A. ALDEN,

Clothier, Washington-St., PETROLEUM CENTRE, PA

A man incarcerated in the New York Tombs has been figuring in chalk on the walls of his cell: "In New York city the spires of 332 churches, worth $41,130,000, point heavenward. I'm here for stealing a loaf of bread for my starving child." Is any satire in it?

Secretary Boutwell, while at his home at Groton, Mass., last week, ploughed an acre of land. Mr. Greeley will have to look to the laurels; he must "clear" at least a two acre lot of timber to maintain his reputation as a man of the people.

A Georgia physician seared with a red hot iron the back of a patient suffering with cerebral spinal meningitis and the meningitis was laid as cold as hail.

The House Wife's Comfort!
S. FISHER'S

Renovating Mixture,
FOR WASHING & SCRUBBING PURPOSES

It washes clean, and gives a very clear and beautiful appearance to the fabric, and will set the color in calicoes. For staining grease spots out of carpets, broad cloths, washing linen and cotton goods, and for scrubbing it cannot be surpassed. It saves a large amount of labor, and does away with scrubbing brushes. It does not injure the finest texture, for the simple reason that its affinity is for grease or oil, changing them to soap, and thus loosening any substance with which they may be combined. It is instant death to bed bugs.

Petroleum Centre, June 4, 1872.
Having tried Fisher's Mixture I take pleasure in recommending it to housekeepers as being everything that is claimed for it. S. REYNOLDS.
Prepared and sold only by
S. FISHER, Rouseville, Pa.
Fisher's Block, Main Street. July.
