The Stokes murder case in New York City has coded with the large of finding the prisoner guitty of manslaughter in the third degree and a sentence to the pent entiary for four years. The Judge, in giving the sentence, told the prisoner that he was sore ry that the law compelled him to pass this light sentence upon his guilty head, words that ought long to be remembered by the jury who could bring in such a verdict -There was just two sides to the Stokes case, He either committed the deed in self des fence and was not guilty, or he committed a most foul and flendish murder. Any other verdict was a farce and well the judge felt it when he said that he was sorry the law competled him to give the sentence be did. Jack Reynolds, once after he had committed a foul murder, not so bold and public as the Stokes affair, made himself obnoxious and notorious after he was arrested by declaring to his friends that "Hang/ ing for murder was played out in New York City." This so enraged all New York, both judges, lawyers and jurors, that to give the lie to this stigms cast upon the city they hang the poor devil within sixty days, in order to show the outside heathen what a slander be had uttered upon the fair tame of the city. If he had added that if the man was rich or had rich relatives, in that kind of a case banging was played out in New York City, he would have been right. Poor Foster, who in a drunken fit and without a moment's thought, struck Avery Putnam with a car book from which he died, was tried, convicted and bung with railroad haste. No influence could save bim, not even the prayers of his wife and children. backed by the petition of the murdered man's wife, asking for a commutation of his sentence to imprisonment for life, was of any avail. He had no money to work the jury and had to hang in order that "travel would be more safe in New York City."-Had poor Foster been one of those kind of murderers like Stokes, who would leave his wife and child standing at the gate while he went and murdered a man, who, as Henry Ward Beecher said of Fisk in a late sermon, "was a benefactor and useful man an with his sterling business qualities f had made the bread, clothed the body and gave business position to the man that had murdered him, a d who was his peer in everything pertaining to manhood, and that murder too committed in the interest of a notorious harlot, he too would be living to bask in her kind of sunshine. Let bim be pardoned now and give a state dinner with Mansfield at one end of the table, he at the other, with the jury up and down each side, and the table garnished with "thirty pleces of silver," since there is no doubt that was the price paid for such a verdict.

Shall We Meet Again?

Of the many brilliant articles that iminated from the pen of the lamented Geo. D. Prentice, we believe the following contains one of the finest pictures of human nature ever written: "The fiat of nature is inexorable: there is no appeal for relief from the law which dooms us to the dust. We flourish and Isde as the leaves of the forest; and the leaves that bloom and wnither in a day, have no traiter hold udon life than the might est monarch that ever shook the earth with his tootsteps. Generations of men will apperand disappear as the grass and the muititude that throng the world torday will disr appear as the footsteps on the store. Men seldom think of the great event of death until the shadows fall across their own path way, hiding from their eyes the faces of loved ones, whose living smile was the suntagonist of life and the cold thought of the tomb is the skeleton of all feasts. We do not want to go through the dark valley, at though its dark passage may lead to Paradier; we do not want to lay down in the damp grave even with the princes as bed, fellows. In the bentiful drama "lon," the hope of immortality so elegantly uttered by the death-devoted Greek fluis deep response in every thoughtful soul. When about to yield his young existence as a sicrifice to fate, his Clemantha asks if they should meet again, to which he replies :-I have asked that dreadful question of the hills that look eternal; of the clear streams that flow torever; of the stars, among whose field of azure my raised spirit has walked in glory-all were dumb; but as I gazed upon thy living face, I felt that there is some, thing in the love that matties through its beauty that caunot wholly perish; we shall meet again, Cemantha!"

The following appeal for aid for the Memphis sufferers by that fearful scourge, the reliew fever, was received by Mr. James Deshier, cashier of Geo. H. Bissel, & Co.'s bank. Mr. D. requests us] to inform the public that he will receive and forward all monies left at the bank for this most charitable purpose. The appeal comes from suffering humanity for aid and we hope our citizens will respond liberally:

STATE NATIONAL BANK, MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 23, 1878.

DEAR SIR; The Howard Association of this city to day issues the tollowing appeal to those sympathizing with suffering humanity eve erywhere, viz:

> APPEAL FOR AID. ' OFFICE HOWARD ASSOCIATION, No. 42 Madison Street,

MEMPHIS. Tenn., October 22d, 1873.

The yellow fever is not abating, and God only knows when it will. Scores of new cases uppear dally. Over one thousand are now sick. Our funds will not pay our expenses six days. From the sick and dy ing the cry of distress and suffering comes steadily and loud. For their sake send us moneyed relief to procure nurses, stimulents and nourishment. We require more now than ever.

Being fully acquainted with the condition of the sick, and their wants, we confirm the statement of the Association.

We will be pleased to be the medium of transmitting any donations that you and friends may make for the purposes named.

Respectfully, JNO. J. FREEMAN, Cashier,

CARBON Off. Co. - We are happy to learn hat the failure of Messrs. Parsons Bros., of Poronto, has not affected the Ontario Carbon Oil Co. This company has however been obliged to shut down for a time their refineries at Hamilton and Petrolfa, in cone sequence of the present depressed state of cents per gallon during the past year. The amount of refined oil shipped by this company in case from Hamilton was equal to 2000 barrels per week, and as they produced their own crude oil, as well as refined it. the result has been a depression in the value of their business to the extent of $4,50 per barrel representing a sum of $9000 per week, or $35,000 per month. In consequence of this unfortunate state of affairs they have been compelled to ask for an extension of time from some of their heaviest creditors. 'The crude oil departs ment will however be carried on as usual under the able management of our enter, prising townsman J. D. Noble, Esq. - [Petr rolla Advertiser.

