EVENING BULLETIN

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1864.

ANDREWS THE VIRGINIAN. If any man ever especially deserved hanging, Andrews, the Virginian, who figured so prominently in the New York riots, is the individual. The thrilling accounts of those bloody scenes which came to us day after day, are still vividly remembered, and no one who figured as a leader of the murderers, thieves and incendiaries became so detested as this unprincipled traitor. His harangues were of such a character that even the most depraved of his sympathizers in other localities condemned them. In New York, however, they increased the excitement, and prompted men to acts of villainy more dastardly even than their own imaginations conceived. For the lives that were sacrificed, the buildings that were destroyed, the property that was plundered and the immense debt that was incurred, Andrews was mainly responsible, and if justice was ever cheated out of its due, it will be when this culprit, by quibble or technicality, is saved from the gallows. Many of the ignorant men who obeyed his suggestions and instructions have been found guilty, and are suffering the penalty of SOME ADDITIONAL FACTS ABOUT THE. their crime within the prison walls; and why their principal leader should not be brought to trial cannot be understood either by the dupes or the victims. The most contemptible Copperhead engaged in the riots, or the most degraded rioter that fell during that bloody carnival, was not as criminal as the representative of chivalry to whom we refer. He is entitled to no mercy, and should receive none but that which gives him the opportunity to prepare himself for the great change which awaits all villains convicted of the crimes he committed. We have no hesitation in speaking of him with the same severity as we would if he had been tried and found guilty; for with so many hundreds of witnesses of his dastardly deeds, there can be no doubt of the verdict.

In alluding to Andrews we can but refer to the disgraceful treatment of the widow of one of the victims, by the New York authorities. Colonel Henry F. O'Brien, when the disturbance began, was raising a regiment for three years, and immediately offered the services of his command to quell the riots. The offer was accepted, and in prosecuting his duties he was most brutally murdered. His residence was subsequently robbed, and his wife compelled to desert the house in which but a few hours before bappiness and peace had reigned, and flee from the merciless mob. The slaughtered officer has since rested in a pauper's grave, and his afflicted widow has a deaf ear turned to her repeated appeals for assistance in her destitution-poverty produced by a large expenditure of money by her gallant husband in organizing his regiment. It will not do for New York to boast of superior patriotism and philanthropy as long as Andrews awaits conviction, and the brave O'Brien occupies a nameless FILTHY PHILADELPHIA. In the dirtiest days of New York her streets did not exceed in filthiness those of Philadelphia at the present time. There is not one, even of our most fashionable thoroughfares, that is not in a disgraceful condition. The smaller streets and alleys are in an unspeakably nasty state. The mild, damp weather has removed all the frost from the winter's accumulations, and now we are only waiting a few warm sunny days to have the malaria brought out in full power and to breed a pestilence. It is no wonder that the health of the city is worse this winter than it ever has been before; that spotted fever, typhoid fever, small-pox and other diseases resulting from impure air prevail to an unusual extent. We entreat Councils to do something to save the health of the people and the reputation of the city. If they do not know how it is to be done, let them send a committee to New York to take a lesson from Inspector Boole, who has organized a system by which the streets are kept in a decent condition. There are many of our streets in which a scavenger has not appeared for six months, and the heaps of filth are frightful to behold. Instead of being the cleanest city of the Union, as Philadelphia formerly was, it is now the dirtiest.

DOG MEAT FOR UNION PRISONERS. The Richmond Examiner of the 28th ultimo contains the following: "WARNING TO Dogs.-According to the state-"WARNING TO DOGS.—According to the statement of 'A Citizen,' who writes us on the subject. Belle Isle, the depot of the Yankee prisoners in Richmond, is unhealthy for dogs—especially well-conditioned dogs. "The Yankees eat them,' and this our correspondent knows from facts that have come within his knowledge. Several gentlemen on that 'lone barren isle' have lost, recently, thefr favorite heel companions, and our correspondent affirms that it is well known to the guard that the Yankees caught, friesseed and eat them! And that, moreover, the Yankees have begged some citizens to 'let them have their dogs to eat.' Horrible! We are advised, if we doubt the statement of our correspondent, to visit the island and take a dog along, and we will come away alone and convinced.

