered by the public years ago in favor of the Mexican Mustang Lintment must be apparent to all who have used that famous preparation or seen it used. Its healing influence is irresistible. The most obstinate forms of neuralgic or rheumatic disease are totally cured by it, and that in an inconceivably short space of time. External injuries or sores, whether of man or beast, as well as all equine or human maladies for which a liniment may be used, are speedily remedied by its use. Remember it is not merely a palative but an eradicator of disease.

Reports from different parts of the country show that the rains of last Saturday and Sunday extended over a very considerable area, and it is estimated that their effect upon the growing crops will be worth millions of dollars, aside from the other benefits conferred by their extinguishment of the destructive fires raging in the woods of a number of States.

NOTES OF THE DAY.

Herds of antelopes graze upon the prairie near Ellsworth, Kansas.

Cigars are made at Key West at the rate of fifty-two thousand a day.

The latest style at fashionable funerals in New York is for the pall-bearers to wear full-dress suits and white kid gloves.

For the last thirty years New York has never re-elected a United States Senator, with the one exception of Hon. Wm. H.
Seward.

A Western paper tells us that a man and his daughter in Missouri were killed by an electric ball which fell from a cloud and struck the house in which they lived.

The asphalt pavements laid in several London streets are so well liked that the inhabitants of other districts are petitioning that their streets may be laid with the same material.
