

Divine Service. METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH Services every Sabbath at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M. Sabbath School at 12 1/2 P. M. etc. A cordial invitation extended to all.

Rev. G. Moers, Pastor. PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH. Preaching at 11 o'clock A. M. and 7 o'clock P. M., by the Pastor, W. C. BUNEN. Sabbath School at 12 1/2, directly after forenoon service.

Petroleum Centre Lodge, No. 715, I. O. of O. F. Regular meeting nights Friday, at 7 o'clock. Signed, W. B. MONTGOMERY, N. G. C. H. BAILY, A. Sec'y.

A. O. of U. W. Liberty Lodge No. 7, A. O. of U. W., meets every Monday evening at 7 1/2 o'clock, in Odd Fellow's Hall, Petroleum Centre, Penna.

I. O. of R. M. Minnehaha Tribe No. 183, I. O. R. M. of Petroleum Centre, meets every Thursday evening in Good Templar's Hall.

A. N. KLECKNER, R. Gold at 1 p. m. 117 1/2

A large number of the members of Minnehaha Tribe of Red Men left for Titusville, this forenoon, to be present at the meeting of the Grand Council.

The Volcano Lubricator, published at Volcano, West Virginia, is one of the best papers that comes to this office.

New Well.—A new well was struck on the Sims farm, Upper Bennehoff territory, yesterday, which started up at six barrels per day and increasing.

The Methodist Church is now being overhauled throughout. It is to be newly painted and otherwise beautified.

We were favored with a call, yesterday, from Mr. F. D. Bishop, of Oil City.

Major J. F. Mackey, of Franklin, also paid us a visit. He is likewise a candidate for County Treasurer.

Rain, rain, rain!

The telegraph announces the death of Hon. Salmon P. Chase, which occurred in New York city, yesterday.

Howe & Cook are doing a good business in old junk and making money.

The gentle spring rains are falling fast. Outside of causing the grass to look green, said rains are decidedly disagreeable.

Oakes Ames, of Credit Mobilier scandal, is dead.

William Thompson, of McCray Hill, is about starting up two old wells on the side hill, above the Egbert farm.

A new well was struck on the territory between this place and Titusville, yesterday, which is yielding forty barrels daily.

The oil market remains quite inactive at $2.60-$2.65.

If Warren county don't drink, she indulges somewhat in cigars. It is claimed that Erie manufacturers have sold 360,000 there during the month of March.

Mount Hickory furnace No. 2, at Sharpville, was blown out for repairs on Tuesday.

See what a stranger thinks of Pittsburgh, who gives the following "ground plan" of that city; Store—saloon—barber—shop—saloon—big saloon—alley—saloon—meat shop—saloon—residence—saloon—barber pole—saloon—shop—saloon—whiskey shop—lager beer—store—bakery—gin mill—saloon—drug store—saloon—iron concert business—saloon—livery stable—saloon—beer hall—coffin store—lawyers shop—beer foundry—hotel with beer attachment—saloon etc.—and adds: "The above is as near correct as we can make it at present, but if we have omitted anything it is one of two saloons."

A Methodist minister near "Little Heaven" was invited to take tea by a member of that church. The food consisted of cake made of Indian meal.

"It seems to me," sister," said he "that your Joanny cake is feathering out."

An old shell, one of the trophies of Gettysburg, was thrown into a cuspola at Shippensburg, lately, among a lot of scrap iron, when an explosion took place, which created much consternation, but did no particular damage.

Despite the croakings of orchardists, the indications for an average peach crop are good in most sections of the State.

Bellefonte proposes to give a bonus of $10,000 for the erection of new car shops in that place.

James Hillman, of Kittanning township, Armstrong county, captured four night owls last week.

Two young women, both married, were arrested and confined in the Reading lock-up, last week, for cruelly treating a hired horse.

The Tidoute Gas Light Company has been organized, and the capital, $30,000, all subscribed.

Huntingdon has been divided into four wards.

Why, now, is Mr. Wendell Phillips like a forgetful pastry cook? Because he wants puff? Not at all. Because he makes so much use of John Brown's piecrust? Not a bit of it.

The most gigantic of monopolies the world ever knew, the East India Company is on the eve of final dissolution.

Kittanning has measles enough to supply every family.

The Danbury News says: There was a fight between Danbury and Norfolk roosters in this place on Friday.

There is a man in New York who boasts of having had his pockets picked nearly a hundred times these last five years.