"All we have to append to this dog story is, that we never did admire Yankee taste in anything; but if they prefer a steak of canine meat to the rations of beef, bread, potatoes and soup furaished them rom the Commissary Department by the prison officials, it is to their liking, not ours. Some animals of a carnivorous nature rather like the flesh of another animal of a like nature. In the above case it is 'dog eat dog,' perhaps:' "Despite the brutal bufloonery of the writer of this characteristic article, one thing is very

of this characteristic article, one thing is very clearly proved by it, to wit: that the stories of he semi-starvation of the Union prisoners at Richmond are true. We know something of Yankee tastes," and we know that Yankees will not eat dogs if they can procure sufficient beef, bread, potatoes and soup?' to support life. The rebel editor has let out more than he designed letting out in his article, and he has also proved that men cruel enough to starve prisoners of war can also be mean enough to scoff and mock at the sufferings of their victims.

GERMAN OPERA. The German Opera season, to commence on Monday evening at the Academy of Music, promises to be a very successful one. There will be only three evening performances in a week, and a fresh opera each evening. The Merry Wives of Windsor is the erera for M inday, and we are condentthat it will be admirably performed.

Colored Troops.—In another part of to-days paper will be found the report of the Supervisory Committee for raising Colored Troops, which wil be read with interest. It will be seen that in the short space of seven months, and at an outlay of less than thirty thousand dollars, the Committee have raised five full regiments for the war, with out any cost to the Government.

FIRST-CLASS CHESTER COUNTY FARMS, vertisements, seventh page to day's BULLETIN. WHEELER & WILSON SEWING MACHINE.

It would be folly to attempt any higher eulogy upon the world-ren wned Sewing Machine of Wheeler & Wilson (sold in this city, at their ele gant warerooms, No. 704 Chestnut street) than the statement of the fact that wherever the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine has been exhibited for competition, either on this or the other side of the Atlantic, it has, without a single exception, taken the highest premium. So true is this, that wherever this compliment has been extended to any other machine, it may be taken as proof positive that the Wheeler & Wilson instrument was not exhibited at all; this, in itself, is such a telling fact that to multiply words about it to people of intelligence would be useless. Nevertheless, there are a number of incidental facts connected with this favorite machine that the people ought toknow, a few of which we take the liberty of introducing here, in the following order:
1st. The yearly sales of the Wheeler & Wilson

Sewing Machines (sold in this city at No. 704 Chestnut street), are larger than those of all the other Sewing Machines combined. id. The immense manufactory of the Wheeler &

Wilson Sewing Machine Company, at Bridgeport, Connecticut, is one of the worders of the world It occupies upwards of four acres of ground, employs more than a thousand of the best workmen in the United States, and, with the most improved machinery, the Company find it impossible to supply the great demand for their machines in this country and Europe.

3d. The Wheeler & Wilson Machine is an intrument of infinite versatility in its operation. It will braid, cord, bind, tuck, gather, fell, and hem more beautifully than any other machine in use; and by attaching a small arrangement called a strimmer," any kind of trimming may be sewed on dresses without previous basting.

