MAN KILLED.— Charles Calahan, of Brady's Bend, was killed on Monday night last at Scrubgrass, by the train on the A. V. railroad going south. The unfortunate man had come to Scrubgrass on a visit and during the evening had drank considerable. It is supposed he laid down upon the track and fell asleep. The train passed over his body from the thighs to the head, horribly mangling that portion of his person. His mangled remains were not discovered until about an hour after his death. Coroner Larue held an inquest and the jury rendered a verdict of accidental death, attaching no blame to the railroad officials. Mr. Calahan was an unmarried man and about 30 years old.—[Venango Spectator.]

The Attorney General of New Jersey has given an opinion declaring vacant the offices of the Police Commissioners lately convicted of corrupt dealing. This is a good way to deal with all dishonest officials.
