OBITUARY.

IN MEMORY OF THE LATE JOSEPH B. SHEWELL.

The affectionate husband, the tender father, the pure brother, the sincere friend, has passed from earth; "the silver cord is loosed, the golden bowl is broken," and the friend whom we have known for so many years, has left us. We who knew his sterling character and worth, his modest and unassuming demeanor, his stern and unbending integrity, his genial and social disposition, his kind, generous and charitable nature; can truly say that we mourn his departure. "Our loss, however, is his gain;" he has passed; we trust, from the scenes of earth to those of Heaven; now walks the golden streets of the Heavenly Jerusalem, and has heard the joyful summons, "Well done thou good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord." The fond hope, which we cherish and which points to his grave, the rainbow of promise, is that we may be permitted to greet him in those Heavenly mansions beyond the skies,

"Where the saints of all ages in harmony meet,
Their Saviour and brethren transported to greet,
While the anthems of rapture unceasingly roll,
And the smile of the Lord, is the feast of the soul."

A general meeting of the Collectors will be held on WEDNESDAY EVENING, 3d inst., at 8 o'clock, at S. E. corner of Twentieth and Coates streets.

G. A. HOFFMAN,
1t Secretary.

A MEETING OF THE CITIZENS OF THE SEVENTH WARD, was held at NEILL'S HALL, LOMBARD street, below Broad, on MONDAY, F'b. 1, 1864, at 8 P. M.

On motion, WILLIAM D. LEWIS was called to the chair, and JOHN F. CABOT appointed Secretary.

A recommendation of the General Committee that the Ward should conform to the suggestion made by the general convention of the officers of the Ward Bounty Funds that a uniform Ward Bounty of FIFTY DOLLARS should be paid to each recruit was read.

On motion of William P. Hacker, the resolution adopted at the Ward meeting held January 18, 1864, offering a bounty of one hundred dollars was reconsidered, and on motion of Col. William Bradford, the following preambls and Resolution were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, Much confusion and inconvenience have been caused by the various Wards having offered different sums as bounties to recruits to be credited to them under the late call of the President; and

And whereas, At a General Convention of the officers of the Ward Bounty Funds, held on the 27th ult., a Resolution was unanimously adopted, recommending that a uniform Bounty of FIFTY DOLLARS shall be paid by each Ward to every Recruit who shall be mustered into the United States service, and duly credited to the said Ward, and that meetings should be called of the citizens of such Wards as had proposed to pay more than FIFTY DOLLARS, to take action on said Resolution, in pursuance whereof the present meeting has been convened; therefore be it, and it is hereby

Resolved, That this Ward will conform in its action to the foregoing recommendation, and that the sum to be paid to each Recruit credited to the Seventh Ward, in addition to the Government and City Bounties, shall be FIFTY DOLLARS, payable under such regulations as the General Committee shall prescribe.

On motion, it was

Resolved, That the officers of this meeting, and Colonel WM. BRADFORD, be appointed to represent the Seventh Ward at the meetings of the General Convention of the Ward Bounty Funds.

On motion, adjourned.

WILLIAM D. LEWIS, Chairman.

PERSONAL.

A Court of Inquiry is in session in Washington to investigate the case of Colonel A. A. Gibson, of the 2d Pennsylvania Heavy Artillery, who is charged with refusing to accept a flag presented to his regiment by the State of Pennsylvania—speaking disparagingly of the troops from that State and maltreating recruits for his regiment. The Colonel refused to accept the State flag for the reason that his regiment "was not fighting for the State of Pennsylvania but for the United States." The court is composed as follows: Brigadier-General Le Russey, President; Captain Chandler, of General Harkins's staff, Recorder; Colonel Abbott, 1st Regiment Volunteers; Colonel Welling, 9th New York Volunteers.

On Friday the Banks Club, of Boston, celebrated the 45th birthday of Major-General Banks.

The leading citizens of Bath, N. Y., gave a dinner in honor of Brigadier General W. W. Averill, on the 28th ult. General Averill is a native of Steuben county, and for a long time a resident of Bath.

Brigadier-General Getty has been appointed Inspector-General on General Meade's staff.

Brigadier-General Lockwood, commanding 8th Army Corps, arrived in Cumberland, Md., on Thursday last, and Major-General Robert H. Milroy and Brigadier-General Scammon are also there.

E. F. Keach, Manager of the Boston Museum, died at Charlestown, Mass., a day or two since, of paralysis of the brain and consumption.

John W. Andrews, who figured so prominently in the New York riots, has been remanded to Fort Lafayette.

