The committee would remark for the information of the Philadelphia public, who have enabled this committee to more than redeem its pledge to the War Department, ("to defray extraordinary expenses attending recruiting of three colored regiments for the war,") that the movement has been one of marked success, and the recruiting the most economical that has been accomplished during the war. The expense of recruiting the 54th and 55th Massachusetts colored regiments was over $30,000 per regiment, but after careful consideration of the whole subject the Supervisory Committee thought it could raise the three regiments promised the War Department at $10,000 per regiment. It has collected $33,388, (above mentioned) and on the 26th day of June, 1863, sent the first squad of eighty men to Camp William Penn.

On the 24th July, 1863, the First (3d U.S.) regiment was full.

On the 13th Sept. 1863, the Second (6th U.S.) regiment was full.

On the 4th Dec. 1863, the Third (8th U.S.) regiment was full.

On the 6th Jan., 1864, the Fourth (22d U.S.) regiment was full.

On the 3d Feb., 1864, the Fifth (25th U.S.) regiment lacks but a few of being full.

August 13th, 1863, the 3d U. S. regiment left Camp William Penn, and was in front of Fort Wagner when it surrendered.

Oct 14th, 1863, the 6th U. S. regiment left for Yorktown.

Jan. 16th, 1864, the 8th U.S. regiment left for Hilton Head.

The 22d and 25th regiments are now at Camp Wm. Penn, waiting orders from the Government.

Thus the Committee have raised five regiments with the fund estimated as necessary to organize three. It has also recently opened a Free Military School at its headquarters, 1210 Chestnut Street, under the care of John H. Taggart, late Colonel of the 12th regiment Pennsylvania Reserves and has at this time 161 scholars. All the students that have been sent before the Examiners at Washington have passed and are now officers of Colored Regiments. Two additional Preceptors have been engaged for the School, viz: an Assistant to teach Tactics and Army Regulations, and a Professor to review the students in arithmetic and the higher mathematics, geography and history.

The Committee having nearly exhausted the funds entrusted to it, and believing its power to recruit colored troops economically is by no means at an end, has asked and received permission from the War Department to continue its work. It therefore solicits from citizens, and from the Banks, Insurance Companies, Railroad Companies and other public institutions renewed aid.

The Committee feels confident that it is only necessary to call public attention to this matter to insure its full accomplishment.

Since the foregoing statements was compiled, the following additional subscriptions have been made:

SHALL THERE BE A DRAFT IN THE TWENTIETH WARD?

All interested in filling up the quota of the Ward, and who wish to avoid the Draft, are invited to meet on THURSDAY EVENING, the 4th instant, at 7½ o'clock, at the Church, Girard avenue, above Sixteenth street, when the following Resolution will be discussed:

Whether the COMMITTEES collect any more funds to fill the quota of the Ward, or discontinue their work of collecting, and let the Draft be made.

Those who are subject to the Draft are invited to attend, as this will be their last opportunity to get out, if we do not meet with better success than we have done.

We can get out by raising $40,000, and if there is a Draft it will require $300,000 to pay for substitutes or commutation money.

PENNSYLVANIA RELIEF ASSOCIATION FOR EAST TENNESSEE
President—Ex-Gov. JAMES POLLOCK.
Treasurer—CLAYE COPE.
Secretary—JOSEPH T. THOMAS.

This Association has for its object to relieve the sufferings of the people of East Tennessee, the only portion of the South which has preserved unshaken its fidelity to the Flag of the United States.

When the question of secession was presented to the people, in February, 1861, East Tennessee gave a majority against it. In Sevier county, out of a voting population of 1,457, only one vote was polled for secession. At this moment there are, in the Federal uniform, from the county of Roane, more men in arms than there were voters in 1860.

The young men of East Tennessee are now fighting for their country and our country. The old men, women, and children, whether within the Federal or the rebel lines, are naked, destitute, and almost starving, the contending armies having four times passed over their unhappy country, leaving devastation in their track.

Members of the Committee, and others, who may be willing to collect funds, are respectfully requested to call upon the Secretary, No. 215 South Fifth street, and procure subscription books numbered and signed by the Secretary. No other subscription books are authorized by the Association.

Contributions in blankets, clothing, &c., may be sent to the undersigned.

J. B. LIPPINCOTT,
No. 715 Market street,
Chairman of Committee on Collections.

REDUCTION OF WARD BOUNTIES.—About two months since, when there was every appearance of a draft being necessary to fill the quota of the city; meetings were held in the different Wards, and it was agreed to offer a bounty in addition to that offered by the city. There was no uniformity about the matter, however. Some Wards offered $100, others $75, and the remainder $50. Competition was, therefore, very great, and, of course, those who offered the largest bounty obtained the greatest number of men. In some of the Wards, occupied pincipally by the working classes, but small amounts of money could be collected, and thus but very few men could be had. In other Wards the action taken was very hasty, and it was soon found that too large a sum had been offered—in fact more than was warranted by the collections. Many men have left the city without receiving any of the Ward bounty promised them. As matters stand it was considered that injustice was being done to the poorer Wards, and two meetings of representatives from the Ward Bounty Fund Committees have been held. The proceedings of last evening will be found on the inside of to-day's BULLETIN. During the discussions which occurred at the meetings, it seemed to be the general impression that there was more difficulty in getting money than ever, and last week it was recommended that the bounty in each ward should be $50. The call of February 1st for troops, throws an additional burden upon the wards, and at the meeting last evening it was argued that men from the country were attracted here by the large city bounty, and cared nothing about the Ward bounty. A proposition to dispense with the Ward bounty altogether was very strongly urged by Col. Wm. Bradford, Wm. D. Leins, Esq. and others. The proposition was finally rejected, and it was agreed that the ward bounties should be reduced to $25, on or after the 4th instant.

