This book is a complete history of all branches of industry, processes of manufacture, etc., in all ages. It is a complete encyclopedia of all branches of industry, and is the most interesting and valuable work of information on subjects of general interest ever offered to the public. It is adapted to the needs of the student, the manufacturer, the trader, the farmer, the student and the citizen, and will be both old and young of all classes. It is the only work of its kind, who are making progress in all parts of the country. It is offered at the low price of $2.00, and is the cheapest book ever sold by subscription. No family should be without a copy—it is a work of reference in every town in the United States, and no Agent is to be found who will not sell it. Each
