S. KILPATRICK, Secretary. PENNSYLVANIA RELIEF ASSOCIA-TION FOR EAST TENNESSEE President-Ex. Gov. JAMES POLLOCK. Treasurer-CALEB COPE. Secretary-JOSEPH T. THOMAS. This Association has for its object to relieve the sufferings of the popple of East Tennessee, the only portion of the Sonth which has preserved unshaken its fidelity to the Flag of the United States. When the question of secression was presented to the people, in February, 1631, East Tennessee gave an overwheiming majority azainst it. In Serier county, out of a voting population of 1,457, only one vote was polled for secession. At this mo-ment there are, in the Federal uniform, from the county of Roane, more men in arms than there were voters in 1660. The young men of East Tennessee are now fight-ing for their country and our country. WESTERN ITEMS. Generals Thomas and Schoiield left for the front yesterday. A negro who had snugly ensconced himself in a seat with several white ladies at the Louisville Theatre night before last, was very unceremoniously ejected by the Provost Guard, who confined him over-night, and yesterday morning delivered him to the police.

It is reported that a great many contraband negroes escape to Indiana almost nightly in small boats. The Contraband Commission are collecting large numbers daily, and they are forwarded at once to the Government railroad works. Major-General Grant will remain in our city several days before leaving for the front.

Light thousand deserters have been received within the lines of the Army of the Cumberand since General Thomas took command.

The Flag Ship Black Hawk of the Mississippi Squadron, with Rear-Admiral David D. Porter on board, arrived at New Albany yesterday ng upward. has for 'some time past been undergoing repairs. Admiral Porter has come up on a special tour of observation, and will remain with us for The Black Hawk was converted several days. into a tag-ship from what was once known as the New Uncle Sam, and is perhaps one of the best models on the Western wharves. She carries 15 pieces, of various calibre, and her case-mating is impregnable. Two hundred and thirty-four men comprise her crew. By order of General Thomas, transportation for passengers will not be furnished from Chattanooga to Knoxville until the railroad is completed. FROM WASHINGTON.

The Tribune correspondent writes as follows: A gentleman connected with the Navy Repartment stated to-day that a Government contractor has been tried recently at the instance of Secretary Welles, and sentenced to a year's imprisonment and a fine of $5,000. It is said that this gentleman is engaged in business of considerable importance, which requires his personal attention daily, and that the execution of the verdict will destroy his means of living as well as character. This should be Some months ago we stated, on the author-ty of an officer attached to the United States steamer Tuscarora, now in European waters, that Mr. Laird was solicited to sell his rams to the British Government. The story has been repeated since, with the assertion that the pro-position was refused. A naval officer, however, has received a letter from a European correspondent stating that the English Govern-ment and Mr. Laird differ only about the price of the vessels, and that if the government give the figure stated by him they can have the craft, notwithstanding the statements to the contrary recently published by the British newspapers.

Alderman Beitler yesterday afternoon, there was another hearing in the case of the alleged lottery dealers. Casper Whitman, the prosecutor, testified that he knew Joseph Harvey to be in the policy business, and that he returned his book to Albertson, in Dock street, as the witness had done. It was about fourteen months ago. John Myers, another of the defendants, returned his book to Miller, at Seventh and Sansom streets. Peter Whitall returned his book to Albertson; knew him to have been in the business within two years. A Miss Collins testified that she had bought lottery policies from John Myers, at his place in Elder alley. Whitman testified that he know Henry Lanning to be in the business, in Sixth street, below Race; has a cigar shop in front,