4th. Bindings may be put on the edges of any kind of garment, hat, or cap, without any other adjusting than that performed by the machine itself while in the act of sewing them on. 5th. The Loca-stitch made by the Wheeler &

Wilson Sewing Machine is more durable and more beautiful than made by any other, and has these advantages, that it presents the same appearance on both sides of the fabric, and will not ravel. It is, also, more economical, requiring one-third ess cotton than any other kind of stitch. Again, this beautiful stitch being the same on both sides, it is not necessary to use the extremely fine sewing cotton required by those machine which make a stitch with a ridge on the under side that can only be concealed by a thread too delicate and fine to bear ordinary wear. 6th. The bobbin which holds the under-thread in the Wheeler & Wilson Machine is so constructed that when empty no care and very little time is required to fill it. The bobbins on the shuttle machine, on the contrary, require considerable care in order to wind the cotton on them evenly, and if the winding is done by an inexperienced hand, the result is the thread will not unwind freely, and will break. 7th. The simplicity of the Wheeler & Wilson Machine renders its movements so easy that a child can work it, the weight of the feet alone being sufficient to move it. It will work with all kinds of sewing silk, cotton, or linen thread, and will sew all kinds of materials, from the thinnest gauze to the heaviest cloth or leather. It is used by thousands of Tailors, Dressmakers, Hatters, Capmakers, Hoop-Skirt Manufacturers, Shirtmakers, and

8th. For rapidity of motion, the Wheeler & Wilson Machine exceeds all others, as has been demonstrated a thousand times by comparison. 9th. It is so noiseless in its operations that conversation may be carried on in the ordinary pitch of voice in a work-room where a score of machine are in motion.

10th. Another very great advantage that the Wheeler & Wilson Machine possesses over others, is found in the fact that the work on it is carried on in the natural way, from left to right which enables the operator to adjust the work more readily, and without any change from the upright posture, while machines which carry the work from the operator require an inclination of the body (detrimental to health) material as it passes from under the needle.

lith. As an ornamental piece of workmanship, he Wheeler & Wilson instrument is worthy; place in the most elegantly furnished parlor; a fact which renders it peculiarly desirable and appropriate as a gift. Some of the cases are of rose-wood, walnut or mahogany, turnished with sets of drawers for the reception of cotton, sewing silks, &c., and when the doors are closed there are tew articles of furniture more exquisitely

For these and sundry other reasons, no household in the land is complete without a Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine. They are within the reach of everybody, being made to suit all tastes and circumstances; and the plainest in finish, which costs $15, will work as well as one which costs $200. We advise our readers to observe these facts, and preserve them conveniently for future reference, and suggest that when they want the best Sewing Machine in the world, they go to the office of

Wheeler & Wilson's New Agency, in this city, 704 Chestnut street, and get it. SOME OF THE GRAND RESULTS OF THE WHEELER & WILSON SEWING MACHINE.

From what has been already said, it will be seen that the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine, sold in this city at No. 704 Ches: nut street, is not an experiment to be tried, but a success achieved, with benefits far exceeding the most sanguine expectation. The steam engine and magnetic telegraph have not proved more beneficent in the commercial world than this has in the domestic. From feeble beginnings, in 1852, and embarrassed by prejudices rom the imperfections of machines then before the public, it has entirely revolutionized needlework, and won for the Sewing Machine a recognition as being second to no mechanical agent. With the invention of this machine a new ero dawned upon woman, which will not fail to be marked upon the health, virtue and happiness of future generations. Poets, orators, divines, phiosophers, and economists have descanted upon its bearings on social interests and the destiny of wo-Major General Nathaniel P. Banks, in his address at the Crystal Palace, declared that "The Sewing Machine will work as great a change in families as railways have in communities and States." The ladies themselves have been most earnest in its praise. Not only in private, but in public, through the press, ladies of the highest public, infough one pieces, names of the first dis-social standing, and authoresses of the first dif-tinction, have exerted their influence in its behalf. Mrs. E. Oakes Smith has, for more than four years, earnestly employed her pen in advocating its general introduction into families. She says. Of the Wheeler & Wilson Machine we can speak with entire clearness and confidence, after the use of one four years or more in our family. We look upon it as one of the benefactions of the age, and one which constitutes an era in the history of woman. Its song should be;

While the cock crows loud and free,
And click! click! click!

Is a merry sound to me.

With bodies trim and neat
I seam, and gusset, and band,
With my dainty slippered feet,
And a small white fingered hand.

