The Oil Stockings Base Ball Club of

UP RIVER OIL NEWS. — The Allender Run oil district is looking up. Six weeks since the first well commenced pumping the precious fluid, and has continued ever since to yield at the rate of 7 barrels per day. — This well is located about thirty rods south east from the Copeland well, which has been producing oil for several years. Expert operators consider the territory perfectly safe to operate on, and from present indications it bids fair to open up a large extent of new and valuable oil territory.

Operators are already moving that way.
Mr. C. Jenkins, of Shamburg, has taken a lease, has a rig up, and will be ready to commence drilling in a few days.

Mr. David Laughlin, of Fagundas, has commenced a rig on his lease.

Messrs. Barnes and Brown have also commenced a rig, and several other leases have been given out to parties who are to commence operations the present week.

The land is owned by our townsmen, J.
M. Kepler & Co.

Mr. Kepler has been recently engaged in making a preliminary survey for a pipe line from Jamieson Run to the Oil Creek & Allegheny River Railway.

A large number of our citizens are going to visit Pittsburgh on the occasion of the Soldiers and Sailors' Convention, to be held pected that excursion tickets will be issued by the Allegheny Valley Railroad.

The Connecticut tobacco crop is said to be the largest and most prolific ever raised in that State, and it is estimated by good judges that this year's crop, taking the prices of last year as a basis, will net the farmers from a million to a million and a half of dollars.

The extent to which the quack medicine business is carried on is alarming, and it is a gratifying fact that public opinion is being awakened to the evil, and is calling for laws which will effectually suppress some at least of the evil compounds which are poisoning the people.

The street lamps in New York each cost the city $42.50 a year.

Chicago is undergoing a rather severe ordeal of moral bombardment from Cincinnati, St. Louis and other cities for her naughtiness in relation to "wheat corners." Chicago will so far improve by these admonitions as to engage in no more "corners" until the next suitable opportunity occurs.

San Francisco still complains of a scarcity of tonnage. Considerable freight is awaiting transportation to New York.

The Attorney General of Maryland has decided that insurance agents acting in that State for outside companies, which have not complied with the provisions of an act of the last Legislature, requiring sworn statements of business, copies of charter, etc., to be filed with the proper authorities, are liable to the penalty of the act of a fine of from one hundred to one thousand dollars.

Elias Williams, of Buffalo, Missouri, blew into the muzzle of his gun to see if it was loaded. Could Mr. Williams communicate with his friends in this world, his spirit would gently whisper, "It was."

hope to see reasonable prices.

The Rev. James Roosevelt Bailey, Catholic bishop of the diocese of Newark, on Monday received, from Pope Pius, a bull announcing his appointment as an Archbishop at Baltimore, to succeed Archbishop Spaulding. It is dated July 30th, and signed with the fisherman's seal, the emblem of St.
Peter.

G. W. Martin, of Ripley county, Tennessee, who a few days ago murdered his wife and threw her body into a pond, was taken out of jail on Sunday night by twenty armed and twelve charges of buckshot, from as many shot-guns, emptied into his body.

taining five hundred tons of iron ore, on the

A dozen cases of sun-stroke were reported at Cincinnati Tuesday.

All the engines were operating in the Exposition building at Cincinnati yesterday.
Machinery is going rapidly into power hall, and most of the oil pictures in the art gallery are hung. All over the building, space is being mapped off. Applications are double those of any previous Exposition.

The old man Flatfoot, who was cut in the head with an ax in Cincinnati, by an insane man, a couple of weeks ago, and was reported dead, is in a fair way of recovery.

We are sorry to learn that our townsmen, Mr. W. W. Johnston, the well known attorney and counsellor at law has about concluded (we won't say entirely) to leave town, intending to locate at some point in the down river country, probably St. Peters-burgh. He will, however, continue his office here one day in the week. Johnston is one of those good whole souled fellows that it is a pleasure to become acquainted with, and wherever he may go he will bear with him the best wishes of a host of friends.

To-morrow night a grand Republican Mass Meeting and Torchlight Procession will be held at Rousseville. W. C. More-

The Indians in St. Louis—Their Feats at the Table—An Interview With Spotted Tail.

