A. ALDEN,

Clothier, Washington-St., PETROLEUM CENTRE, P. I.

At Sharon, New York, recently, a pretty Shakeress eloped with a young Shaker, greatly to the surprise and indignation of the Community. The runaway couple were followed, but the pursuers found that they were to late, as the happy couple had been made man and wife. The lady, in answer to the angry expostulations of her friends, is reported to have said: "You can make your apple sass, and warrant it to keep; but gals aint apples, and you can't bite 'em down so they won't sour on your old rules about marrying."

The celebration of the Fourth in Greenville was by no means a success. The hotels and restaurants having been notified to close their bars on that day, went to the other extreme, and closed their hotels, so that pleasure seekers were obliged to go home for dinner. There is not a licensed hotel in Mercer county at present, and the local option law now in force will probably make a fuss in the political camp.

Somebody advertises for agents to sell a work entitled "Hymenial Instructor." A contemporary adds, "The best hymenial instructor we know of is a young widow. What she don't know there is no use in learning."

It is stated that at a recent revival meeting in New Hampshire, one of the young brethren arose and said that he had received a revelation from the Lord that it was his duty to kiss Sister —, and she gotbrog loth, rejoined that if the Lord was willing she was, and the kissing was proceeded with then and there to the evident satisfaction of both parties.

The driver of a grocery cart, who let a basket of eggs fall, says "that truth squared to earth may git up and git, but he'll be derved if eggs will."

A man killed his wife at Troy, N. Y., on the sweltering Friday, for offering him hot dumplings for dinner.
