A. ALDEN,

Clothier, Washington-St., PETROLEUM CENTRE, PA.

A man applied to an attorney in Michigan, a few days ago, to see about getting a divorce from his wife, who, he asserts, had broken the seventh commandment. He offered fifty dollars as an inducement to the attorney to get the divorce in seven days, as he was in a great hurry to have the bill granted. He said he knew where there was a "blamed good chance to get another woman," and he didn't want to lose it. He was one of the enterprising sort, and had an eye to business.

The Hartford Courant reports that the cutworm is doing great damage in the tobacco fields of East Hartford, especially in locations where the ground is damp. One cultivator who had set out 3,000 plants, has found upon examination not more than ten or twelve plants which have not been touched. The worm has also extended his ravages to melon and tomato crops, and in some cases to corn and potatoes.

A. H. Haggerty, a St. Louis printer, is in trouble at Leavenworth on account of various petty larcenies. Among other things, he stole a policeman's uniform, a dictionary, about a dozen napkins, half a dozen towels, a barber's razor, three hair-brushes, two cloth-brushes, one old dirty shirt, three new shirts, four pair barbers' shears, one gimlet, one memorandum book, one package note paper, two packages invitation note, one syringe, one box of buttons, two pocket handkerchiefs, and sundries. Haggerty is a good printer, but has a fatal weakness for "spirits."

PETROLEUM IN WARFARE.—Prussia has fitted up petroleum in her ships for close combat in naval engagements. These ships can damage the decks of any vessel with liquid fire by means of force pump, hose and nozzles. This is claimed to be superior to the stink-pot composition of the Chinese, as it will burn as well as asphyxiate.
