The general complaint at present is the hard times and prevailing searcity of money these times. Every one accuses his neighher of being hard up and with just reason No oil is moving and consequently there is no money. There is something singular about this being bard up. We know of a number of men who have been hard up ever since we have known them. And there's where's the rub comes in, to alter one of Shakapeare's asvings a trifle. These very men can always find money enough to set bills or not we are not advised, but one indebiedness. If these men would only settle their little bills first and then pay out what is left for whiskey, the entire community would be benefitted thereby, as al the stamps they have would then be put in cilculation, whereas as the case now stands deadbest their whiskey in more than one instance.

even many of our own citizens are unaware We allude to the Excelsion Lubrication Oil Works, lecated on the Boyd Farm, and operated by our townsmen, Messis, Johnson & Barrett. The Lubricelling Oils man u factured by them has a wide spread and deservedly popular celebrity, as being the best inbricator in use. Among the recommends these gentlemen have from parties who have used it, we notice that of SVR Watson, President of Bull'slo Street Rail Read Co ; E A Richardson, Supt Lac ede Rolling Mills, St. Louis, Mo.; John L Hoffman, Master Mechanic. Columbia Oil Co . and others. From what we know of the oils maaufactured by these gentlemen we have no doubt they are the best in use and do not besitate to recommend for them a