Taking into consideration the dullness of the times and the low price of oil, not speaking of the scarcity of money, I have concluded to reduce the price of BENZINE delivered at the wells to $1,00 per barrel. My motto is live and let live. Pay me a call before going elsewhere and I will satisfy you as to quality and better position, when experience may prove price of Benzine. ### PATRONAGE; THAT PAYS.

That noble institution, the Public Librar ry of Kontucky, has permanetally establish ed its prosperity by the three gift concerts it has already given under its charter. now boasts of a building that cost $210,000, with a Library of over 50,000 volumes, and a magnificent cabinet. The fourth grand gift concert for its further endowment will take place December 31, and at this concert $1,500,000 cash is distributed to the ticket holders, the highest prize being $250,000. and scaling down to prizes of $50, which is the smallest sum given. At there is a prize to every fifth ticket, it is casy to see that the patronage of this concert is a patronage that pays, there being great chan ces of great gains, and only small chances of small tosses. Hon. Thos. E Bram'ette, late Governor of Kentucky, is the manager, and tickets and information may be obe tained by addressing him, at Public Librar ry Building, Louisville, Ky.

WEEKLY OIL REPORT.

There is not being anything in the way of "big strikes" at present, conversation is mostly turned to the suspension of the Carbon Oil Company. Speculation is indulged in as to the cause of the failure of a company that was generally supposed to be able to dictate the situation, no matter what beleft "lame ducks" Superior many agement wont always bridge over difficultice, and overcome the presures of a depressel market. The present season has witnessed the suspension of many manufacture ing companies supposed to be above reprosch. No doubt a little time will again see most of the suspended companies in s advantageous.

Confiderable activity prevails upon the Durham creek territory. The new Laneas ter well, between the old Shepherd well and Perkins & Cooley well, south of ravine, is being tested with liberal yield. Mr. L.'s perseverance deserves success, and it is toped he has secured it. Upon the side of the Litt, Mesers. Collier & Woodward are busy drilling their new venture. A little o the south Mr. Sasson has secured two scres of the Murray territory, and is pres pairing a rig for another venture. In the ravine the McDougail well is being tested, but as yet is troubled with fresh water. To the north of the ravine the new Lancey well is down 460 feet, and will soon be test/ ed. The second well of Mesers. W. H. & J. McGarvey, west of the celebrated Murray well, is improving. Messrs. Vantuyt, Yorks, & Ben Smith, *are preparing for well upon the bill, south of the Ingersoll wells. Messrs. Perkins, Cooley & Gleeson propose putting down another well upon the five acres belonging to their first well .-Mr. McDonald is getting ready for a lourth weil a little nor' west of his No. 2. Western Co. well No 5 has been to pedoed and considerably improved.

The "Great Eastern" well of Messra. Perkins & Cooley, upon lot 19 in the 11th, east of the village, is down 350, and lovora bly progressing.

Mesere. Stem, Peat, Jobnson & Gurd. have their rig up opposite Marthaville School House, and Messes. Ward & Lambe are progressing upon the Lambe territory. Mesers, Peat, Job son & Gord are busy with a new venture a little to the eight of Mr Drader's "Great Nor-western " Mr. Callanan is preparing for another well upon his property. The new venture of Messes. McCaughey & Wood, upon lot 2 in the lim, is under way.

A good deal of attention is given just now tofice application of gas pumpergreat success is stated to have resulted from the trial in some cases. Quite a number of tar bathers are at present in use: Mr Juo Anderson has one attached to the large botler of Jones & Ribighins, King territory, that gives satisf taction. The tar is bested by steam in an fron tank, run to the fire box, and an air pipe appears to reader good service. Mr A is experimenting upon locomotives at St. Thomas with the expectation of introducing his burners for tar or oil to be substituted for wood or coal. This, certainly, would be a great advantage to the oil business, if not to the railroads.-[Petrolia Ontarto Advertiser.

REDUCTION IN THE PRICE OF COAL .- The Pataburgh Commercial of Saturday says: "We understand that, in view of the financial pressure, the decline in Iron, the talling off in demand for coal and the general reduction of wages, the coal operators propose to reduce the price for mining, and to make a corresponding reduction in the price of coal to consumers." Consumers will not growl at the prospect of reduction. Everybody is ready for cheap coal as well as cheap oit. Let it come. The Herald says, save one contribution of fitty dullars from a secret a ville has done nothing for the relief Drinking water in Modoc City is very scarce and is sold at forty cents a barrel .-As a consequence [very little oil is used with Modoc wniskey.

Shreveport and Memphis.

Some men in Piensantvitle were firing a a mark on Saturday last, when one bulle went through the wat is of a cooper shop near by, and struck a man in the breast .-Luckily the force was nearly spent in passlag through the walls and the builet was turned aside by the breast bone, and made but a slight wound. Shooting accidents nevet will cease to happen until peneities are affixed to them by law.
