FIFTY CENT OIL, -To such bare figures have we come at last, and how long it will and can last is the querys

Small wells are still pumped. Twenty on the Nisgara farm doing nine barrels will serve for illustration, Large flowing wells still abound. Many are still drilling in the good territory, and all this in the face of balt-s dollar a barrel oll.

Money is tight here as well, as elsowhere, and yet, while railway enterprises are stopped, iron mills shat down and lumber and coal interests lying still, the ell business goes right slong without the failure of a single notable firm anywhere, or the failure of the laborer to get his hire.

It is something very surprising indeed, and shows what an elastic, plucky, energetto people the oil men are.

"It is a long laue that has no turn." By spring, at least, the pressure will be off and everything will be lively.

A' Plumer correspondent writes: We nor tice one of our citizens has started a new stage time between this point and Ryod farm. The outfit consists of one horse, a bran new barness, and a small sized lumber wagon. Undonbiedly if he would est tablish a line to Petroleum Ceutre it would pay, provided there was a few school marms at the Centre for transportation to our classical village.

H. Culbertson, Esq., one of our oldest and most respected citizens, bas just returned from a trip through the lower oil field. Re ports business lively.

On Wedne-day, October 8th, a grand grand pigeon shooting tournament will be given by the Meadville Sportsmen's Cinb. at Madville. Five valuable prizes will be swarded to the best shots. The entrance tee is $5. Birds, 25 cents each, Professions is are barred.

Two or three of our amateur shots, we understand, have entered the lists for the ptises."

The Milwaukee Chamber of Commerce has adjourned until Saturday to enable buy ers of wheat to get currency to pay for it, and also to all w the members to make signs towards our great financial system.

Forty employes on the Merris & Essex Railroad at Heboken, have been discharged and about 150 at other places, because of the impossibility to obtain currency to pay them. Of course all these men are loud in their praise of our great financial policy.

The extensive iron works of Reis, Brown & Burger, New Castle, suspended work on Tuesday, throwing about 800 men out of employment. An inspiration on a rural tablet recently put up is a rural church is amusing. It ende:

"He was neglected by his door; Treated orusi by his nurse, His brother robbed his widow;

That makes the matter worse." A youth who goes out chestnutting is

The change of grade on the Grand Trunk Road, Canada, was completed Saturday over the entire line, and trains will resume their regular trips Monday.

A wrestling match for fun, occurred in one of the back yards on Washington street last night. The principal point seemed to be, which of the contestants could first strip the other. They were both in search of new shirts this morning. They wanted this kept still, and so we request everybody not to say anything about it.

Cochranton drinkists have a hard time in consequence of the inauguration of local opr tion, which pecessitates drinking to much

Gold and red and purple leaves Fintter down the wind: With the snow of thistle down

All the innes are lined. Clear and keenly blue the sky, Hurrying birds are flying high, Singlog: "Summer, sweet, good/by! Summer, sweet, good-by!"

Sheaves are nodding in the sno. As if passed atong,

In a gay, fantastic rout, Summer's fairy throng,

When the fading willow swings, Where the nest deserted, clings, Listen to the brook, that sings: "Summer, sweet, goood-by !"

Woodlands whisper sed farewells; Squirrels frisk and spring; Patter, patter, rain and nuts,

For their barvesting. Flocks of merry birds go by,

Neath the heart's enclouded sky, Hopeful, trustful, while we sigh; "Summer, sweet, good-by!"

A discovery is alleged to have been made by a member of the Paris Academy of Seience, which, if true, may be of importance to ballonists. The discovery is, that hydrogen, hitherto considered an element, is in reality a combination of two elements, one of which is nine times as light as hydrogen. and twenty-five times as light as ordinary illuminating gas. The new element is called abaron-meaning weightless. It will not burn, extinguishes flams, is without odor, taste or color.

A Hungarian humanitarian, whose wife was dying very painfully and portracedly from the effects of an accidental dose of corrosive poison, considerately put an end to her suff-rings with a pistol ball, for which merciful act he was mistakenly tried on a charge of murder; but his sentence has been commuted on account of the benevolence of his motive.

Who would not sympathize with the unfortupate and probably gook-looking young man who boarded in Milford, Mass. He was doing well when the bilght about to be der scribed tell upon his existence. His indiady (medium aged) suddenly developed a par sion for following him into the entry and kissing him before he went out. It was a motherly thing to do, but the young man couldn't bear it. Perhaps the other boardersjoked him about it, perhaps his beart was another's; but, at any rate, that young man packed his trunk gave up his situation and left towa. Young men have been known to affect a tender passion for the landlady but mostly these were youths who had no "situation" to leave.

PROPHECIES. BY B. E. E.

A sunlit sky and a sunlit earth,

Blue hills and a bluer river, Cool forest depths where the springs have birth. Green lields where the grasses quiver,

- A fair bright future without and with in,
- Giad hope to my heart is singing For a golden thread do the Pharca epia
- When they bear- a red/breast sing! A weeping sky and a mourning earth,
- Bleak hills and a bleaker river. Dark forest wilds where the storms bave
- birth. Brown fields where the dead leaves shiver.
- A dim gray tuture within and withont, Dread fear in my heart is suging,
- For in the gold dawn when faith is doubt
- I heard-a whip/poor/will singlog!
- A blood/bought earth without blemish cr spot.
- A crystal life throbbing river, Green pastures of rest where "the reen cometh not,
- Joy endless-lor God is the river! A future uncoding, beyond and above, Sweet Faith to my heart is bringing,
- For sunrise hath come with light and with love;
