Petroleum Centre looks very quiet. Traveling troupes seldom stop bere. The bill boards are used by Messre. Sheriff, Constable & Co., for their day entertainment.

The above notice we clip from the Titusville Herald of Saturday morning, written by Uncle William, in his notes from that city to Irvineton.

We are quiet, but does that excuse the fact of Titusville's fate. Let Unele Will liam give us a few notes about his own place, its deserted streets, its faded and worn appearance, or as a recent visitor to that village expressed bimself-

"I feel like one who treads alone Some banquet ball deserted, Whose lights have fled, Whose garlands dead. And all but he (Uncle William) der parted."

The sheriff using the bill boards. That is good coming from a citizen and paper of Titusville, whose bill boards, fences and houses are literally covered with sheriffs' sales, and whose citizens, if reports are true, are distressed far greater than those of their neighbors to get the wherewith to make ends meet.

Traveling troupes "seldom stop here."-If Uncle William means theatrical troupes, we say thank the stars that they keep away from us as it leaves that much more money with us to pull through the bard times, that Titusville does not feel (?).

We have had some troupes here this sum mer and fail, and without an exception, they have had better bouses here and received more money than they took in at Titusville, with half the expense. In fact what they took in here had to help make what they were out of pocket at the city of huge pretensions—at least we have the ipee dixit of their agents for saying so.

Possibly Uncle William has no reference to theatrical troupes, but to those troupes of well dressed snobs, whose clothes were unpaid for, that used to stop off here from Titusville, and visit the "buzzing kens," the dance bouses and dead falls at the up- used on the Cherrytree Run division of the per end of Washington street, and although we do not miss them, they seldom stop bere now, for that part of the Centre looks quiet the denizens having as a general thing moved to Titueville in order to save the "troupes" the expense of coming down .-Did Uncle William ever belong to this troupe. Au revoir, William.

Stoddart played to a small house on Sate orday evening. It was one of the heat theatrical entertainments ever performed at the Opera House,-Courier. How is that, William?

A large force of workmen are engaged in laying a pipe line from Titusville to Oil City. The line is an extension of the Pennsylvania Transportation Company's line, and is to connect at Oil City with the Vandergrift & Forman line to the Butler oil fields. The pire takes the line of the Warren & Venango Railroad, and the pipe is nearly completed from Titusville to this

A man named Foster was arrested in this city on Saturday, on suspicion of his being the murderer of Williams, who was shot near Oil City last Friday. He was seen to start away with the colored man, but could dullness of the times and the not be found after the body had been discovered. Detective Tom Furlong, of O 1 City, suspecting foul play, started in search of him. He was traced to Petroleum Cenz tre, where he had sold William's gun, which he had changed for his own. From there be came to Titusville where he was found and arrested. A number of articles were in his possession which were identified as belonging to the murdered man, and are live. Pay me a call before strong, circumstantical evidence against him. The prisoner was sent to Oil City to await trial .- [Titusville Herald.

The prisoner's right name is Charles Lar, ribee, his step father being named Foster, a well known resident of Funkville and Pior neer. Larribee is well known here as a bard customer. The examination is not concluded as yet. The testimony so far is of a damaging nature to Larribee.

Judging from a view worch we nad last night, we should think that "rheumatism in the hair" would be the prevailing disc ease to-day. Semebody evidenity thought he had got into the wrong house, and it took a heap of argument to convince him to the contrary. And then again somebody wanted to get into the house, and we should judge he went in by the window. People who went to bed early woke up and though a mass meeting was being held on the side walk. It alo't often the prodigal returns we know, but don't get too enthusiastic; don't get out on the street to discuss probe iems of polical economy in the night; don't tear folk's clothes; shove all don't throw your tora clothes away till you have emptied the pockets, and don't let your party get scattered so that you have to ca for them so loud.

