This evening, a ball for the benefit of Geo. W. Wilson will be given at the Opera House. The object is a good one and we hope to see a large crowd in attendance.
The best of music will be in attendance, and a good time may be expected. Give George a rouser.

Beatty, the well known coal-tioner, having removed a portion of his stock to Oil City, will auction off a large lot of toys, fancy articles, store fixtures, &c., commencing tomorrow. See his advertisement elsewhere.

The Petroleum Producer's Council met at Oil City, yesterday. They do not appear to have transacted any business whatever, and after talking up the question of utilizing petroleum for burning purposes, adjourning to meet on Wednesday.

There has been but few amusements in this town during the present winter, nearly all the troupes skipping the place for Oil City or Titusville. Petroleum Centre has always had the reputation of being the best show town in the oil region, and good troupes will be well patronized. Nearly all the troupes visiting us the past year have been of the poorest grade, and have not been well patronized as a matter of course.
A good troupe would get a crowded house.

An alarm of fire this afternoon was occasioned by an explosion in one of the tar still at Herman, Cornell & Co's refinery.
Damage slight.

A portion of the Pioneer ice went out this afternoon. Trouble is expected when the Columbia gorge goes out.

Weather warmer.

"All Rightee."

The Vallejo Independent tells the following good story:
A laughable incident occurred one evening, recently, on the up train to Sacramento. There were two seats in the car turned so as to face each other. One was occupied by a lady and the other by a Chinaman.
Evidently the lady did not relish the presence of the Chinaman, and set her wits to work to oust him out. She succeeded about as follows.

Motioning the Chinaman to rise, she explained to him that she wanted to take the cushions and their frames, and place them lengthwise across from seat to seat. John said "all rightee," and got out in the aisle while she placed the seats as above described, and then proceeded to lie down on the bed thus improvised, with her head resting on her valise.

She supposed that the Chinaman would at once take the hint that the lady wanted to take a little rest, in a space usually occupied by four persons. But John hadn't heard of the woman's rights movement, and at once proceeded to crawl in and stretch himself by her side, with his head on a little bundle of his own. The Chinese are an imitative race, and like to do as others do, you know.

The lady, as soon as she discovered that she had a bedfellow, got up a little wildly, and started for the next car, to the infinite amusement of the passengers, who had been watching the little scene with some interest.
John took no notice of the lady he had created, but went to sleep with the whole bed to himself.

The petroleum trade is in a greatly depressed state here as elsewhere. As an evidence of the dullness of the traffic in Philadelphia, it is stated that less than ten thousand barrels have changed hands in the past two months against nearly fifty thousand barrels during the same period last year. From present appearances it would seem that the trade does not give early promise of being active, as oil took another downward step in price in this city yesterday. There is scarcely any export demand, which is the principal cause for the stagnation. — [Pittsburgh Mail.

For the Daily Record About the Boys.

Petroleum Center's not dead yet,
And that's a fact I am sure, For here's the place ye'll always get Hot Scotch and whisky pure.
And if yez think I tell a lie—Or I don't know phats nice, Ye'll only have to go and thry Cord's velvet once or twice.

Be dad I know ye'll like that Dodge,
His shors be always klaine; It's non but gents with him do lodge And there ye'll see Kujinsie.

The boy's a wonder—and so merry, And beats the world the say In mixing up a Tom and Jerry, Whin shure he'll gath his pay.

But this be not the only shors To shlops at—mind yer eye—For Lew is jist fornat Hank's door, He kapes the best of Rye.

Mesif ye'll not be askin which Kapes this or that—ye'll mind, But if yez want a nice sandwich Bill makes the best ye'll find.

I'll bet the best yez tin cents There's one more place to go, Till trait a friend and that's old Clints Bedad, I'm shure I know.

If George ain't there ye'll ask for Gill, The crather is in the style, Compoundin' goods that never kill—Just call and take a smile.

And if ye thinks the quality Not of the finest brand, It's quare taste ye have for viskkey, Mesif can't understand.

A sleigh containing a brace of buckwheats was upset last evening, by the horses running away. The buckwheats were deposited in the middle of the road, and on account of being pretty well filled up with ozone, experienced considerable difficulty in gaining their equilibrium, to the amusement of the lookers on.

A sportsman's club has been organized at Meadville.

The Derrick burlesque Capt. Butler, of Tidoute, at a fearful rate in this morning's issue.

At the recent fire at Petrolia City, Chas.
Crocker, of Centerville, Butler county, was fatally injured by a falling derrick.

