IXXVI ITH CONGRESS-FIRST SESSION.

IXXVI: ITH CONGRESS -FIRST SESSION. WASHINGTON, Feb. 10. SDNATE.-Mr. Powell, from the Judiciary Com-mittee, reported a bill authorizing the holding of a special session of a United States District Court in Indiana, which was passed. Mr. Trumbull (111.), from the same Committee, reported back a substitute for the joint resolution of Mr. Henderson, proposing amendments to the Constitution of the United States, us follows: 1st. Neither slavery nor involuntaryl servitade, Oracipt as a punishment for crime, whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall exist within the United States or any place subject to their jurisdiction.

their jurisdiction. 2d. Congress shall have power to enforce this ar-

2d. Coogress shall have power to enforce this ar-ticle by appropriate legislation. Mr. Trumbull reported adversely to the proposed amendment of the Constitution by Mr. Summer, making all men equal before the law, so that no man can hold another as a slave. Mr. Clark (N. H.) Introduced a bill rectifying and reafirming the President's Proclamation of January 1, 1803, and giving it the force of a statute which was referred to the Committee on Slavery and Freedmen.

and Freedmen. <sup>1</sup> Mr. Brown (Mo.) submitted amendments to Mr. Wilson's bill to promote enlistments. which con-firms the emancipation proclamation, abolishes slavery throughout the country, and subjects col-ored men to enrollment and draft under the same apportionment as "other citizens." Mr. Grimes's bill, provosing a scale of reduc-ored men to enrollment and draft under the same apportionment as "other-citizens." Mr. Grimes's bill, proposing a scale of reduc-tion of military salaries when officers are in com-mand, not in the field, and when on leave or without a command, was reported aversely from the Committee on Military Affairs. Mr. Summer (Mass.) introduced a resolution di-recting the Committee on the Histrict of Columbia to inquire into the expediency of a law granting 6 quality of privileges to colered peopleon the rail-roads of the District. He called attection to the subject for the reason that an outrage was recently. committed in this district upon an officer with the rank of Major in the United States service. This officer had been recently ejected from one of the street cars by the conductor because he was a black man. He thought we had better break up all railroads if we could note have them carried on without such outrages, which did more to injure for comserved and at hour a defeat in bat. without such ontrages, which did more to injure our cause abroad and at home than a defeat in bat-

The section substantially stands as in the original bill. Mr. Ganson (N. Y.) offered an amendment that the privileges of the writ of habcaz corpus shall not be suspended in the cases of alleged minors who may be enlisted. Rejected. Mr. Stevens offered an amendment that persons of African descent, between 20 and 45 years of age, whether citizens of the United States or not, shall be encled and form part of the national forces, and when a slave shall be dratted and mustered into the fervice, the master shall receive a certifi-teme for S300, and the drafted man shall be free. This, Mr. Stevens said, would give compensation to the masters in the loyal border States. Mr. Clay (Ky.) hoped that Mr. Stevens would withdraw his amendment. A good feeling was now prevailing in his State, but the adoption of his proposition would retard the progress of the Union feeling. He did not object to taking rebel property, but that of loyal men ought not to be in-tertered with. Mr. Hendricks (Ind.) said if he expressed any opinion he would say the outrage was the other way. Separate cars were provided for the col-ored people, and this case occurred because the negro declined to ride with persons of his own color, and wished to force himself with white were

Mr. Grimes did not think there were any cars running now for the accommodation of colored people. Mr. Hendricks knew differently, for he had en-tered one and was glad to get out the best way he

Mr. Grimes did not. Link it a disgrace to fide with these colored people. 1 Mr. Sumner read the letter of Dr. Augusta, o the 7th colored volunteers. He believed that it was as great an outrage as it would be to eject the Senator from his seathere.

as great an outrage as it would be to eject the Senator from his seat here. Without meaning any personal disrespect, Mr. Wilson said he belicyed the largest quantity of in-formation in and cut of the Senate was from the papers, and his attention was called to this subject from them. This was not the only place where reform was needed. He had information of an outrage perpetrated on a mail railroad, where two colored men were ejected from an empty car and forced into a cattle car. This was a part of the malignant system of slavery, but the country was being rapidly abolitionized and civilized. Mr. Hendricks (Ind.) believed, from the expres-sions he had heard to day, that social as well as political equality was to be forzed upon the white race. The people of Indiana would never adopt that sentiment. He was glad that the Senator from Masachusetts had now plainly presented the issue before the country.