Mr. Samuel T. Williams, of the firm of Searle & Williams, a well-known merchant of New York, expired on last Sunday morning. Mr. Williams was distinguished in church and artistic as well as in commercial circles.

AMUSEMENTS.

SIGNOR BLITZ—To out Herod all former Herods of magicians, ventriloquists and humorists, seems to be the special province of Signor Blitz, and to render all man, woman and child-kind happy, appears to be his great mission. In this excellent work the merry Signor is greatly assisted by his good lieutenants Bobby and the birds, and the Temple of Wonders, corner of Tenth and Chestnut streets, is an established success. The Signor performs nightly, and upon every Wednesday and Saturday afternoon.

THE CHESTNUT.—To-night "The Veteran" will be given for the last time.

THE WALNUT.—"East Lynne" is the attraction here to-night.

THE ARCH.—"Little Barefoot," an exquisitely charming piece, will be given to-night, with Charlotte Thompson as the heroine, supported by Hill and Robeon; a favorite farce will close the entertainment.

IRISH MOSS has been found growing abundantly on the rocks along the beach in Scituate, Mass., and about three thousand barrels are gathered annually. It is worth, at first hands, from five to six dollars per barrel. The Portland (Me.) Advertiser says "the same moss may be found in abundance on Cape Elizabeth, the islands, and, we presume, all along our coast."

COLLEGE WAR.—The Rochester Democrat says a difficulty has occurred at the Genesee College, Lima, N. Y., between the Faculty and the students. Eighty of the latter have been suspended from recitations, on account of some alleged violation of the college rules. The students insist that they are in the right and refuse to ask pardon of the Faculty. At last accounts the difficulty remained unsettled.

OFFICERS OF COLORED REGIMENTS.—General Casey's Board has examined during the past week sixty-two applicants, twenty-seven of whom were passed, including one Lieutenant-Colonel, five Captains, and twenty-one Lieutenants.

THE RUMORED SURMISSION OF THE SOUTH

[From the Baltimore American of last evening.]

We received this morning from a fugitive from Richmond, just arrived at Washington, the following note, which we lay before our readers without vouching for the reliability of the statement it contains. The author signs his name, but at his request we omit it:

WASHINGTON, D. C., January 31, 1864.—Messrs. Editors Baltimore American.—DEAR SIRS—I hasten to say to you that I knew of my own knowledge, before leaving Richmond, that the rebel authorities are taking steps to propose to the Federal Government to lay down their arms, provided the President's Amnesty be extended to their leaders. Let this be known in the South and the rebellion is at an end. You are at liberty to make any use of this you may think proper; but please do not publish my name at present, for obvious reasons. I am writing out a statement to-day for the Government.

Truly, yours,
of Richmond.

FROM THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

[Correspondence of the N. Y. Tribune.]

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, Jan. 31, 1864.—On the statements of a contraband who came into our lines on Thursday last, that the rebel General Stuart's cavalry were concentrated on the western slope of Thoroughfare Mountain, a reconnoitring party from Merritt's cavalry was immediately despatched to ascertain the truth of the report. The party returned the same evening, having explored the mountain without finding any trace of Stuart or his troopers.

There is a rumor in circulation that our videttes picketing Cedar Mountain recently saw a force of rebel cavalry engaged in constructing two bridges across the Rapidan, but nothing definite has been received at the headquarters of the cavalry corps.

Three men on picket duty a few days since were captured by a party of rebels who were reconnoitering.

Surgeon Chas. O. Leay, of the 6th Corps, was relieved a few days since, and assigned to duty under Major-Gen. Couch. Dr. S. A. Holman, formerly Surgeon-in-Chief of Gen. Perry's division, succeeds him as Medical Director of the corps. Brigadier-Gen. Wright, of the 6th Corps, was called to Washington, day before yesterday, on special duty. Brigadier-Gen. Russell commands the division during his absence.

ADVANCE OF THE ENEMY IN WESTERN VIRGINIA.

[Correspondence of the New York Herald.]

HEADQUARTERS, DEPARTMENT OF WESTERN VIRGINIA, Feb. 1.—Considerable excitement prevailed along the line of the railroad to-day, occasioned more by precautionary movements than anything else.

Yesterday morning a portion of a rebel brigade that had been sent over into New Creek Valley for the purpose of intercepting one of our moving columns came upon the rear of Colonel Thoburn's command, whereupon skirmishing ensued between the two forces. Our men finally drove the rebels back. This afternoon the enemy again advanced, and this time occupied Burlington. Brisk skirmishing was going on at different times during the day.