Mr. Fairchild, owner of the Bartlett refinery in this place, is making extensive repairs to that institution. When completed, the refining capacity will be nearly double what it formerly was.

Oil News.—W. R. Pettit has new rig under way on a twenty acre lease on the Hutchinson farm, three quarters of a mile west of Buena Vista.

John Preston and others will soon complete a well at Greece City.

The new pipe line between this place and Brady's Bend is about completed.
They could never tell in what rock they were drilling at the big gas well, because the gas blew the drillings out, scattering them in the four winds, nobody ever getting sight of them.

A well on the Ralston farm, one mile and half north west of Buena Vista, will be completed next week.

The Lambing well, on the Campbell farm between Petrolia and Argyle, which was abandoned a short time since as a dry hole, is now being drilled deeper. It proved to be in the hold, instead of the third sand, as was thought.

Three 250 barrel tanks are about filled at the Ralston well, on the McCleary farm, near Fairview, and one of 500 barrels capacity is being erected.

John C. Asher is commencing two new wells near the new strike at Greece City.

The tank builders are in clover. They have more work than they can do, with prospects of more.

Two months ago we said that the gas from the well on the Campbell farm, near Fairview, would probably be utilized by bringing to this place and Petrolia for fuel and illuminating purposes. The work of laying the main pipe will commence this week, or next, under the direction and management of the owners of the well, Messrs. Lambing Brothers. Two and a half inch tubing will be used for this purpose.

The Story Farm case will again be tried at Erie this week.

There will be four eclipses this year: A total eclipse of the moon May 12th, visible in the vicinity as a partial eclipse; a partial eclipse of the sun March the 26th, invisible here; total eclipse of the moon Nov.
4th, invisible in this section; a partial eclipse of the sun Nov. 19th, invisible here.

The recent hanging in Washington moves a journal in that city to remark upon "solid consolation" which engineers deliver to capital convicts, and to add satirically that "it cannot be too strongly impressed upon criminals as a certainty that they are to be launched from the gallows right into heaven." The same paper protests against a theology that makes murder a means of salvation, but it is quite probable that a large percentage of ruffians who die on the scaffold will always exhort the assembled spectators to meet them in heaven.

One of the cases on the docket at Franklin this week was the suit of a young man against his father for money which pluri-tative claims he loaned, but which the defendant averred belonged to himself. The counsel for the defendant in summing up the case, said, very pithily: "Twice has he returned to his father's house, twice has he been received with open arms, twice for him has the fatted calf been killed, and he now comes back for the old cow."

It is understood that all the conductors of the Harlem Railroad have tendered their resignations in consequence of an order requiring them to keep check books of their receipts and give a punched ticket to each passenger paying fare.

Rev. A. H. Williams, of Corry, has received the unanimous call to the pastorate of the Baptist Church in Franklin. The congregation are now worshipping in their new chapel.

The papers of the surrounding counties are magnifying a little Oub kosh fun among the Irish laborers on the railroad, along Redbank, into a dreadful murder. No murder was committed. A man named Jas Lannigan stabbed a comrade named Robert Jones, with a butcher knife, while on a drunken spree. Jones' neck was severely, but not dangerously cut. Lannigan went to Oil City on a coal car on Saturday night, and when found by the authorities there was almost frozen to death. He thought he had killed Jones, and that was the way the affair was exaggerated. We have not heard of any complaint being made or effort to arrest Lannigan. — [Clarion Democrat.

The train, which until recently, left Meadville on the Franklin branch of the Atlantic & Great Western Railway at 12:30 and arrived at Oil City at 1:55 in time for the train up the river on the Oil Creek & Allegheny River Railway. It also gives passengers going up the Creek thirty minutes or business in Oil City, before taking the three o'clock train, the difference between the time of the Oil Creek road and that of the Atlantic and Great Western being about thirty minutes. This new arrangement is very important, and it will afford great convenience to the traveling public.

The Oil City Greys of Oil City have received the honor of an invitation to Gov.
Hartranft's inauguration, on Tuesday next.

The late Emperor Napoleon will be buried today.

A rural gentleman standing over a register in a store in Syracuse attracted general attention to himself by observing to his wife, "Marrar, I guess I'm gold' to have a fever, I feel such hot streaks runnin' up my leg."

The Citizen that should the State conclude to erect an additional Insane Asylum in this part of the Commonwealth, Franklin would be just the place for it.

Jonestown has determined that no more oil shall be sold to that town under 110 deg.
Fahrubreit. The penalty for selling oil at a less fire test than that is fixed at $50, one half to go to the informer.
