A. ALDEN, Clothier, Washington-St., PETROLEUM CENTRE, PA.

The Republican Senatorial Conference which met at Stoneboro, July 17, nominated Samuel McKinley, of Lawrence county, as a candidate for State Senator.

The total vote of the United States this fall will be enormous. In most of the States the negroes vote for the first time at a Presidential election. All we have now full forty millions of people, and as our average vote is about one to five and a half, we shall take probably seven millions and a half of ballots. In 1840, thirty-two years ago, when the entire vote was brought out, after a most exciting canvass, it was about two million three hundred thousand. Are we to go on in this manner, trebling our vote every thirty years? If so, in 1900 we shall have twenty millions of votes.

Traveling in second-class carriages with third-class tickets is pronounced a fraud upon English railways, and imprisonment is the consequence of stealing a better ride than the ticket entitles the passenger to enjoy.

The Freeport Journal says "pairs are abundant at that place, and front gates are loaded down with them on fine evenings."
