GOLD IN NEW YORK.

New York, July 1.
Gold—113 1/4.

Something to be noted as curious in much early English is with great condensation of facts a remarkable redundancy of words. For instance, this from an old English ballad:—

Two thousand heavy guns besides
Likewise they took also.

A Duluth editor, who has strayed as far eastward as New York, writes in raptures to his paper of the people of that remote region. He says: "How different the folks do act! How green they act! What an air of primitive innocence there is in them! How pleased they seem to be! They never heard of Duluth!"