A gentleman took the following telegram to the telegraph office: "I announce with grief the death of Uncle James. Come quick to read the will. I believe we are the heirs.—John Black." The clerk having counted the words, said: "There are two words too many, sir."

Poor House Statistics.—May Belle Gaston is the name of a child born in the poor house February 27, 1873, and Margaret Euphemia Frazier, the same of one born April 22, 1873.

It is suggested that our music composers take the matter now in hand and give us a National anthem that shall be in all respect American by Centennial time.

A girl of twelve and a boy of fourteen are about to be married in Galveston, Texas.—Vegetation was never known to be farther advanced there at this season of the year.

It may be worth while for scoundrels to know, in view of the coming postal cards, that a London man was recently sentenced to pay a heavy fine and go to prison for two years, for libelling a young lady on one of three cards.

[Louisville Courier-Journal Editorial, April 7th.] Postponement of the Public Library Gift Concert.

It will be seen by the announcement in our advertising columns that the third gift concert of the Public Library of Kentucky, which was to have taken place to-day, has been postponed until July 8.

Great Britain appears to be coming to America, en masse this season. The immigration from that country has been tremendously large of late.

The Westminister Review laments "the sad truth that want of modesty and self-denial in most scientific men of the present day, and their mutual jealousies, are a blight upon the growth of science."

Common carriers are forbidden, by a bill which has passed the Illinois Senate, to evade or lessen any of their responsibility under the common law by any provisions or stipulations printed on the receipt given for the property they take in charge.

The commercial mind of Boston is supremely happy over the thought that the Hoosac tunnel approaches completion, that the consolidation of the Fitchburg, the Vermont and Massachusetts, the Boston and Lowell, and the Troy and Boston railroads is accomplished.

Robert L. Quinn, aged twenty-two years was drowned in Crum creek, Chester county on the 26th ult. It is supposed he was seized with a fit and fell into the water.

A "private detective," from New York, has been trying to come a wicked game over Mayor Smith, of Kittanning.

Announcements. COUNTY TREASURER. EDITOR DAILY RECORD.—FID BISHOP will be a Candidate for the office of COUNTY TREASURER, subject to the Republican Primary Election May 31st, 1873.

FOR SALE. A desirable residence on the Egbert farm. Good water handy. Every modern convenience. Will be sold cheap. Enquire of OWEN GAFFEY, Petroleum Centre, May 7, 1873.

FOR SALE CHEAP. Three wells all cased for sale cheap.—Two engines, two boilers, tubing, machinery and all appliances. Apply at HOWE & COOK'S, Petroleum Centre, Pa. m6-2w.

10,000 GIFTS, $500,000

ON TUESDAY, JULY, 8th, 1873, the Third Grand Gift Concert, under the management of Ex-Governor Thos. E. Bramlette, and authorized by special act of the Legislature, for the benefit of the Public Library of Kentucky, positively and unequivocally comes off in Public Library Hall, at Louisville, Ky., when 10,000 gifts, all cash amounting to $500,000, will be distributed by lot among the ticket-holders.

The corpses of a white man and a negro went over a Michigan railroad the other day and got mixed in unloading.

Statington, Pennsylvania, claims the biggest girl. The damsel is a daughter of Joel Neff, ten years of age, measures four feet seven inches in height, four feet four inches around the shoulders and weighs 139 pounds.

On Sunday next the Rev. J. H. Edward closes his duties as pastor of the Presbyterian church in Tidoute, previous to visiting Europe.

In that rich mine of poetical obituary lore, the Philadelphia Ledger, many remarkable specimens are always to be found but it is rare that we come across one which combines philosophy with resignation as the following on the death of a two-year boy:

If life was a thing that money could buy; The rich would live and the poor would die; But God has ordained it so. And we must part with our "angel Joe."

Barbara Bantz committed suicide at Cincinnati, not long ago, by banging herself, leaving the following note addressed to her husband: "I see that the best thing I can do is to make an end of my miserable existence. Thy true wife, Barbara Bantz—Farewell! I wish thee well. You spurn my faithfulness therefore quick forward."

A Vermont man has a sample of bread in his possession, which he picked up on the Plattsburg battle-ground in 1814 and which formed a part of the rations left behind by the British troops. It is quite stale.

Common carriers are forbidden, by a bill which has passed the Illinois Senate, to evade or lessen any of their responsibility under the common law by any provisions or stipulations printed on the receipt given for the property they take in charge.