The St. Louis Democrat contains the following account of the recent visit of Spotted Tail and his companions to that city:

"At dinner Whitewash-in-his-Eye called to him a waiter, who said 'Ugh!' as a delicate compliment, and handed him a bill of fare. The chieftain pointed to the first item and said 'Ugh!' The waiter said 'Ugh!' and returned with a cup of coffee.
Now, even though a cup of coffee is a good thing, it is hardly a meal for a man. So the brave said 'Ugh!' again, and pointed to the second item. The waiter said 'Ugh!' retired, and returned with a cup of green tea. A third interchange of 'Ughs!' resulted in a cup of black tea, and a fourth in a cup of mixed tea. In despair the brave uttered an angry 'Ugh!' that made the waiter turn pale, and pointed to the last item on the bill, evidently being anxious to get as far away from the teas as possible.
The waiter faltered 'Ugh!' and hurried back with a tumbler of iced tea."

The others, warned by the example and fate of their comrade, attacked the bill of fare. One struck 'pay eat,' under the head 'broiled,' and had an abundant if not varied meal of mutton chops, veal cutlets, broiled chicken, pork chops, sirloin steak, porter house steak, Boston steak, etc. Combining their information, the remaining members of the party wandered over the bill of fare, taking every division by starts, and none of them long. The result was eminently satisfactory to the aboriginal stomach, which is capacious and has no prejudice as to the succession and relative proportions of soup, fish, game, entrees, boiled, roast, game and desert. One erratic brave owed his maternal distention to a judicious compound of: 1 coffee, 2 cantelopes, 3 ice cream, 4, Irish stew; 5, steak; 6, Worcester sauce; 7, mustard; 8, mutton; 9, fried potatoes; 10, mackerel; 11, Graham bread; 12, iced tea; 13, fried eggs; 14, sliced tomatoes; and, 15, battered toast, and his bonum was reat with emotion when he found that the waiter shook his head when the line 'Guests having friends to dinner will please give ar-tics at the office' was indicated."

Yesterday afternoon the Democrat reporter waited on Hon. Spotted Tail to interview him. Mr. S. T. was found in his room reclining on an elegant velvet fauteuil. He wore a crimson silk dressing gown, patent leather slippers, and velvet skull cap. His form be massive and vigorous, and his countenance open. The distinguished gentlemen from Dakota having uttered a guttural "Ugh!" inspired probably by the sight of the reporter's closely shingled hair, the following conversation took place:

"Reporter—Are you satisfied with result of your journey?"

"Governor Spotted Tail—Smoke/all/the-Day is a great brave. He will take care of his children. He will give us guns and gimlets. His chief, Little Phil, is not like him. He hates the red man. He gives him guns, but the right end is not first.

"Reporter—What is your opinion of the contest between Grant and Greeley?"

"Colonel Spotted Tail—Smoke-all/the-Day is a brave; he has seen foes; his heart did not melt. Squash-with-the-Short-Horn is a woman. His tongue is loud.— Brown-Crab-with-the-soft-shell loves the fire water. His knees are weak.

"Reporter—I gather, then, from your conversation, sir, that you don't eat crow?"

"Dr. Spotted Tail—Na-na, the sheep eats the grass. He-he, the ass eats the tis-tle. The red man eats the patidge, Wanawan; he does not eat crow, Caw-caw. The great spirit took Caw-caw, the crow, he painted him black, that he might work in the dark and not be seen. He made his bill sharp to tear. He made his eyes keen to see a foe. He made his wings strong to fly. If a warrior eats Caw-waw, the crow, his spirit will not go into him. The warrior will be black, to do work that is not clean; he will be sharp, to tear the prey; he will be swift to fly. Spotted Tail and his tribe cannot eat crow.

"Reporter—How do you like our city?"

"Major Spotted Tail—It is a good town, Little Skunk (Chicago) is not so good, Heap squaw, much soap.

"The Democrat reporter finally arose and took his leave. Professor Spotted Tail assured him that the Democrat was his favorite organ, and desired to have it mailed regularly. It made no matter by which mail it went, as they captured a mail train daily.

The oil excitement in Butler county over the new well struck at Boydstown, is on the increase. The well is located six miles from any other producing locality, and is said to be producing 400 barrels per day. It is owned by Mr. Jameson.

A destructive incendiary fire occurred at Mt. Carmel, Ill., early Tuesday morning, which destroyed $25,000 worth of property, upon which there was an insurance of less than $2,000.

Says the New York Bulletin: "Just at present, business affairs in the South and South-west appear to be in a sort of lull preceding the activity that may be expected to result from the crop movements. The first installments of new cotton are beginning to arrive in Georgia, Louisiana, Alabama and other States, and admonish the country store-keepers that their stocks of goods are very light, and that the planters will soon be in a condition to buy freely. As a result we notice in nearly all our Southern exchanges reports of a general stampede of merchants from the interior to New York to buy goods. The same condition of affairs is noticeable in the Western States, and at present the indications may be regarded as favorable for a very active though probably a very late fall trade."
