THE EXPEDITION TOWARDS BICHMOND. BALTIMORE, February 9.—The American has a special despatch from Fortress Monroe, from C. C. Fulton, who has been up to City Point.

It says: The rebel flag-of-truce steamer Schultz, with Commissioner Ould and Captain Hatch, the truce officer, arrived on Sunday morning at City Point.

Two citizen prisoners, brought down by the Schultz, were sent on board the New York. They were both Marylanders. One of them, Mr. A. F. Breugle, of Frederick, Md., was captured at Middletown on the 20th of June last, whilst acting as a volunteer assistant to the Sanitary Commission, and the other, Geo. W. Longley, of Baltimore county, was captured whilst driving a wagon of the Sanitary Com-mission near Chancellorsville on the 27th of November. They were released through the interposition of the Rev. Mr. Petriken.

The prisoners brought exciting news from Richmond, which they represent to have been in a state of reverish excitement from midnight on Saturday up to the time they left, at 2 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. At midnight on Saturday the bells of the city were rung and men were rushing through the streets crying "To arms! to arms-the Yankees are coming."

During the remainder of the night an intense commotion was everywhere visible. The Home Guards were called out, and the tramp of armed men could be heard in all directions. Cannon were hauled through the streets. women and children were hurrying to and fro, and there were all the evidences of such a panic as had seldom been witnessed in Richmond. On Sunday morning there was no abatement in the excitement. The guards were all marched out of the city to the defences, and the armed citizens placed on guard over the prisoners. Horsemen were dashing to and fro, and the excitement among the prisoners to know the cause of all this commotion became intense. It was soon learned that a large cavalry and infantry force, with artillery, had made their appearance on the Peninsula at Bottom's Bridge, within ten miles of the city, and that Richmond was actually threatened by the Yank ees.

The same hurrying of troops, arming of citizens and excitement among the women and children continued during the morning.

At 2 o'clock in the atternoon, when the pri soners were about to leave in the truce boat. the alarm bells were again rung with great fury, and they left a scene of confusion and turmoil such as they had never before witnessed in the city.

The rumors that prevailed were conflicting and wild. It was their impression that 8,000 or 10,000 cavalry would have found but little difficulty in entering the city, liberating the prisoners, destroying the forts and public property, and returning by the Peninsula before any sufficient force to resist them, could be brought to the aid of the small garrison left to defend it.

For several days previous to this alarm, the troops in and around the city, to the number of 4000 or 5000, had been sent off to join Lee's army with great dispatch, the impression prevailing that a movement was contemplated by Gen. Meade.

In this they were right, as during the progress of the excitement on Sunday, intel-ligence was received that Meade had crossed the Rapidan.

On Monday morning a courier arrived at City Point bringing copies of the morning papers with the intelligence that the excitement had abated, and that it had been ascertained that the Yankees were falling back from the Chickahominy and had abandoned the attack.