Stitch to the click of the steel,
And never an aching head,
While I turn the glittering wheel,
With the gleaming sliver thread.
Oh, wcman! no more a slave
To seam, and gusset, and band,
Shall beautiful grow and brave,
In the light of our happy land.

So fully has the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine commended itself to public favor, that it woman. Its song should be;

Machine commended itself to public favor, that it is now looked upon as indispensable to every branch of industry requiring sewing. Not only are the wants of housekeepers fully met, but the machine is found a necessity for the seamstress, dressmaker, tailor, manufacturer of shirts, collars cloaks, mantillas, clothing, hats, caps, corsets, ladies hoots, silk and linen goods, umbrellas, parasols, etc. Some of these branches of business have attained gigantic proportions, and it is not unusual to find 100 to 400 sewing machines used in a single manufactory. This is not surprising, when the efficiency of the machine is considered. THE PECUNIARY ADVANTAGES OF THE WHEELER &

Nor are the pecuniary advantages less. Instead into the night, she receives from three to five time that amount for a day's employment of rear onable hours. Indeed, in thousands of cases has the prerentation of a sewing machine rendered an object of charity self-supporting, and converted her into thrifty and willing almoner. Mothers support families and young women become capitalists s not unusual to find the owner of a sewing machine earning from $50 to $150 per month. EMINENT OPINIONS OF THE WHEELER & WILSON

SEWING MACHINES, We could add the names of thousands who are now using the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machines in this vicinity, but we will conclude by nviting all to come and examine these wonderful machines and see them work. Wheeler & Wilson's bighest premium Sewing Machines are the best, the simplest, and the cheapest. Nearly, one hundred and fifty thousand of these well-tried Sewing Machines have been sold. Five thousand are in use in Philadelphia. Don't be deceived. The Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine is acknowledged by all competent judges to he the best. Call and examine. No charge for in struction, whether you wish to purchase or not. The Great Triumph of Mrs. M. G.

BROWN'S "Metaphysical Discovery" over all quackery. Read carefully the following certificates, tendered me for the benefit of all suffering humanity:

GLOTCESTER, N. J., Jan. 30, 1864.

I, Mr. William Lee, of Gloncester, Camden county, N. J., do certify that my wife, Ellen, has been suffering severely with a complication of diseases for eight years. The first symtom of disease was a womb complain, on its first appearance she was confined to her bed for seven weeks; diseases of various kinds set in one after another, till my wife was an entire week. another, till my wife was an entire wreck. She has been under the treatment of ten of the first physicians, all of whom failed to render her any relief, and ten of the first physicians, all of whom failed to render her any relief, and she was fast sinking in the arms of death. It is more than four years since she was able to attend to household duties. I have been compelled to employ a housekeeper. We had given up doctoring as useless. Most providentially and through the blessing of God, my housekeeper went up to Kingsessing, Pa., to see her sister. She found that her sister's neighbor, John Richmond, had given up all work and was at the point of death. He sent for Mrs. M. G. Brown's "Metaphysical Discovery," had been restored to health and is at his work again. When my housekeeper teturned, she told me the circumstances, and prevailed on me to write to Mr. Richmond, and ask him the particulars. I deneso, and received an answer, which you will flud at the bottom of my certificate.

We then sent for Mrs. M. G. Brown's "Metaphysical Discovery" and my wife has used at faithfully, at dithe result is that the wome disease, which was so bad, is emirely gone. She can now to the work of her own house, which she has not done for many years. I consider that disease is fast leaving her system, and she is regaining her original health. Here eyes, which were so weak through all her aidlition, are now clear and strong, and Igenhesitatically ascribe my wife's recovery, from the jaws of death, to Mrs. M. G. Brown's "Metaphysical Discovery," and heartily recommend it to those who are suffering from any disease, as it must certainly strike at the recot of all diseases. It has done so in my wife's case. Should any person wish to call on me in reference to the above, I am willing to see them personally or write to them if they desire.