Much confidence is felt in General Kelley's ability to defeat the enemy's designs. Up to this time everything is favorable to the interests of our side.

REV. S. HANSON COX'S LECTURES.—The lovers of Poetry were greatly amused and their refined and classic ears gratified by Rev. Doctor Cox's great lecture, at the Hall of the University, last evening. He repeated Shakspeare admirably. Upon epigrams and epitaphs he was peculiarly happy. One story of the minister who visited the New England church yard where all the saints and none of the sinners were buried, was worth more than the price of the lecture. By the way, we had heard a similar story, but we never before heard the scene laid in New England; but it made a splendid Yankee tale; the stranger being allowed to write a verse upon the gate, as others had done, wrote—

"Here lie the dead;
And here the living lie."

The weak, foolish and imbecile Kings of England received merited rebuke. We are unable to give the Lecture, unless we could print the looks, gestures, tones and movements of the orator. We would like to do by this Lecture as Whitefield told some who wanted to print one of his sermons—"the, might do it if they would print the thunder that rolled and the lightning that flashed during its delivery from the clouds;" for, it was preached during a thunder storm. So, we would like to see all these printed. The next Lecture will be this evening, at the same Hall, at 8 o'clock. All will be there.

POLICE OFFICER ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.—Alexander Long, a police officer of the Sixteenth District, shot himself accidentally last evening, about eight o'clock. He was sitting upon the edge of a table at a cake stand on Market street, above Thirteenth, engaged in conversation. He drew his handkerchief suddenly from his pocket, and in doing so a revolver which was in the pocket was discharged. The ball entered the left side of Mr. Long, to the depth of about three inches and, then took a sudden turn. It has not yet been abstracted. The wound of Mr. Long is dangerous, and but little hopes of his recovery are entertained. The injured man was conveyed to his home on Thirty-seventh street, below Market. He has a wife and two children.

THE MÆNNERCHOR BALL.—The fancy dress ball of the Mænnerchor Society came off last evening at the Academy of Music. The attendance was very good. There was a great variety of dresses among the gentlemen, but the ladies generally confined themselves to their ordinary style of dress. The Academy presented a brilliant scene however, and everything passed off with great eclat. The fine band and orchestra was under the direction of Mr. Adolph Birgfeld, and one other feature of the evening was the performance of the beautiful galop from the opera of "Faust."

SUSPICION OF ROBBERY.—Wm. J. Marland was arrested last evening upon suspicion of having robbed the house of Patrick Lahey, in the vicinity of Seventeenth and Fitzwater streets, of two watches and a revolver, on the 29th of November last. He was taken before Alderman Dallas and was committed to answer.

BUSINESS CHANGE.—We notice by our advertising columns, that Mr. Benjamin Thackara, has become a partner in the firm of Warner, Miskey & Merrill. Any of our citizens, and especially any of the Ladies, who have visited the Sale Rooms of Cornelius & Baker, during the last twenty years, could not fail to recognize the pleasing address, gentlemanly and business-like deportment of Mr. Thackara. He has now established himself in business, on his own account, and we cordially commend him to the favor of his friends and an appreciating public.

FUNERAL OF MR. SHEWELL.—The funeral of Mr. Joseph B. Shewell took place yesterday afternoon from his late residence on Rittenhouse street, in Germantown. Among those present were many of the members of the Corn Exchange, the members of the Grand Lodge, A. Y. M., also of Concordia Lodge, Excelsior Mark Lodge, Columbia H. R. A. Chapter, No. 91, and a very large number of personal friends. The deceased was universally esteemed and respected.

CANDLEMAS DAY.—To-day is the Feast of the Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary. This is the day on which is celebrated the presentation of Jesus in the Temple, by the Virgin, His mother. It was celebrated originally by the exhibition of a profusion of lights, in allusion to the exclamation of Simeon, when the infant Saviour was presented in the Temple—"a light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of Thy people Israel." And so this Feast came to be Candle-mas Day.

CHARGED WITH ROBBERY.—Two men named Francis Smith and Robert Livingston, were before Alderman Beitler, this morning, on the charge of having in November last stolen a sable fur cape from the store of Mr. Edward S. Mason, No. 706 Arch street. They were held to bail in $1,500 each to answer at Court.

BOLD ROBBERY.—John Wilkeson was arraigned this morning before Alderman Dallas, upon the charge of the larceny of a horse. It is alleged that he went into the stable of Michl. Guiness, at Broad and Reed streets, b
