NOTES OF THE DAY.

Fully resolved to have a cold water Governor, the prohibitionists of Michigan have nominated Henry Fish for that office.

The Cincinnati Commercial speaks of the abominable, enervating and joyless picnic, as one of the American barbarisms that are scarcely tolerated elsewhere.

Civilization is still advancing at a headlong rate in Alabama, a party of Greenville gentlemen having signed a pledge not to use tobacco, in any shape or manner, during church service.

The Mobile Register publishes the following personal: A young lady who has been greatly annoyed by a lot of young simpletons who stop under her windows at night saying "If ever I cease to love," wishes to say, if they will cease their foolishness, come in and talk "business," they will confer a favor.
