A Roman Uathollo paper speaks of the fact, no creditable to humanity. that not a set, under date of April 23d, says: A fire bushend on the Atlantic sought to have his broke out this morning between 3 and 4 own life by leaving a wife to her fate. One o'plock, in tuw St. James Hotel, on Main man was saved whose wife was lost, but

There is an uprising in Germany. There is "a row, a rumpus, and a riot" in the city of Frankfort. The old imperial city is in commotion. The people of the ancient town of great renown have risen in their might against an oppressive despotism. A terrible bother is the result. The troops were called out and for the moment the ins surgents; were crecked only to rally for tenewed fort in fact there is reason to suspect the troops of secret sympathy with the rebels, for blow forbors to fire on the crowd and the oppression which the, citiz time could'ne to get endure in patience beaus vite crossing weight on the soldiery. The less makers and beer selfers are the tyrants sgamet whom the people bave risen in their might. Whether the "big beer glass" has shrunk in dimensions or the price of lager has increased we do not know, but it must have been some crime equally great that moved the peaceable Frankfort foiks to rise in rebellion against a power so potent as the makers and venders of a drick to the German heart-or stomach.

A LIGHT SENTENCE.

Those who were'responsible for the Atlan tic steamship disaster have made a very lucky escape, owing to the fact, that they behaved well in endeavoring to save the lives of the ill-fated vessel. Captain Willining is consured for his directions in regard to approaching the dangerous coast of Nova Scotla at night, and for ratiring at "mid/ night to rest when the disacter might have been averted by his presence on deck. His certificate as a Captain in the merchant service has been revoked for the term of two years. John Brown, the fourth officer is suspended for three months. This is probably the last the public will ever hear of the terrible catastrophe beyond the reports of the recovery of bodies and goods from the wreck. It is creditable to the company that throughous the inquiry no blame was attached to it or its executive agents. The disaster appears to have been the result of a grievous mistake on the part of the commanding officer, who should have laid to with his ship at sea during the night of the 31st of March, and entered the harbar be daylight.

THE CITY BY THE SEA

Somewhere an ancient city stands, A beautiful city by the sea, And moss grown gables seem to frown From the pointed roofs of the houses brow That line the streets of this quaint old town Of that city by the ses.

Never a sound of clamorous sirife Disturbs this city by the s a; But paim and sweet is the trangall day-The white sails tide on the moonlit bay-Or ellp their moorings and float away-From this city by the sea.

Somotimes at eve, when the tide goes out A troop of children, glad and free, Gambol and shout-a merry band; Or over the shining, searwet sand, Go two young lovers hand in hand, From this city by thesea.

tation and often I sit and think Of this beautiful city by the sea. Till I see the flush of the crimson sky, And the youthful lovers, fourt and shy,

And the snow-white sails as the ship goes by missi

Past this city by the sea. Is it a picture-or a dream-Whose haunting memory comes to me? Or did I somewhere, long ago,

Pace the shining sands when the tide was low-Hear the murmurous sea/waves ebb and flow-

Did I see the crimson supset glow And watch the white sails come and go Past this city by the sea?

The Pittsburgh National Oil Journal of a late date, speaking, of the bill recently passed by the State Legisl ature relative to the fire test, says:

The law recently passed by the Legisla. ture of our State relating to the sale of burning oils, is one which concerns every family in the State. It is important that its provisions be as widely disseminated as pos sible among them. It is is your power to do this, and we request of you that as soon as your space will admit of it, you publish, wither the full jext of the law, or such a synopals of it as will make it plain to the people. You will find a full copy of the law and a shorter acticle explaining its conditions in another column, which you conditions in another column, are welcome to use if found suitable, either with or without predit to us.

Accidents to property and life from the use of ansafe olis have become alarmingly frequent. Sourcely . community in the State bas escaped their borrors. Scarcely newspaper which has not teen called upon to record the sad details. This law if en forced will remedy the evil, and we teel sure that you will appreciate the good to on reached, and whill assist in its strainment.

Recent intelligence from Central America fully couldrine the report of the des ruction of San Salvador by an earthquake." Instead of there being any mitigation of the disas ter, the latest news received from the til. fated city indicates its total destruction .-On the 4th of March, just as the day was drawing to a close, the first violent shock was felt, and it continued at intervals from that time until the final blow came, on the morning of the 19th, when the entire city was socilped in ruip. It is stated that the population of Bin Salvador was about 40,/ 000, of which number two hundred lost their lives or were wounded. From the 5th to the 19th it is evident that the greater porr tion of the inhabitants prepared for the ap/ proaching calamity, many of them aband-

Revising the Scriptures. The work of revising the Scriptures, now going successfully forward, is a wonderful event, and markann era of progress more significantly than any other of the great changes of our times. Twenty or even ten years ago, who would have thought it possible to secure the friendly co-operation of Christians of every name and country in the modification of this great and common plattorm of English speaking religious without disturbing denotational feelings of arousing sectarian j-alousies in any quarter? If does not show an advance in Christian charity and unity and the dawn of better days for the world, we know not what would. The progress of the last few years in science and travel, art, and discoveries In language, in geography and archeology have tended to bring the people and nations nearer together in all moral and Christian ideas, and to give them so much greater confidence in the real substance of Revelation and religion as to make all the grea t biblical scholars of the world both conserva. tive and fearless. The work is no new translation, but simply such a revision as will retrain all the traits that render our old English Bible vonerable, and yet remove those little defects that time, changes in speech or original errors have made manilettly proper and universally desirable .-The able and venerable Convocation of Canterbuny Legan the movement in May, 1870, but they have invited some forty eminent scholars from all the Christian ranks to join them, so that the result might be acceptable to all English speaking Christendom:

A. P. Waters, long proprietor of the Jamestown Clothing Store, has removed to Butler. We fear he has made a mistake, but yet wish him well, and take pleasure in recommending him to the good people of that vicinity as being an honorable deal er and always keeping on hand a good and ment of clothing, both readymade and ot-h erwise.
