State need arousing, and the spirit of volunteering needs a stimulus. We are not sure that a rebel raid into Pennsylvania will not do more towards filling up our quota of troops than anything else.

SENATOR HARRY WHITE. The letter of Major Harry White, resigning his seat in the Senate of Pennsylvania, which has just been made public, is one to gladden the heart of every loyal man.

OUR VETERANS. The unanimity with which the veterans of the Union service are re-enlisting, must be disheartening in the extreme to the traitors and their sympathizing friends.