TOOK NOTIS

Taking into consideration the low price of oil, not speaking of the scarcity of money, I have concluded to reduce the price of BENZINE delivered at the wells to $1,00 per barrel. My motto is live and let going elsewhere and I will satisfy you as to quality and price of Benzine. Old stand

The production of the Modoc territory is 200 barrels more this week than last -Captain Grace struck a good well on Starr Farm, flowing 500 barrels. Avery & Brawtey struck a flowing well on John Starr farm, doing 200 barrels. The Lambing well on Rankin farm, near Raiston mill, which has had the hole plugged for the past nine months was cleaned out this week and water reduced to 500 feet. She come menced flowing 200 barrels per day. Black Hawk well was torpedoed last Tuesday, and commenced pumping on Friday night. It may make a good pumping well. Spot ted Tail well was torpedoed on Wednesday, which did not improve it much. J. Miller. owner of the Poquoit well, on Troutman Farm, has been torpedoed and is now flow, ing 175 barrels. The basin here is being rapidly exhausted, but the market is dull.

Robbing the jall and escaping is one of the novelties indulged in by Bucks county convicts. On Friday evening a prisoner named James Buchanan, serving out a sentence for larceny, made up his mind to der camp, and before doing so secured a num/ ber of silver napkin rings belonging to the Sheriff's family. He then made his escape, and the officials have been moable to find any trace of him. It was only a week ago that another convict escaped by jumping over the wali. Bucks county can boast of a model jail building.

Says the Lancaster Express: On last Friday while a number of workmen were engaged in the work of removing an out building on the premises of Mr. Stebman of the firm of Stoner & Stehman, in Wash. ington borough, this county, they unearth ed the remains of an Indian chief. The skull was well preserved, and bore upon it an iron cap, closely fitted, and mane of bammered iron, as though an imported article. The workmen wiso discovered a bow and arrows, tom shawk, & , all excels lently preserved.

The editor of the Petersburg Progress bas been paying a visit to Antwerp City and gives his experience as follows:

Again have we visited Antwerp, and again have we beheld the spot where in years gone by was located "ye noble city, by ye noble grand, Marcus Hutlings. After the manner of pious travellers in Palestine; naught remains of former grandeur of this once noble city, the scene of so many hier toric incidents, save the ruins of massive buildings, whose heary age impresses one with teelings of awe. There is an air of desolation, a sadness that pervades the dreary prospect. Ascending Mount Bagnio we obtain a panoramic view of the adjacent country. Here and there in the distance we discry a miscrable hovel built among the ruins of the city, and a few wretebed inhabitants gathering B S. in tin cups. Railroad track on Fourth yellow dogs with their ears ent off, and tin cans to their tails prowling about. Doves. more soiled than that which Noah liberated the Ark, hover at times over the city of their former congregation, while hostile saloon keepers have converted their spacious gardens into cock-pits. We again enter the city, and observe one or two deer cendants of noted chiefs selling nicknacks. Our heart fails us when we attempt to describe the suffering, the distress, the wars, the beer bottle fights, the thefts, and genaral demoralization which has since time immorial been consumating the destruction of this historic city, and we sadly return by way of the half-way house, to civilzation.

WHICH?

Carled to our attention, a few days since was a very curious fact, and one too, on weich much information can be vouchsafed if those interested were so disposed -The question is this: "How is it that a few months ago there was a cry of over-production, with no tankage at all, while at the present writing there is the same cry that the daily production is in excess of the de/ mand, and yet no one thinks of saying that there is not double the tankage necessary for all the oil pronduced? Why is it that when 23000 barrels of oil per diem filled all the tanks in the county, that 39,000 barrels the amount stated by so-called reporters, does not inconvenience any one? While no one asserts that there has been a partir cle more tankage erected than has been taken down?"

Again we are asked: "Are not the diff. ferent Pipe Lines concentrating their energies to bear the markets? Have they not been buying indirectly, immense quantities of oil at 65 and 80 cis. net. and filling con/ tracts made at $2,00 and $3,00? Have they not used all their influence to crush the producers under their feet, and then manipulate them at their pleasure?"-Again: "Are not the Pipe Lines dire tly responsible for the wretched condition of the producers?"

Upon these questions we propose to allow or readers to form their own opinion, to draw their own conclusions, from wost intermation they may have, but at a future time we will express our own views of the matter .- [Petersburg Progress.
