Odd Fellows Celebration.

The second anniversary of the institution of the Petroleum Centre Lodge, No. 715, I. O. of O. F., will be celebrated at Petroleum Centre on Monday, June 10th. The Rev. Mr. O'Neill, pastor of the Centre street M. E. Church, of Oil City, will deliver an address on the occasion, and from the well known ability of the gentleman an eloquent oration may be expected. An invitation to attend the celebration has been extended to Oil City and Coroplanter Lodges, of Oil City, and other lodges, which has been accepted. All individual members of the Order and their families and friends outside of the Order are invited to attend. Permission has been granted for the Lodge to appear in regalia. The Columbia Cornet and string bands, and also a quartette of vocal musicians will be in attendance. Below we give the programme of the day:

Petroleum Centre Lodge No. 715 will meet at their lodge room at 9 a. m., and after donning their regalia, led by the Columbia Band, will march to Sobel's Opera House. From thence the marshal of the day, Past Grand F. J. Keffer, of North Liberty Lodge No. 17, accompanied by aids and the band, will proceed to the depot on arrival of 10:20 train, and meet Oil City and Coroplanter Lodges of Oil City and Petrolia Lodge of Rouseville, and escort them to the Opera House. A committee will also perform the same service for Dempseytown Lodge of Dampseytown, who will arrive by carriage conveyance.

Immediately after the arrival at the hall, the procession will be formed under supervision of Past Grand Keffer, assisted by aids from the several Lodges, and headed by the Columbia Band will take up the line of march for Stevenson's apple orchard, on the Stevenson Farm, the place designated for holding the picnic. At the grove the exercises will be—

- 1st. Prayer.
2d. Music by Columbia Band.
3d. Remarks by Rev. O'Neill of Oil City
4th. Singing by Quartette.
5th. Remarks by Dist. Deputy Lowrey, of Oil City and others.
6th. Music by Band.

At the conclusion of which dinner will be served up, the committee having the commissary department filled to overflowing with the good things of life wherewith to satisfy the inner man.

The afternoon will be devoted to amusements of different kinds, such as foot ball, croquet, &c., and a social time in general by the members of the Order and their friends, music singing, etc.

After the picnic is over the procession will be re-formed in the same order and march to Sobel's Opera House, where the visiting brethren will be entertained until the departure of the train (probably a special) by Petroleum Centre Lodge No. 715.

We are in receipt of a copy of the premium list of the "Agricultural Fair and Cattle Show for Chautauque County, N. Y." The fair is to be held at Jamestown, N. Y., on the 10th, 11th, 12th and 13th days of September next, and is the thirty-sixth annual fair held by the society. The pamphlet is very neatly printed at the Journal office in that city.

W. O. Augustus, a Swede laborer on the Titusville & Petroleum Centre Railroad, got drunk last night, and undertook to "raise the devil" on a small scale, but got raised into the lock-up by officers Atwell and McHugh. $2.00 and costs.

Speaking of the change of proprietorship in the McCray House, and the sundry new improvements going on in the house, we had almost forgot to mention that our old time friend and renowned mixologist, John W. Swift, presided at the bar, ready and willing to serve customers all the way from plain and strait drinks to mint juleps, sherry cobbler, claret punches, egg noggs, and any and everything in the drinkable line.—Call at the McCray House, take a look at Judge Swift, and find out "how it is yourself." Nuff ced.

DRINKABLE.—The lovers of a delightfully cool drink who are anxious to be sure of knowing exactly what they are drinking, are advised to stop at the Drug store of J. H. Christie's, and indulge in a glass of his inimitable soda water. It is always pure, refreshingly cool, and the syrups used being of Mr. Christie's own manufacture, may be relied upon as being extracted directly from the various fruits the flavors of which they possess. Mr C. has also in stock a very fine selection of pure drugs and a choice assortment of imported perfumes of the best make.

Here is the latest from Paris: At the Theatre Francais Mile. D—was, in the presence of the author, repeating her part in a comedy by Scribe. "My child," said M. Scribe, "permit me to give you a hint—Here is the scene. Suppose you are in your own room. A young man is at your own feet making a passionate declaration of love to you; your husband suddenly enters.—"Now what would you do?" "I would tell him to go away again," replied the artless maiden.

It has been suggested that as a means of eradicating polygamy in Utah, vast quantities of fashionable millinery goods should be sent there, and the Gentile woman induced to array themselves in gorgeous style. This will produce such a competition on the part of the Mormon sisterhood, and such heavy bills for finery that their husbands will be glad to reduce the number of wives, so as to reduce the pressure on their pockets.