CHURCH HOME FOR CHILDREN.—The eighth anniversary of this institution was celebrated yesterday. The children were reported to be in an exceedingly healthy condition, and during the past eight years not a death has occurred in the Home. There are now fifty children under the care of the Managers. The treasury is in a good condition, having a balance on hand at the present date. The wants of the children, during the present year, will require, however, the liberal contributions of the benevolent. The Home is entirely out of debt, the remaining indebtedness on the building having been canceled since last report. During the year, the improvement of the children in their studies has been a source of gratification to the Managers. The following persons were elected officers:

Directresses—Mrs. F. R. Starr, Mrs. Charles Stille, Mrs. Henry H. Smith. Secretary—Miss E. K. Mitchell. Treasurer—Miss N. Fisher. Managers.—Mrs. F. R. Starr, Mrs. M. Jessup, Mrs. Henry H. Smith, Mrs. William Ellis, Miss Catharine K. Meredith, Miss Farnum, Mrs. Geo. T. Lewis, Miss N. W. Fisher, Miss Mary McHenry, Miss M. S. Lewis, Miss Caroline W. Paul, Miss H. S. Biddle, Mrs. Clayton T. Platt, Mrs. C. J. Stille, Mrs. Charles W. Cushman, Miss Newbold, Miss M. K. Lewis, Miss A. E. Biddle, Miss Caroline West, Miss E. K. Mitchell.

POLICY DEALERS IN TROUBLE.—About fifty persons were arrested in different parts of the city last evening upon the charge of being engaged in selling lottery policies. The warrants were issued by Mayor Henry and the descent was made simultaneously by the police. Twenty men were captured, at what appeared to be the main establishment, Seventh and Sansom streets. A quantity of books, papers, &c., and also the drawings for February 1 were seized there by the police. The whole party were held in $1200 bail by Alderman Beitler for a hearing this afternoon.

REV. DR. COX'S LECTURES.—The fourth of these exceedingly interesting lectures was given in the Hall of the University last evening. It was still more pleasing than either of the former, if we may compare where all have been so good. Those of our citizens who were absent know not how much they lost. The last of the course will be given on Thursday evening in the same Hall, and we can assure all lovers of history and poetry it will be worth hearing. That all, both young and old, may enjoy the privilege, we understand the tickets will be but 25 cents. Dr. Cox is certainly one of the most wonderful men of the age, and being now a septuagenarian, he may never lecture here again upon this subject.

ORATORIO OF THE MESSIAH.—At the Academy of Music on Friday evening next this grand work of Handel will be performed by the Handel and Haydn Society for the benefit of the U. S. Christian Commission. The solos and concerted pieces will be sustained by the first professional and amateur talent in the country, and the chorus will consist of over two hundred voices. The Germania Orchestra will assist upon the occasion. The price of tickets is very reasonable, and as the proceeds are to be devoted to a noble cause there ought to be a full house.

TAKING THE VAIL.—An interesting ceremony came off yesterday, at the House of the Good Shepherd, on Twenty-second street. Miss Theresa McCloskey, of this city, was received into the sisterhood, as Sister Mary St. Paul, and Miss Helen McHenry made a profession, and became for life, Sister of the Nativity. The ceremonies were witnessed by a large number of persons, there being, however, only two or three gentlemen present, other than the officiating clergymen. Rt. Rev. Bishop Wood performed the ceremony.

BOUNTY MEETING.—The citizens of the Third Ward held a meeting at Jefferson Hall last evening to encourage volunteering. Addresses were delivered by Theodore Cuyler, A. B. Sloanaker, Dr. Heritage, Capt. Lehman, and others. Block Committees were appointed, and other arrangements made to obtain the quota for the ward without a resort to the draft. About seven hundred dollars were contributed on the spot in furtherance of the object of the meeting.

FIRST WARD.—An effort is now being made in the First Ward to supply the volunteers needed to save the Ward from the draft, and it is entitled to the earnest aid of every citizen of that section of the city. We believe the quota of the Ward is about eight hundred men. With proper effort the bounty money may be raised, and the men secured. It is easier to get the men than the money, and every citizen who desires to be free from the annoyance occasioned by the draft should hand in his subscription without delay.

CHARGED WITH HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—Dennis Shea was arrested last night upon the charge of highway robbery. He is alleged to have knocked down a man and robbed him of his watch and $75, while returning from the Philadelphia skating pond sometime since. Shea will have a hearing before Ald. ANOTHER ARREST.—Thomas Donohue was arrested last night and taken before Alderman Dallas, upon the charge of having been concerned in the robbery of a man of $620, in the neighborhood of Fifteenth and Federal street, mentioned in the BULLETIN yesterday. Donohue was committed.

PREPARING FOR SPRING.—We have already noticed the fact that Messrs. C. Somers & Son, No. 625 Chestnut street, under Jayne's Hall, are now closing out their splendid stock of Winter Clothing at greatly reduced prices. This they are still continuing. They are now also making vigorous preparations for an immense spring trade, and importing largely of the very choicest fabrics produced in the best European markets, and will soon be prepared to offer a magnificent stock of spring garments at reasonable prices.
