Another Valuable Invention.

CATES' BACK SUCTION PREVENTER.

Petroleum Centre, Pa., Feb. 8, 1872.

Messrs. Andrews & Co—Gentlemen—Having had CATES' BACK SUCTION PREVENTER in use for some time, we take pleasure in saying that it is the best invention of the kind for Petroleum Oil wells. Our well was one of the first on which CATES' BACK SUCTION PREVENTER was put in use, and we have had a good opportunity to test its merits. The Back Suction Preventer on the well we are interested in has been in use two weeks without a moment's interruption, and we believe it to be entirely successful. It is easily obtained by means of the Pulsometer.

Yours, &c.,