Charles Wood, who was recently manager of the Exchange Hotel, Paankin, absconded last week, taking with him about $1,000 belonging to Mitchell & Plumer, proprietors of the hotel, and $500 belonging to his wife.

A new mode evading the liquor law has been adopted in Maine: A large manufacturer of cider has appointed a number of agents for its sale, giving them powers of attorney, and they have disposed of large quantities by the glass on the ground that they are simply clerks or agents of the manufacturer. A number of lawyers hold that the sale in this manner is legal, and it is said that agents will be appointed in this way throughout the State.

A destructive fire occurred at Ingersoll, Ont., last Wednesday night, destroying seven dwelling houses, involving a loss of over $20,000. Insured for about $10,000. The business portion of the town was almost entirely destroyed by fire last month.

The committee of arrangements for the Odd Fellows picnic, request us to state that it is given exclusively for members of the Order and friends whom they may invite.

Leggett sold 2,500 of his celebrated Valve Cups, to-day.

Some one has written a poem entitled "Smile whenever you can." It will become very popular with a certain class—the fellows who believe "water is good for navigation and to put out fires," but prefer something else for a "stiddy drink."

A game of base ball between the Mulling of Petroleum Centre, and the Scoopers of Columbia Farm, at Columbia, yesterday afternoon, resulted in the Scoopers being scooped up. Six innings were played.—Score—51 to 22.

An affectionate Detroit man was sent for the other day to remonstrate with his sister who had been trying to take poison; he knocked her down and dragged her round the room by her hair, and finished by tenderly assuring her that "if she didn't go to work and let the suicide business alone, he would break her neck for her."

Look at some of the spring chickens in the market and smile; broil them for dinner; try to carve them and weep; make a hearty meal out of the tender birds retire, and you will pass through the first degrees of the Sons of Malta, with all its horrors.

A little busy "bumble bee" drove a praying brother out of church at Indianapolis, the other day, by trying to extract honey out of his shiny bald pate.

The widow of Richard Young, Washington's overseer at Mount Vernon, is still living at Richmond. Her husband is long since dead, and the venerable lady herself has nearly reached a hundred years.

We copy the following oil news from the correspondence of the Emlenton Sun:

I have heard that the Chambers well has increased a little this last week and is now reported at 65 barrels daily.

The Emlenton well back of town (Petersburg) is just in the sand, they have quite a good show; the sand favorable and six hundred feet of oil in the hole.

Fertig & Hammond are starting a new well on the Eli Ritz farm about one mile N. E., of Keating's Furnace. McCulla also has one rig up ready for drilling on same farm.

There is considerable excitement in the vicinity of the Knight farm on Turkey Run. There is one well drilling in the sand which makes a very satisfactory show.

There has been three wells completed within a week on the Dan Ritz farm all of which are quite small wells. One of these is owned by Watson & Payne, one by the Penn. Co., and one by Capt. Crowell of Warren, Pa.

The wells on Ashbach run continue about the same, Andrews Bly & Co., have three doing fifty-five barrels per day, and drilling one. The old Hulings well is doing 20 barrels daily.

There is a well in the sand on the Richard Neely farm east of Turkey run which is making a very good show and causing no little excitement in that direction. This farm is located on top of the hill looking N. E. from the mouth of Turkey run.

Messrs. Treat, Porterfield & Crawford have commenced to pump a new well on the Faust farm which is doing 40 barrels per day. The same gentlemen have three more drilling on the same lease one of which they expect to finish next week.

What Came of Answering a Personal—A Brother Falls in Love With His Sister.

LOUISVILLE, May 29.

Quite a sensation was produced at one of our Broadway palatial residences to-day.—Last evening an advertisement appeared in the Cincinnati Enquirer entitled "Correspondence Wanted." A young lady and Broadway musician answered, and so pleased was the advertiser—who, in the meantime, had gone to New York—with her letters that an exchange of photographs was made. Each was delighted with the other's picture, which seemed to possess some familiar but unknown charm. Marriage was immediately decided upon, and the young man requested her true name that he might visit her and produce satisfactory references as to his character. Louisville being his home also. Anxiously he awaited the reply, which came, disclosing the startling fact that the lady was his own sister. Two years' absence had filled his face with whiskers, and changed the school-girl into a beautiful woman. The gentleman attempts to treat it as a good joke, but the lady is almost inconsolable that she should have wasted her affections upon her own brother.

Production of the Tidouite District for May, 1872.