The commercial mind of Boston is supremely happy over the thought that the Hoosac tunnel approaches completion, that the consolidation of the Fitchburg, the Vermont and Massachusetts, the Boston and Lowell, and the Troy and Boston railroads is accomplished.

Butler is constantly putting on city air. The high constable now arrests vagrant boys, and sells them at public outcry.

Robert L. Quinn, aged twenty-two years was drowned in Crum creek, Chester county on the 26th ult. It is supposed he was seized with a fit and fell into the water.

A "private detective," from New York, has been trying to come a wicked game over Mayor Smith, of Kittanning.

Announcements. COUNTY TREASURER. EDITOR DAILY RECORD.—FID BISHOP will be a Candidate for the office of COUNTY TREASURER, subject to the Republican Primary Election May 31st, 1873.

FOR SALE. A desirable residence on the Egbert farm. Good water handy. Every modern convenience. Will be sold cheap. Enquire of OWEN GAFFEY, Petroleum Centre, May 7, 1873.

FOR SALE CHEAP. Three wells all cased for sale cheap.—Two engines, two boilers, tubing, machinery and all appliances. Apply at HOWE & COOK'S, Petroleum Centre, Pa. m6-2w.

10,000 GIFTS, $500,000

ON TUESDAY, JULY, 8th, 1873, the Third Grand Gift Concert, under the management of Ex-Governor Thos. E. Bramlette, and authorized by special act of the Legislature, for the benefit of the Public Library of Kentucky, positively and unequivocally comes off in Public Library Hall, at Louisville, Ky., when 10,000 gifts, all cash amounting to $500,000, will be distributed by lot among the ticket-holders.

The corpses of a white man and a negro went over a Michigan railroad the other day and got mixed in unloading.

Statington, Pennsylvania, claims the biggest girl. The damsel is a daughter of Joel Neff, ten years of age, measures four feet seven inches in height, four feet four inches around the shoulders and weighs 139 pounds.

On Sunday next the Rev. J. H. Edward closes his duties as pastor of the Presbyterian church in Tidoute, previous to visiting Europe.

Local Notices. DISSOLUTION. The partnership heretofore existing between Schermerhorn & Ten Eyck is dissolved by mutual consent. S. F. SCHERMERHORN. J. A. TEN EYCK. Parties indebted to the above firm must call and settle up and save trouble. J. A. TEN EYCK. Dated Petroleum Centre, April 8, 1873. FOR SALE. One 15-horse Tift boiler in complete order, one 8-horse Wood & Mann engine and boiler in complete order, 275 feet 3 inch tubing, extra heavy, 800 feet large sucker rods, 1 Snows Pump. J. A. TEN EYCK.

BUSINESS CHANGE. W. A. Lozier, who has been engaged in the Wholesale Ale trade for the past year, has this day disposed of his entire interest in said business to the firm of Fox & Williams, who will continue the business at the old stand. Mr. Lozier desires us to return his sincere thanks to his many patrons for the liberal patronage extended to him during the past year. F. A. Phillips will act as agent for the new proprietors, and keeps a full supply of that fine Buffalo Cream Ale on hand. Mr. Lozier desires all parties indebted to him to settle at once as he wishes to have his books balanced. Dated April 24, 1873.

NOTICE! Go to W. A. LOZIER, 4th Street, near R. R. track, for your BENZINE, delivered at the wells for $2.25 per Barrel.

Grand Opening!

SPRINGGOODS CARPETS, Oil Cloths, Notions, &c., SAMUELS BROS., Washington Street, Petroleum Centre.

At present the prevailing topic of conversation appears to be "How soon are you going to move to Butler?" We desire to inform our patrons and the public at large that we do not intend to move from Petroleum Centre, but propose to "light it out on this line if it takes all summer," and would respectfully invite all to come and examine our stock of

Spring Goods! Millinery Trimmings, LACE GOODS, And a complete stock of ladies' Hats and Bonnets,

Also, a Complete Stock of BOOTS & SHOES Which will be sold

Cheaper than the Cheapest. Give us a call and examine goods and prices. SAMUELS BROS. Pet. Centre, April 19th, 1873. The Beckwith Sewing Machine, our 30 days' trial, many advantages over all. Satisfaction guaranteed or $25 refunded. Sent complete, with full directions. Beckwith Sewing Machine Co., 365 Broadway New York.