A land slide of extensive dimensions or purred dear Gregg's Switch, last night .-The slide was over forty feet long and at the late trains north and south had to be transfered at the side, and considerable de law occasioned to trains. Up to this morning the obstruction had not been removed and another transfer was made becessary. Freight trains were all delayed.

The preath sound soundon of the Pennerivania Reserve Volunteer Corps will take 1878. The annual meeting of these com/ rades in arms, who hold such a prominent place in the history of the great rebellion, have always been pleasurable, and the coming one is likely to be more largely at tended than any that have preceded it.

their bales in the lava beds in Oregon, and a band of United States roldlers are watching them. This has been the state of affairs for several months and will probably con/ tique till Captain Jack dies. It seems queer that one or two hundred Indians should defy the United States army, but as the army has nothing else to do, it is probaably as well that part of them should be ems ployed in watching the Modocs as at any other business. If the Indians could be taken to first class botels and boarded at public expense they could be kept much chesper.

There is another speck of war in Asia, not quite of so threatening a character as that which hovered lately over the region of the Oxus, but still not without importance. The Dutch have for a long time had nominal soverigaty over the East India island of Sumatra, though interlering little with the local government of the chiefs .-In 1870 a treaty was concluded between England and Holland by which the latter pledged itself to protect British subjects in Sumatra in the same manner as the Dutch. Complaints have been made by the British traders of depredations by the Malay inbabitants of the north western part of the island, and the British Government has called on the Duten Government to fulfill its treaty obligations. The Dutch King notified the Eultan of Abeen, who professes to rule over the northwestern part of Sumatra, that the outrages must cease, and finding no improvement is preparing to enforce obedience with the sword. The Acheens have all the fierceness and cupping of the Malays in general, and are larger made and more wigorous. They will give the Dutch forces trouble, should they determine on actual resistance.

CONSTITUTIONAL .- The Supreme Court, by a partisan majority, has decided that Local Option is legal. The irregularities that characterized the law in its passage; the still greater that marked it in its suimission to the people to be voted on at dita ferent dates and by localities singly, instead of being voted upon in the same manner as or State officers; the deprivation of busing ess and depreciation of property values to a large and worthy class of citizens without equiva ent, is decided to be emmently right and proper. Such are the intricacies and labyrinths in law, that justice, right and common sense are frequently lost sight of. And here is a case in point. So long as the Judiciary is elective, so long it will be persitive when any thing is to be gained for the party or themselves. . Popular clamor is not vox del-only right and truth. From partisan tyranny based on the usurpations of power by majorities good Lord deliver

The largest cargo of petrol-um ever shipped from the port of Philadelphia was on board the ship King of Algeria, which sailed recently for Antwerp. It consisted of 10,941 round barrels (equal to 12,281 pay) ble barrels of forty-two gallons each. 1-The ship draw twenty-four lest of water being one inch less toan the draught of the ship Peter Maxwell, which sailed on the 23d uit., for Hamburg, and six inches more than the ship Cathedral, noted some years since for coming to this port because she drew too much water to enter New York barbor.

A former named Hodger was the other day found walking on the metals of the English Great Western railway. Some bystanders seeing a train approaching shouted to the man and warned him of his danger. "All right," shouted back Hodger, and then lay cooly down on the metals, the train immediately passing over him, and completely severing his body in two. It would be in a teresting if some writer in the London Specs tator could be persuaded to give us his views upon the question of cowardice of courage exemplified to this suicide

Captain Jack and his Modoes are still in The New Postal Act -- The Aboltshed Letters from the People. "Free Matter" List.

It is important for the public to know what is included in the law known as "the repeal of the franking privilege."

All mail known as "free matter" under the existing laws, on which postage must be paid after June 30, by reason of this repeal, is classed under twelve heads, as follows, viz:

1. All mail matter from the President and Vice-President.

2. Official communications to and from Cabinet and Bureau officers, chief clerk or franking officers of each of the Executive your readers with a few items. There seems Departments.

3. All letters or printed matter to or from members of Congress, Secretary of the Senate or Clerk of the House of Representatives.

4. Petitions to Congress.

5. Copyright matter to Librarian of Congress, it so marked on the package.

Smithsonian Institute mail.

7. Exchanges between publishers, one copy of each publication not to exceed six? teen ounces in weight.

8. Weekly newspapers to actual subscribers within county where published. 9. Notices from Postmasters of refusals to take publications. 10. Dead letters returned to writers.

11. Medals, certificates of thanks, or other testimonial awarded by Legislatures to their soldiers.

12. Under a special act of Congress, passed some years since, all mail matter to and from Mary Lincoln, during her natural Those persons having the franking prive itege are the President, Vice President, Senators, Representatives, Delegates, Sec. tetary of Senate, Clerk of House, Cabinet and Bureau officers, all their Cierks, Postz musters, for official communications only, as also Collectors of Internal Revenue and Mrs. Lincoln.

Unde: the present law free matter is caried at a cost of about $1,250,000, while the estimate made for amounts required to pay actual necessary official postage for the ensuing fiscal year is about $2,500,000.

The changes in the law will be especially onerous on the library of Congress and the Smitheonian Institute, whose advantages in this respect have never been abused, and were only used in the interest and diffusion of knowledge. Another change which will be of great inconvenience, is that re stive to returned "dead lett is" to their writers when known. The English Post Office follows the sule we have, and collects when the returned letter is delivered. The only matter that can be sent under the amended law after the 30th of June next, without prepayment, is newspapers sent regularly Portage is to be collected quarterly on then when delivered. Present regulations tomain in effect.