Economy Oil Company 87.8
Tidouite & Warren 226.6
N. Y. & A 145.2
D. R. & N. Y 159.0
Gilliam 48.6

Cleland 6.1
Grandin & Green 74.4
Clapp Farms 200.6
New London 108.7

Total Production for April was 2,201.6 Bbls. 1855.1

Increase 360.1

The increase is on the Allen, Triumph, Grandin & Green, and Clapp farms, chiefly. The new Siggins' well, on the Manross farm, West Hickory, is doing about ten barrels. The well is on new territory.—Commercial.

Developments in the lubricating oil territory in Sagarcreek township are being made with great rapidity. The belt has been traced from the Point in this city, a distance of three miles in a northeasterly direction, and considerable "wild-cats" is being done in the direction of Cooperstown. We learn that territory southwest of this city will be tested this summer for lubricating oil, and by fall our city will be surrounded with oil wells.

An old well at Raymlton, drilled last summer but which was abandoned on account of the strong flow of water, has recently been taken in charge by Raymond Bros., who succeeded in exhausting the water on Wednesday last, when it commenced flowing oil at the rate of 50 barrels per day. Intense excitement exists in the neighborhood. Raymlton is situated on the line of the J. & F. Railroad, 10 miles west of this city.—Venango Citizen.

Rhode Island is happy. Its legislature met, transacted the necessary business to keep the Little State running, and adjourned, all in four days.

NOTES OF THE DAY.

Some of the politicians quote Shakespeare thus: "Now is the Summer of our discontent, made chilly winter by the Son of Massachusetts."

Edgar A. Poe was the author of the phrase, "Everything is lovely," to which modern slang users have added "And the goose hangs high."

Ben. Wade takes so little interest in the Presidential canvas that he is going uncommitted for several months, sojourn in the Yellowstone valley, without leaving even his Benny-diction.

It is stated that Libbie Garrabrandt, the New Jersey murderer, is not in a condition to be hanged, on account of the statute forbidding the taking the life of two persons for the crime of one.

The Indianapolis Journal says a bull dog with sound teeth is the only thing a lightning-rod peddler will not tackle and try to persuade into buying a rod.

Mosquitoes won't bite if you use a few drops of a solution of carbolic acid in your wash water before retiring. Their singings may be modified by plugging up your ear, with cotton.

A schoolmistress, while taking down the names and ages of her pupils and the names of the parents, at the beginning of the term asked one little fellow:

"What's your name?" "Oh, you needn't take down his name; he's too old to go to school to a woman," was the reply.

A young girl in Sanilac county, Michigan, tried to climb into a school house through the window. The sash fell on her neck, and her feet not touching the ground she was held there and slowly struggled to death.

The Pittsburgh Post says the laws of the State having general application, as enacted last winter, occupy but sixty-nine pages. We have not seen the full volume, containing the private legislation—the geese that have feathers—but risk the opinion that it will occupy above twenty times as much space.

Going up—oil.

The widow of a man who died quite recently in Greenville is prosecuting the tavern keepers of that town for the death of her husband by selling liquor to him. She claims damages to the amount of $5,000. Writs have been served on fifteen different parties. An Ohio jury has given a wife $7,000 against a liquor dealer "for the loss of her husband's society for three years."

The principle of always keeping your name and business before the public will insure success—and he who proclaims to the public that he is not afraid of competition and anxious to do business, must and will win.

An Englishman and his wife, who recently undertook a journey into the country of the Bedouin Arabs, without a guard, were robbed of their baggage, their money, clothes and valuables—the gentleman having to beg of the robbers a copy of the Times newspaper in which to clothe himself and his wife. The husband returned to Jerusalem in that valuable journal, his wife being wrapped up in the supplement.

The Emperor Napoleon is described by a recent visitor at Christeburst as looking several years younger than he did at St. Cloud in July, 1870. He is said to have lately made the characteristic remark: "When you have such a reception, such a continued welcome as I have had in England, you do not much heed the climate."

The House Wife's Comfort!

S. FISHER'S

Renovating Mixture,

FOR WASHING & SCRUBBING PURPOSES

It washes clean, and gives a very clear and beautiful appearance to the fabric, and will set the color in calicoes. For cleaning greasy spots out of carpets, broad cloths, washing linen and cotton goods, and for scrubbing it cannot be surpassed. It saves a large amount of labor, and does away with scrubbing brushes. It does not injure the finest texture, for the simple reason that its affinity is for grease or oil, changing them to soap, and thus loosening any substance with which they may be combined. It is instant death to bed bugs.
