Potsen.- On Saturday, our readers will remember, we made an item relative to the serves of Thomas Lawton, charged with jumping his buil, by detective Meldrum, of Syracuse, N. Y. Immediately after the arrest, the friends of the man made information against the detective charging him with essent and battery. He was brought before Justice Boyn olds, and after a bearing was fined $1,75 and costs. The queerest part of this affair is that alter being fined for assault and ba ttory, in being handcuffed to the prisoner, and paying his fine, the detootive was allowed to walk out of the office unmolested and still hardcuffed to the pris ener, whom he subsequently removed ostensibly to Franklis but probably out of the There is another and important le-State. sal point in regard to the arrest of this man which needs to be looked into, and that is with the operators is the order of the day. whether an officer from another .State has a This
