THE

TORPEDO PATENT SUITS
Roberts vs. Nicholas Geyer.

The following is the decision rendered by Judge McKennan, at May Term of the Circuit Court in the above case:

In the Circuit Court of the United States, in and for the Western District of Pennsylvania.—R. A. L. Roberts vs. Nicholas Geyer.—No. 1.—May Term 1873.—In Equity.
November 21, 1872. Bill filed and subpoena issued.

Subpoena and notice of application for preliminary injunction served.
December 13, 1872. Motion for preliminary injunction heard, and the Court being duly advised in the premises, the injunction awarded as prayed for, and decree filed.

January 14, 1873. Injunction issued, and on the 20th day of January judgment served personally and by copy.

May 22, 1873. Rule issued for defendant to show cause why attachment should not issue for contempt in violating injunction and duly served.

June 20, 1873. Rule for attachment in this case came on to be heard, and after argument of counsel pro and con, the Court being duly advised in the premises, the rule is made absolute, and the sentence of the Court is, that the said defendant, Nicholas Geyer, be imprisoned in the common jail of Allegheny County for and during the term of ten days, and that he pay the costs of this proceeding.

June 2d, 1873. Commitment issued.
The injunction in this case was for infringement of the Roberts' patent of No. — (said the Kir. Ineq.) for increasing the productivity of oil wells. The act of infringement for which the defendant was committed for contempt, consisted in using Alexander Hamer in exploding torpedoes in oil wells being the same act of infringement for which Hamer was also committed in the case No. 3, November Term, 1869, as before stated.

The Court McKennan, J. after delivering his opinion in the Hamer case, proceeded to sentence Nicholas Geyer for contempt, and delivered the following opinion:

In the case of Nicholas Geyer charged with the same offense, I am entirely satisfied that there was no fraud present in the case, and that the defendant, Nicholas Geyer, was not guilty of the same offense. The Court McKennan, J. after delivering his opinion in the Hamer case, proceeded to sentence Nicholas Geyer for contempt, and delivered the following opinion:

He also is adjudged guilty of contempt and ordered to pay the costs of this proceeding and undergo an imprisonment in the county jail for ten days. I hope it will be the last of these cases, because, if the matter comes to our notice again, we will be constrained to impose such punishment as will tend to make the decree of the Court effectual.