Massachusetts had now plainly presented the issue before the country. Mr. Wilson said he had no desire to force negro equality on the Senator from Indiana-what he wanted was to let every man assume the station God intended him to attain. The ayes and nays were ordered, and resulted as follows: AYES 31-Messrs. Anthony, Brown, Chanler, Clark, Collamer, Conness, Cowan Dixon, Fessenden, Foot, Foster, Grimes Hale, Harlan, Harris, Howard, Howe, Lane (Iad.), Lane (Kan-sas), Morgan, Morrill, Pomeroy, Ramsey, Sher-man, Sprague, Sumner, Ten Eyck, Trumbuli, Wade, Wilkinson, Willey, Wilson. NATS 10-Messrs Buckalew, Davis, Harding, Hendricks, Nesmith, Powell, Enchardson, Riddle, Saulsbury, Van Winkle.

by the Chair, was adopted. The Senate then proceeded to consider the Senate The Senate then proceeded to consider the Senate bill No. 28, reported from the Committee on the Judicary by Mr. Trumbull, with amendments. The Committee's amendments were agreed to after a lengthy debate, in which Messrs. Johnson, Fes-senden, Foster, Cowan, Hale and Trumbull par-ticineted trust or profit under the Government of the United States. Hr. Wilson called up the joint resolution equal-izing the pay of soldiers. The pending amendment of Mr. Conners, to strike out the section giving colored troops equal pay prior to the passage of the at, being under Consideration, Mr. Summer argued at length the justice of the bill as it stood. To obviat's objections to the bill, he were willing to leave it discretionary with the Secretary of War as to what regiments should receive the retrospective pay proposed in the bill, so as to include only those who had entered the service under the delusion that they were to receive more than $10 per month. Mr. Fersenden opposed the retrospective char-acter of the bill.

Mr. Wilson supported the views taken by Mr. Mir. Wilson Supported the views deviced by his Summer, and contended that the circumstances in favor of putting these troops on an equality with the others from the time that they had been in the service were even stronger than the Senator had represented.

The others from the inte that they have been in been in the senator has represented. Mr. Lane (Ind.) opposed the giving of back pay to these troops, as we had already filled our contingent with them. He did not think they were as good as white troops, and if they were, they are fighting for a higher boon than money. Mr. Wilson defended the colored troops for their bravery, and claimed that for endurance they were superior to the whites. Mr. Doolittle said he would to morrow offer two amendments to the bill. One giving the Secretary of War the discretionary power to decide as to the merits of the claims for back pay, including only those who had been deluded into the service nuder an erroneous construction of the statute, and the other to deduct in insurrectionary districts the sum of four dollars from their monthly pay, to reamburs the government for expense incurred in feeding and clothing their wives and children. Mr. Conness, desiring to discuss the bill, moved that the whole subject should lie over. The Senate wont into Executive session, and soon afterwards adjourned. Houss.-Mr. Ellot (Mass.) from the select for the bill to establish a bureau of freedmen's affairs. It proposes the appointment of a Commissioner,

It proposes the appointment of a Commissioner, with the necessary clerical force, for the adjust-ment and determination of all questions arising with reference to freed persons of African descent. Proper regulations are to be made for their good treatment and protection, and for their employ-ment on abandoned plantations. Departments are to be established with under assistant commis-sioners.

sioners. Mr. Ehot urged the importance of the passage of his bill, and in the course of his remarks said he Mr. Eliot urged the importance of the passa ge of his bill, and in the course of his remarks said he would never forget his conversation with the Pre-sident the day after the Emancipation Proclama-tion was issued. The President remarked, the proclamation of itself will not effect the good you anticipate, nor work as much mischief as its oppo-nents predict. The President did not know that was the great act of his life, and by it that he was to become greater in the estimation of the (/hristian world. That proclamation will constitute the corner-stone of the President's immortal fame, but it cannot be effective excepting by legislation and military success. The sword must loosen the chains of the Slave, otherwise the enemy would weld theiron with holts that may not be broken. The law must protect those whom the sword makes free. Nothing has been done by Congress with that view, and therefore the bill should be passed on the broad ground of justice and self in-terest. Mr. Clay (Ky.) asked the gentleman whether he included Kentucky in this bill, and intended to trample under foot the 'constitution and laws of that State and free the slaves withont the consent of the incurves. Mr. Eliotreplied that Kentucky is out of the

of their owners. Mr. Eliot replied that Kentucky is out of the min Litogether. Mr. Olay wished to know whether the planta-tions in the South, owned by some of his constitu-ents in Kentucky, were to be considered as aban-doned under this bill? Mr. Eliot said the answer would depend upon Whether such constituents were loyal or disloyal. Mr. Chay replied, he owned one of such planta-tions himself, and it had been abandoned because the Government did not protect it. the Government did not protect it Mr. Eliotsaid his bill did not propose to estab-Montes in Kentucky.

Passed. The following preamble and resolutions were offered by Mr. Kelly: Whereas, There is reason to believe that the rebel invasions of Pennsylvania were in a great measure brought about through the contrivance and by the encouragement of disloyal persons in our own State; and Whereas, Claims for damages done during these invasions are now being presented to the Legisla-ture, therefore Resolved, That the select committee to whom are

Recoired, That the select committee to whom are referred the matters in relation to claims arising out of alleged losses from the reber raids of '62 and '63, be instructed to report as part of their bill—if they report a bill—a clause requiring the parties presenting claims to furnish positive proofs of their loyalty. The resolution was discussed at considerable length by Messrs. Sharpe, Kelly, Purdy, Cole-man, McMurtrie, Watson, Graber and Price. On motion of Mr. Rice the resolution was post-poned until to-morrow. Mr. Reed offered a resolution to print, for the use of the House, five hundred copies of an act relative to the sale of the land scrip of the State. Passed
