THE TORPEDO PATENT SUITS.

Roberts vs. Nicholas Geyer.

The following is the decision rendered by Judge McKennan, at May Term of the Circuit Court in the above case:

In the Circuit Court of the United States, in and for the Western District of Pennsylvania.—E. A. L. Roberts vs. Nicholas Geyer.—No. 1.—May Term 1873.—In Equity.

November 21, 1872. Bill filed and subpœna issued.

[illegible] and notice of application for preliminary injunction served.

December 23, 1872. Motion for preliminary injunction heard, and the Court being duly advised in the premises the injunction awarded as prayed for, and order filed.

January 11, 1873. Injunction issued, and on the [illegible] day of January [illegible] served personally and by copy.

May 22, 1873. Rule issued for defendant to show cause why attachment should not issue for contempt in violating injunction and duly served.

June 9th 1873. Rule for attachment in this case coming on to be heard, and after argument of counsel pro and con, the Court being fully advised in the premises, the Rule is made absolute, and the sentence of the Court is, that the said defendant, Nicholas Geyer, be imprisoned in the common jail of Allegheny County for and during the term of ten days, and that he pay the costs of this proceeding.

June 23, 1873. Consultation had.

The injunction in this case was for infringement of the Roberts' patent of 1865—recited the Re Issue of 1871—for the same the plaintiff's counsel argued. The act of infringement for which the defendant was committed for contempt, consisted in using Atlantic or Pacific lubricating torpedoes [illegible] after having the same put in [illegible] Plaintiff's counsel contended that the case No. 2, [illegible] Patent 1865, was in force until [illegible] The Court Mr. Justice McKennan, J., [illegible] delivering [illegible] opinion in the [illegible] case, proceeded to [illegible] the [illegible] and delivered the following oral opinion:

[illegible] by the patent now in use of the [illegible] chemical elements of the [illegible] and keeping [illegible] whatever those [illegible] in a well, in the place of the cartridge of a torpedo, to operate a [illegible] pump. Whether it [illegible] these materials or [illegible] separately, [illegible] patent is infringed. This was exactly the case in regard to the Roberts well. [illegible] We do not see how we have been misled by Mr. [illegible] who first [illegible] that he thereby wanted to [illegible] an experiment, and I do not think the [illegible] the first time that he ought to be very severely punished.

He must be adjudged guilty of contempt and ordered to pay the costs of the proceeding and undergo an imprisonment in the county jail for ten days. I hope this will be the last of the unpleasant business [illegible] matter comes to our notice again, we will be compelled to impose such punishment as will fully [illegible] the dignity of the Court effectually.
